USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's sixth highest bowl winning percentage (.636) among the 68 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind Utah's .727, Toledo's .700, Penn State's .658, Georgia Tech's .647 and Boston College's .646). USC is just 2 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories, 30 to 28. Troy's 44 bowl appearances rank fourth behind only Alabama (53), Tennessee (45) and Texas (45). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 28-16.

The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990. Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 30 Rose Bowls, where it has a 21-9 mark. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 8 of its last 11 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 11 other bowls—the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (twice), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl and Orange Bowl (twice).

ROSE BOWL HISTORY

This will be the 93rd version of the Rose Bowl, the "Granddaddy of All Bowl Games." It will be held in the 88,506-seat, natural turf Pasadena stadium. Held in conjunction with the world-famous Rose Parade, the game originated in 1902 and has been held continuously since 1916. Beginning in 1947, the game hosted the champions of the Pac-10 and Big Ten Conferences. The Rose Bowl joined the Bowl Championship Series in 1998 and hosted the BCS National Championship Game in 2002 and 2005. USC has appeared 30 times and Michigan 19 times.

USC FOOTBALL ROSE BOWL NOTES

RANKINGS
USC is ranked seventh by USA Today and eighth by AP. Michigan is third in both polls.

SERIES
USC leads its series with Michigan, 5-4. The Trojans have won the past 2 and 5 of the last 6. Seven of those meetings were in the Rose Bowl, where USC holds a 5-2 edge (winning in the 1970, 1977, 1979, 1990 and 2004 Rose Bowls and losing in the 1948 and 1989 Rose Bowls). The other meetings occurred during the regular seasons of 1957 and 1958, with Michigan winning both.

In the 2004 Rose Bowl in the teams' most recent meeting, QB Matt Leinart threw 3 touchdowns and caught another and the relentless Trojan defense recorded a season-high 9 sacks as No. 1 USC dominated No. 4 Michigan, 28-14. The victory (USC's 21st Rose Bowl win) gave Troy the AP national championship, 25 years after its last national crown, and its first 12-win season since 1978. And it snapped Michigan's 6-game winning streak. The Trojans built a 21-0 lead before Michigan scored late in the third quarter. After DT Shaun Cody blocked a Wolverine field goal attempt early in the game, USC scored 4 plays into its first possession when WR Keary Colbert made an over-the-shoulder fingertip grab of Leinart's 25-yard aerial. Then, late in the first half following LB Lofa Tatupu's interception (he grabbed a ball that bounced off of SE Braylon Edwards' foot and returned it 26 yards to the Michigan 3), TB LenDale White took a Leinart toss 6 yards for another TD. Then, on the opening drive of the second half, Colbert made a spectacular one-handed grab of a 47-yard Leinart bomb (despite being interfered with) to up Troy's cushion. However, Michigan answered on its next series with a scoring drive that took nearly 8 minutes, capped by QB John Navarre's 5-yard pass to TE Tim Massaquoi. But USC responded right back, scoring on a tricky 15-yard reverse pass from WR Mike Williams to an unguarded Leinart. Wolverine TB Chris Perry ran 2 yards for a TD early in final quarter, but Michigan had the ball for only 4:12 in that quarter and never threatened again. Leinart was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he connected on 23-of-34 passes for 327 yards with the 3 scores (and no interceptions), along with his TD catch. Colbert, who became USC's career reception leader (with 207 catches), had 6 catches for a career-best 149 yards. Williams added a team-best 8 catches for 88 yards. White's TD was his 14th of the year, tying the USC freshman season record, while TB Reggie Bush–who had 41 yards rushing, 42 receiving and 49 on returns–set the USC freshman season all-purpose yardage mark (1,331 yards). Tatupu had a team-high 12 tackles, CB Will Poole added 10 stops (including 2 sacks) with 5 deflections and DE Kenechi Udeze had 3 sacks. USC's 9 sacks were its most since getting 13 against Oregon in 1992. Although Michigan held the ball 34:26 and had more plays (84 to 60) and first downs (25 to 19), the Trojans accumulated 410 total yards to UM's 320 (only 49 rushing). Michigan came into the game having allowed just 15 sacks and 5 TD passes all season. Navarre was 27-of-46 for 271 yards, Perry ran for 85 yards on 23 tries and Edwards had a game-high 10 receptions for 107 yards.

USC IN ROSE BOWL STADIUM
USC is 28-18 in regular and post-season games it has played in the Rose Bowl, including 21-9 in the Rose Bowl game, 5-8 versus UCLA and 2-1 in the 1922 regular season. The Trojans have lost in their last 2 visits to the Pasadena stadium by a total of 7 points, to Texas in the 2006 BCS Championship Game (41-38) and to UCLA in the 2006 season finale (13-9). This is the first time that USC has played consecutive games in the Rose Bowl Stadium.

USC ON NEW YEAR'S DAY
USC sports a 21-9 record in games it has played on New Year's Day, including an 19-6 mark in Jan. 1 Rose Bowls.

JANUARY RECORD
USC has a 30-12 (.714) all-time record while playing in the month of January, including 24-11 in January bowls. Before losing to Texas in the 2006 BCS Championship Game in the Rose Bowl, USC had won its previous 6 January contests.

SEASON ENDERS
USC is 61-41-11 (.588) in all season finales.

USC ON MONDAYS
USC is 16-11 in games on Monday, including 12-3 in the post-season. USC's last Monday game was a 24-17 win over Auburn at home in 2002.

USC IN BCS GAMES
USC is making an unprecedented fifth consecutive BCS bowl appearance (2003 Orange Bowl vs. Iowa, 2004 Rose Bowl vs. Michigan, 2005 Orange Bowl vs. Oklahoma, 2006 Rose Bowl vs. Texas, 2007 Rose Bowl vs. Michigan). USC's 5 overall BCS bowl trips is tied for second most (with Ohio State and Oklahoma) behind Florida State's 6. USC's 3 BCS bowl victories is second to Ohio State's 4.

WIN STREAKS
USC owns several active winning streaks:
—home games (a Pac-10 and school-record 33);
—Pac-10 home games (a Pac-10 and school-record 23);
—non-conference home games (10);
—non-conference road games (6, not including 3 neutral site wins and 1 neutral site loss);
—September games (10)
—November games (20).

USC'S PAST 5 YEARS UNDER CARROLL
Sixth-year USC head coach Pete Carroll has a system in place that has made the past 5 years (since 2002) glorious ones for the Trojans:
—Four AP Top 4 finishes, including national championships in 2003 and 2004;
—Five BCS bowl appearances;
—Five Pac-10 championships;
—Still-active win streaks for home games (33) and Pac-10 home games (23) to go along with the no-longer-active victory strings for overall games (34), Pac-10 games (27), road games (18), non-conference games (16), games against AP Top 25 teams (16) and Pac-10 road games (13);
—A winning record of 92.1% (58-5), including 9-1 against traditional rivals Notre Dame and UCLA;
—An AP Top 10 ranking for the past 56 games;
—55 wins in the last 59 games, with the losses coming by just 12 points (the first by 3 points in triple overtime at California in 2003, the second by 3 points in the final 19 seconds to Texas in the 2006 Rose Bowl's BCS Championship Game to fall just short of an unprecedented third consecutive national championship, the third by 2 points on a failed 2-point conversion pass with 7 seconds to play at Oregon State in 2006 and the fourth by 4 points at UCLA in 2006 to deny Troy an appearance in a third straight BCS Championship Game);
—A no-longer-active national-record 63 straight 20-point games;
—A no-longer-active national-record 33 consecutive weeks as AP's No. 1-ranked team;
—Twenty-four All-American first teamers;
—Three Heisman Trophy winners;
—Twenty-five NFL draft picks, including 7 first rounders;
—Four Top 5 recruiting classes.

HIGH RANKING
USC has been ranked in the AP Top 10 for its past 56 games, a school record. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 62 of the last 67 polls (including 3 pre-season polls).

USC'S WINNINGEST 3, 2 AND 1 YEAR SPANS
USC's 37 wins during the previous 3 years (12 in 2003, 13 in 2004 and 12 in 2005) represented the winningest 3-year period in Trojan history. Also, USC's 25 wins during the 2-year spans of both 2003-04 and 2004-05 tied for its best 2-year spans. And USC posted its first 13-win season in 2004, its eighth perfect (unbeaten, untied) season ever.

USC'S PAC-10 TITLES
After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989) and again in 2004 and 2005 before sharing it in now in 2006. Those 5 consecutive conference titles are unprecedented in Pac-10 history. USC has now won the league title 36 times, more than twice as much as any other school.

CONNECTIONS
USC does not have any players from Michigan, but the Wolverines have 9 California natives…Michigan DE Eugene Germany originally signed with USC in 2004, but left after that fall camp and transferred to Michigan…Longtime Trojan Marching Band director Dr. Art Bartner is a graduate of Michigan, earning bachelor's (1962), master's (1963) and doctoral (1971) degrees; he also played the trumpet for the Michigan marching, symphonic, varsity and jazz bands…USC offensive line coach Pat Ruel and defensive line coach David Watson both were coaches at Michigan's in-state rival, Michigan State; Ruel coached the offensive line there in 1998 and 1999, while Watson was a defensive graduate assistant there in 2004…Michigan assistant women's water polo coach Jennifer Durley is a former USC player (1998-2001) and assistant (2002-03)…Michigan associate men's track coach Fred LaPlante was the head coach of the USC women's team from 1984 to 1988.

FOOTBALL POWERS
USC and Michigan have 2 of the top gridiron heritages in the country. Both teams have won 11 national titles (USC in 1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003-04 and Michigan in 1901-02-03-04-18-23-32-33-47-48-97). Michigan's .746 winning percentage and 860 victories are No. 1 among Division I-A schools, while USC's .702 winning mark is eighth best and its 742 wins are 10th. USC has appeared in 44 bowls (with 28 wins), while Michigan has been in 37 bowls (with 18 wins). Seven Trojans have won Heisman Trophies (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart, Reggie Bush), as have 3 Wolverines (Tom Harmon, Desmond Howard, Charles Woodson). Michigan has had 126 All-American first teamers, while USC claims 146. USC and Michigan both have 27 players in the College Football Hall of Fame. USC has 10 alums in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and Michigan has 7. Both programs have had legendary coaches (USC's Gloomy Gus Henderson, Howard Jones, John McKay, John Robinson and now Pete Carroll, and Michigan's Fielding Yost, Fritz Crisler, Bo Schembechler and now Lloyd Carr). And both schools feature famous fight songs (USC's "Fight On" and Michigan's "The Victors").

USC VS. BIG TEN
USC is 63-27-2 against Big Ten competition, including 15-9 in bowl meetings. USC has won its last 5 games, 26 of its last 34 and 33 of its last 42 against Big Ten opponents. USC last faced a Big Ten foe in the 2004 Rose Bowl, when the No. 1 Trojans defeated No. 4 Michigan, 28-14. Michigan, on the other hand, is 44-20 against the Pac-10 (its most recent meeting against a Pac-10 foe was also that 2004 Rose Bowl against the Trojans).

USC PLAYERS LAST TIME VS. MICHIGAN
In USC's last game against Michigan (in the 2004 Rose Bowl), 27 current Trojans were on the roster. Of those, just 5 played in that game. LB Dallas Sartz (7 tackles, 2 for a loss, 1 sack, 1 deflection), TB Hershel Dennis (7 carries, 17 yards) and FB Brandon Hancock (2 receptions, 8 yards) all started. WR Steve Smith (1 reception, 9 yards), OT Kyle Williams and WR Chris McFoy also saw action.

COMMON OPPONENT
USC and Michigan both defeated Notre Dame in 2006. The Trojans won, 44-24, on Nov. 25, while the Wolverines were victorious, 47-21, on Sept. 16.

ALL-AMERICANS
In 2006, USC had 5 players named All-American first teamers, the fourth year in a row that USC has had at least 5 honorees. WR Dwayne Jarrett (AP, Walter Camp, SI.com, Scout.com) and OT Sam Baker (Football Writers, The Sporting News, CBS Sportsline.com) both were named All-American first teamers for the second year in a row (Jarrett is USC's first-ever 2-time All-American first team wide receiver). WR Steve Smith (CBS Sportsline.com) also was an All-American first team pick, joining Jarrett to mark the first time that USC had a pair of All-American first team wide receivers in the same season. Rimington Award finalist C Ryan Kalil (Pro Football Weekly) was another All-American first teamer in 2006, the second year in a row that Troy had a pair of All-American first team offensive linemen. DT Sedrick Ellis (Collegefootballnews.com) was USC's fifth All-American first teamer in 2006. They become USC's 142nd, 143rd, 144th, 145th and 146th All-American first teamers. Jarrett was ninth in the voting for the 2006 Heisman Trophy. Additionally, S Taylor Mays (The Sporting News) was an All-American second team pick. Mays also was a Freshman All-American first teamer (The Sporting News, Collegefootballnews.com, Rivals.com, Scout.com) and TB C.J. Gable was a Freshman All-American second teamer (Rivals.com) as a kickoff returner.

ALL-PAC-10
Head coach Pete Carroll was named the 2006 Pac-10 Coach of the Year, S Taylor Mays was a Co-Freshman of the Year selection and 8 other Trojans were named to the All-Pac-10 first team. In all, 17 Trojans made the All-Pac-10 first team, second team or honorable mention. It's the third time in Carroll's 6 years at USC that he has been named Pac-10 Coach of the Year, as he shared the honor in 2003 and 2005. Mays is USC's third Freshman of the Year honoree, joining wide receivers Kareem Kelly (1999) and Mike Williams (2002). USC had 3 repeaters on the All-Pac-10 first team: WR Dwayne Jarrett, OT Sam Baker and C Ryan Kalil. Joining them as first teamers were QB John David Booty, WR Steve Smith, DT Sedrick Ellis and LBs Keith Rivers and Rey Maualuga. USC's second team All-Pac-10 picks were OG Chilo Rachal, DE Lawrence Jackson, LB Brian Cushing and CB Terrell Thomas. Five other Trojans were honorable mention All-Pac-10ers: PK Mario Danelo, S Kevin Ellison, TB C.J. Gable (as a kickoff returner), DT Fili Moala and LB Dallas Sartz. Kalil and Ellis won the 2006 Pac-10 Morris Trophy (for the league's top lineman, as voted by the league's linemen on the other side of the ball).

INJURED STARTERS
Nine starters or projected starters have missed games with injuries this season: WR Dwayne Jarrett (1 game), OG Chilo Rachal (1), DT Chris Barrett (2), DT Sedrick Ellis (3), CB Kevin Thomas (8), FB Stanley Havili (9), FB Ryan Powdrell (10), S Josh Pinkard (11), FB Brandon Hancock (12), TB Hershel Dennis (12). Powdrell, Pinkard, Hancock and Dennis have season-ending injuries. Also, 5 key backups have missed some 2006 games with injuries: LB Kaluka Maiava (1), TB Emmanuel Moody (2), WR Chris McFoy (6), DT Travis Tofi (8), OG Jeff Byers (11), S Will Harris (12).

YOUNG LINEUP
To put USC's youthfulness in perspective, the Trojans start just 4 seniors (3 on offense, 1 on defense) in 2006. And just 3 backups are seniors. Plus, 15 first-year freshmen have seen action in 2006.

LOOKING TO 2007
On USC's current 48-man 2-deep (including the punter and kicker), 41 players (18 offense, 19 defense, 4 specialists) are non-seniors, including 17 starters (8 offense, 10 defense, 2 kickers). And that does not include 3 underclass potential starters who are injured. Here's the schedule those returnees will play in 2007:

Sept. 1	Idaho
Sept. 15	at Nebraska
Sept. 22	Washington State
Sept. 29	at Washington
Oct. 6	Stanford
Oct. 13	Arizona
Oct. 20	at Notre Dame
Oct. 27	at Oregon
Nov. 3	Oregon State
Nov. 10	at California
Nov. 17	at Arizona State
Nov. 24	UCLA

SCHEDULE
USC played a challenging schedule that features 5 foes ranked in the current AP poll and 11 teams that were bowl eligible in 2006 (9 are playing bowls). USC currently plays the nation's second most difficult schedule according to the Sagarin ratings and eighth per the NCAA. In 2006, USC beat the champions of the SEC West Division (Arkansas) and the Big 12 North Division (Nebraska), plus the nation's top independent team (Notre Dame) and the Pac-10 co-champion (California). USC is the only team in the nation to have played all its non-conference games against BCS schools. Troy opened its 2006 campaign at Arkansas on Labor Day weekend, then returned home after a bye to meet Nebraska for the first time since 1970. Then, because of the new Pac-10 round robin scheduling format, the Trojans embarked on a full slate of Pac-10 games for the first time ever. USC faced Washington, Arizona State, Oregon and California at home and traveled to Arizona, Washington State, Oregon State and Stanford. USC then concluded its regular season with back-to-back games against annual rivals Notre Dame in the Coliseum on Thanksgiving weekend and UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Championship Saturday (Dec. 2). USC plays 7 night games, tying the school record first set in 2004. Tickets to Trojan games were hard to come by in 2006, as all home games (and most road games) were sold out. For the third straight season, USC set school records for home sellouts (6), regular season sellouts (10) and season sellouts (11).

ON TV
USC is one of America's most televised teams. The Trojans have appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 359 times, including 225 of the past 227 games (USC's last 66 games have been televised). In fact, USC had an amazing streak of 111 consecutive games on some form of live television from 1988 to 1997 (snapped against Oregon State) and another streak of 48 in a row from 1997 to 2001 (broken against California).

FUN FACT I
The last Rose Bowl trips for both USC and Michigan resulted in narrow last-second losses to Texas. The Trojans fell to the Longhorns, 41-38, in the 2006 Rose Bowl (the BCS Championship Game), while the Wolverines lost to UT in the 2005 Rose Bowl, 38-37.

FUN FACT II
The Grand Marshal of the 2007 Rose Parade, filmmaker George Lucas, is a USC alumnus and has a building on campus named after him. The Queen of this year's Rose Parade, Mary McCluggage, is the daughter of USC alums, Kerry and Vicki, and she has a brother, Matt, who is a current USC student.

USC STATISTICS OF NOTE

WINS

USC has won 44 of its last 47 games, 55 of its last 59, 56 of its last 61, 58 of its last 64 and 62 of its last 69.

USC has won at least 10 games in each of the past 5 seasons, a school record.

OFFENSE

Offensively in 2006, USC currently is 17th nationally in passing offense (253.3, third in Pac-10) and 20th in scoring offense (30.3, third in Pac-10).

Of USC's 58 offensive scoring drives in 2006, 26 took less than 3 minutes (including 18 under 2 minutes, with 7 of those less than a minute), while 18 consisted of 5 plays or less and 14 went 80-plus yards.

Three USC wide receivers—Patrick Turner (12 versus Washington), Steve Smith (11 at both Washington State and Oregon State) and Dwayne Jarrett (11 versus Nebraska)—have each caught at least 11 passes in a game in 2006, a first in a season in Trojan history.

SCORING

USC has scored at least 30 points in 46 of its last 59 games.

USC has scored at least 40 points 34 times under Pete Carroll (including 13 times of at least 50 points).

USC has scored at least 50 points in 6 of the last 17 games.

USC had scored at least 20 points in an NCAA record 63 consecutive games, a streak that was snapped in the 200 UCLA game, and in 65 of its past 67 contests.

USC had a streak of scoring 77 unanswered points in 2006 (the last 21 points at Oregon State and all 42 at Stanford).

Since trailing late in the third quarter at Oregon State, 33-10, USC has outscored its opponents, 174-56, in 2006.

USC has a knack for scoring 20 or more unanswered points (5 times in 2006, 13 times in 2005, 12 times in 2004 and 11 times in both 2003 and 2002).

During the Pete Carroll era, USC has more than doubled the score of its opponents in the second half of games (1,408 to 651 points).

Since 2003, USC has scored touchdowns of 20-plus yards 100 times.

USC won 5 consecutive games in 2006 by scoring less than 30 points each outing (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State, Washington, Arizona State), the first time that happened since the first 5 contests of 2001 in Pete Carroll's first year at Troy.

USC won 3 consecutive games by a touchdown or less in 2006 (Washington State, Washington, Arizona State), the first time that happened since 1968.

DEFENSE

Defensively in 2006, USC currently is 12th nationally in scoring defense (14.9, first in Pac-10), 17th in rushing defense (97.7, second in Pac-10), 20th in pass efficiency defense (107.9, first in Pac-10) and 23rd in total defense (293.8, first in Pac-10).

USC has allowed just 28 points in the first quarter in 2006.

USC has held 7 opponents to 14 points or less in 2006.

USC has scored 73 points following turnovers gained in 2006 (following 11 of the 20 times it has come up with a turnover).

USC has not allowed an offensive touchdown longer than 10 yards in 2006.

USC has intercepted a pass in 48 of the last 61 games.

USC's turnover margin of +0.3 in 2006 is below the upward trend from each previous year under Pete Carroll (+1.3 in 2001, +1.4 in 2002, +1.5 in both 2003 and 2004 and +1.6 in 2005).

USC has held 38 of its last 63 opposing teams to less than 100 rushing yards (5 times in 2006, 5 times in 2005, 8 times in 2004, 10 games in 2003 and 10 times in 2002).

Only 6 opposing runners have rushed for 100 yards against USC in the past 58 games (California's Adimchinobe Echemandu did so in 2003 with 147, breaking a streak of 16 consecutive games without a 100-yard rusher, Cal's J.J. Arrington in 2004 with 112, Washington State's Jerome Harrison in 2005 with 147, Fresno State's Wendell Mathis in 2005 with 109, Texas' Vince Young in 2005 with 200 and Oregon State's Clinton Polk in 2006 with 100).

Under Pete Carroll, USC is 33-1 when holding opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense (the loss was to UCLA in 2006).

Since allowing a 69-yard TD pass in the third quarter of the BYU game in 2004, USC has not allowed a pass completion longer than 45 yards (a span of 125 quarters).

MISCELLANEOUS

USC in 2006 broke its Pac-10 record home average attendance record (91,480) for the fourth consecutive year and its Pac-10 record home total attendance record (548,880) for the second straight season.

USC in 2006 broke the school record for the third straight year for home sellouts (6), regular season sellouts (10) and season sellouts (11).

USC has kicked off to start each of its 12 games in 2006.

USC has played before crowds of at least 85,000 in 22 of its past 41 games.

USC's last 10 home games have been sold out, a school record.

USC had a streak of 12 consecutive games—home, road or neutral site—that were sellouts (from Washington State in 2005 to Arizona State in 2006).

USC's last 12 home games (and 14 of its past 16) have been in front of 90,000-plus crowds.

 USC is 33-3 in the final 6 regular-season games in each of head coach Pete Carroll's 6 years (the losses were to Notre Dame in 2001 and Oregon State and UCLA in 2006).

USC RANDOM NOTES

USC's 2006 captains, as elected by their teammates during fall camp, are: QB John David Booty, C Ryan Kalil, LB Dallas Sartz and LB Oscar Lua. Sartz, who also was a captain in 2005, is only the seventh two-time Trojan captain ever, and just the fourth since 1902-03 (along with Chad Morton in 1998-99, Troy Polamalu in 2001-02 and Matt Leinart in 2004-05).

Head coach Pete Carroll has made it a practice to play first-year freshmen at USC. During Carroll's 6 years at Troy, 66 first-year freshmen have seen action at USC (7 in 2001, 12 in 2002, 13 in 2003, 8 in 2004, 11 in 2005 and 15 in 2006).

QB John David Booty, who enrolled at USC in the fall of 2003, is believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university.

USC also currently has 5 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. FB Brandon Hancock came to USC in the spring of 2002. TE Fred Davis did so in the spring of 2004. TB Michael Coleman and S Kevin Ellison enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005. And S Antwine Perez enrolled at USC this past spring.

Yes, LB Lou Ferrigno Jr. is the son of bodybuilder/actor Lou Ferrigno, perhaps best known as The Incredible Hulk on television and for winning a pair of Mr. Universe titles.

Here are some of USC's more unusual multi-sport athletes. LB Kaluka Maiava participated in boxing in high school. TE Gerald Washington played tennis as a youth and competed in juniors tournaments. FB Brandon Hancock has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

C Ryan Kalil might be the Trojans' most musically-inclined player. He likes to sing, particularly Frank Sinatra tunes.

Who's the fastest among the 2006 Trojans? It might be WR Jamere Holland, with bests of 10.36 in the 100 meters and 20.92 in the 200. He won the 100 and 200 at the 2005 California state meet (and he was second in the 100 in 2006). Right behind Holland is WR Travon Patterson (bests of 10.44 and 21.41), who was fourth in the 2006 California state 100.

Three Trojans have received their bachelor's degrees from USC in the spring of 2006 and are currently working on another degree. FB Brandon Hancock received his bachelor's in communication (business administration minor) and is now working on his master's degree in communication management, WR Chris McFoy received his bachelor's in economics and is now working on another bachelor's degree in political science and TE Nick Vanderboom received his bachelor's in business administration and is now working on his master's degree in real estate development.

In April of 2006, FB Brandon Hancock accompanied the USC Debate Squad to South Bend, Ind., to formally debate Notre Dame's forensics team on the topic of who will win the 2006 Trojan-Irish football game.

OT Kyle Williams and his fiancée, former USC All-American swimmer Jana Krohn, are parents to a daughter, Kylie, who was born this past May 19.

Not only has head coach Pete Carroll produced numerous NFL draft picks (27) from his USC teams, but 9 of his Trojan assistant coaches went on to the NFL from USC: Norm Chow, Kennedy Pola, Greg Burns, Tim Davis, Jethro Franklin, Steve Sarkisian (he has since returned to USC), Carl Smith, DeWayne Walker and Kirby Wilson. Franklin, Smith, Walker and Wilson all previously had NFL experience before coming to USC (as do current assistants Pat Ruel, Todd McNair and Lane Kiffin). And Nick Holt (Idaho) and Ed Orgeron (Mississippi) both left USC to become collegiate head coaches (Holt now is back at USC after a couple days' detour to the NFL).

Former USC All-American tailback Anthony Davis was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind., this August. Davis, a unanimous All-American on the Trojans' 1972 and 1974 national championship squads and the runnerup for the 1974 Heisman Trophy, was the first player in Pac-8 history to rush for 1,000 yards in three different seasons. He is long remembered for scoring 11 touchdowns in three games against Notre Dame, including six as a sophomore in the 1972 contest and four in the famous 55-24 comeback victory in 1974. He set an NCAA record with six scoring kickoff returns in his career (including three in 1974). USC has 27 former players, 2 ex-head coaches, 4 one-time assistant coaches and a former athletic director in the College Football Hall of Fame.

The 2006 season marks the 75th anniversary of USC's 1931 national championship team, which posted a 10-1 record (including a victory over Tulane in the Rose Bowl) under head coach Howard Jones, and the 25th anniversary of tailback Marcus Allen's 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign, when he became college football's first 2,000-yard runner (2,427 rushing yards).

USC is ranked No. 2 in Street & Smith's "50 Greatest College Football Programs of All Time (published in 2005)," behind only Notre Dame.

Head coach Pete Carroll has his own website, PeteCarroll.com. The site features a variety of Carroll-related information, multimedia and merchandise, as well as fan club membership that includes exclusive benefits. All proceeds benefit "A Better L.A.," the non-profit organization the Carroll founded to help reduce gang violence in Los Angeles. Carroll also is partnering with Lou Tice of the Pacific Institute on a book—"Leadership Is A Performance Art"—that will be available on the site. Proceeds from the book also will go to "A Better L.A."

In 2003, head coach Pete Carroll helped develop "A Better L.A.," a non-profit group consisting of a consortium of local agencies and organizations working to reduce gang violence by empowering change in individuals and communities.

FB Brandon Hancock also has a website, www.brandonhancock.com. He is chronicling his life during the 2006 season. Now that he is sidelined with torn knee ligaments, he has been part of USC's radio broadcast team on KSPN-AM in hopes of advancing his sports broadcasting aspirations.

Before TE Gerald Washington entered junior college in 2004, he spent the previous 4 years in the U.S. Navy as a helicopter mechanic.

Talk about Walter Mitty. WR Ben Malcolmson was a sportswriter for the Daily Trojan, USC's campus newspaper, who tried out for—and made—the USC football team in the spring of 2006. He chronicled his tryout quest in a series of stories in the D.T., atttracting national attention. He separated his shoulder during spring practice, but got healthy and rejoined the Trojans in late September as a walk-on.

USC played 7 night games in 2006, tying the school record first set in 2004.

This is the 50th anniversary of the Trojan Football Alumni Club. Founded in 1956 by former USC players who felt discontented because they only saw each other at funerals, they banded together and formed a social club with a charitable purpose. Now, about 1,000 former Trojan players maintain their special relationships with teammates from all eras and also, in partnership with the John Wayne Family, they have awarded scholarships in excess of $1.5 million to graduate football players and other recipients. Among TFAC's many activities are the 50- and 25-year team reunions at the annual pre-season "Salute To Troy" kickoff banquet, fully-catered tailgates before every home game and the "Alumni Victory Tunnel" formed on the Coliseum field for the senior introductions before the last home game of the year. For further information, visit the TFAC website at www.trojanfootballalumni.com.

Strength and conditioning coach Chris Carlisle has beaten cancer. He learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000, began radiation treatments in Tennessee (where he was still the Volunteers' associate strength and conditioning coach), was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojan head coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was 1 of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America and 1 of 11 nominees for the 2005 award.

Five Trojans have relatives who played on national championship USC football squads: SNP Will Collins (uncle, Joe Collins, was on the 1974 team), C-OT Nick Howell (father, Pat Howell, was an All-American on the 1978 team), LB Clay Matthews (father, 1977 All-American Clay Matthews, was on the 1974 team and brother, Kyle Matthews, was on the 2003 team), QB Michael McDonald (father, 1979 All-American Paul McDonald, was on the 1978 team) and WR Brad Walker (cousin, Norm Katnik, was on the 2003 team and cousin, Kurt Katnik, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams).

Several Trojans have other relatives with USC football connections. SNP Will Collins' brother, Rob Collins, was a walk-on at USC in the 1980s. Two Trojans have uncles who were Trojan footballers: LB Clay Matthews (Bruce Matthews, 1980-82, 1982 All-American) and WR Brad Walker (John Katnik, 1986-87). S-QB Garrett Green's cousin is former Trojan quarterback Brandon Hance (2003-04). P Greg Woidneck's brothers, Brian and Rob, were managers with the USC football team (2001-02).

(35) JODY ADEWALE
Fullback, 6-0, 230, Jr.*/Sr., Los Angeles, CA (Roosevelt HS)

2006: Adewale was a backup fullback as a junior in 2006, although he did start 3 games (Arizona State, Oregon State, Notre Dame). Overall in 2006 while appearing in 8 games (all but Arkansas, Washington State, California and UCLA), he caught 2 passes for 16 yards (8.0 avg.), but did not carry the ball. He had a 6-yard catch against Washington and a 10-yarder versus Oregon.

2005: Adewale was a backup fullback and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2005. He saw brief action in 7 games (Hawaii, Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Stanford and UCLA). He made 2 tackles (1 each against Arkansas and Oregon).

2004: Adewale, who was switched from tailback to fullback prior to 2004 spring drills, served as a backup there as a redshirt freshman in 2004. He saw brief action in 5 games (Colorado State, BYU, Washington, Notre Dame and Oklahoma). He caught a 16-yard pass against Washington.

2003: Adewale redshirted as a freshman tailback in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West honorable mention, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-L.A. City second team and Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team (as a defensive back) selection as a senior at Roosevelt High in Los Angeles (Calif.). He ran for 1,400-plus yards and 26 TDs as a running back and made 27 tackles with an interception as a defensive back.

As a junior in 2001, he made All-L.A. City, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team and All-League first team while running for 1,660 yards and 25 TDs and posting 144 tackles and an interception at linebacker. He also competed in basketball and track at Roosevelt.

PERSONAL: He's a psychology major at USC with a B- average (2.81 GPA).

(94) WALKER LEE ASHLEY
Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 305, Fr./Fr., Eden Prairie, MN (Eden Prairie HS)

2006: Ashley, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2006, saw brief action at defensive tackle in the Arkansas opener as a first-year freshman in 2006 and made 1 tackle. But he did not play the rest of the season.

2005: He originally signed with USC in 2005, but did not qualify for admission.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2004 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Midwest, Prep Star All-Midwest and All-State honors as a senior defensive lineman at Eden Prairie (Minn.) High. He had 89 tackles, 25 tackles for loss, 14 sacks and 6 forced fumbles in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made All-State and Minneapolis Star-Tribune All-Metro while posting 74 tackles, 22 tackles for loss and 10 sacks.

A 3-year starter, he had 8 sacks as a 2002 sophomore as Eden Prairie won the state championship. His high school coach was Mike Grant, son of legendary ex-Minnesota Vikings head coach Bud Grant.

PERSONAL: His father, Walker Lee Ashley, was an All-American defensive end on Penn State's 1982 national championship team who then played in the NFL as a linebacker with the Vikings (1983-88, 1990)—current USC head coach Pete Carroll was an assistant with the Vikings during some of Ashley's stint there—and Kansas City Chiefs (1988-89).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2005 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American second team, U.S. Army All-American Game participant, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools MVP, Fresno Bee All-Area first team and All-West Yosemite League Offensive MVP as a senior wide receiver, defensive back and punter at Lemoore (Calif.) High. He had 55 catches for 930 yards (16.9 avg.) with 13 TDs and ran for 489 yards on 46 carries (10.6 avg.) with 13 TDs, added 4 interceptions and 2 fumble recoveries, had 17 kickoff returns for 557 yards (32.8 avg.) and averaged 40.8 yards on 43 punts in 2005 as Lemoore won the CIF Central Section Division III title.

As a junior in 2004, he was an All-League selection while catching 56 passes for 850 yards (15.2 avg.) with 7 scores and adding 350 rushing yards with 6 TDs.

He received All-League notice as a sophomore in 2003 when he had 800 receiving yards and 10 TDs.

He also was on Lemoore's track team, with a best of 22-10 in the long jump.

(79) SAM BAKER
Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 305, Jr.*/Sr., Tustin, CA (Tustin HS)

2006: Baker, a 2-time All-American first teamer, started for his third year at left offensive tackle as a junior in 2006. He made the 2006 Football Writers, The Sporting News and CBS Sportsline.com All-American first teams, AP, Walter Camp, Rivals.com, Scout.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American second teams and Pro Football Weekly and SI.com All-American honorable mention. He also made the 2006 All-Pac-10 first team for the second consecutive year and the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team, Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 first team. He was named to the 2006 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team. He won USC's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and Co-Lifter of the Year Awards.

2005: Baker started all of 2005 for his second season at left offensive tackle as a sophomore and continued his solid play. He was named to the 2005 CBS Sportsline.com All-American first team, AP and Rivals.com All-American third team and SI.com All-American honorable mention squad. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award.

2004: Baker, who was switched from offensive guard to tackle prior to 2004 spring practice, started all of 2004 at left offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2004 and he did an outstanding job. He made the 2004 Football Writers, The Sporting News, Collegefootballnews.com and Rivals.com Freshman All-American first teams, All-Pac-10 second team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He also was USC's 2004 Offensive Lineman of the Year.

2003: Baker redshirted as a freshman offensive guard in 2003, his first year at USC.

(91) CHRIS BARRETT
Defensive Tackle, 6-5, 265, Jr.*/Sr., Tustin, CA (Tustin HS)

2006: Barrett, who was moved to defensive tackle from defensive end prior to 2006 spring practice, started USC's first 5 games there in 2006 as a junior. He then served as Fili Moala's backup for the next 3 contests, but strained his calf prior to the California game and was sidelined for 2 games (California, Notre Dame) before returning as a backup at UCLA. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 10 games, he had 13 tackles, including 2 for losses of 8 yards (with a 6-yard sack). He had 4 tackles against Nebraska and 3 (with the sack) at Arizona.

2005: Barrett, who moved back to defensive end (his original position) from tight end during 2005 spring practice, served as a backup there as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing briefly in 6 games (Hawaii, Washington, Washington State, Stanford, California and UCLA), he made 5 tackles (including 2 against Washington State) and 1 deflection. He missed 4 early contests (Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State and Arizona) with a strained left calf suffered prior to the Arkansas contest. He missed part of 2005 spring practice with a torn calf muscle.

2004: Barrett began his 2004 redshirt freshman season as a reserve defensive end, then switched midseason to tight end and served as a reserve there. He missed USC's first 4 games (Virginia Tech, Colorado State, BYU and Stanford) with a dislocating right shoulder. He saw brief action in 4 games (at defensive end versus Arizona State and at tight end against Washington, Arizona and Notre Dame), but did not make a tackle or catch.

2003: Barrett saw brief action in 2 early-season games (BYU and Hawaii) as a freshman defensive end in 2003, but he suffered a dislocating left shoulder injury prior to the California game, had surgery and missed the rest of the 2003 season (he was allowed to redshirt because of the early injury). He did not record a tackle. After the season, he had surgery on his right shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VI first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team (as a tight end), Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County first team honors as a senior at Tustin (Calif.) High. He had 17 receptions for a 21.0 average as a tight end and made 70 tackles with 10 sacks as a defensive lineman in 2002. Tustin advanced to the CIF Division VI semifinals in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team as he caught 17 passes for 450 yards (26.5 avg.) with 4 TDs and made 9 sacks.

He also played basketball at Tustin. Current Trojan Sam Baker also prepped at Tustin.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. He lived in Florida as a youngster.

Quarterback, 6-3, 210, Jr.*/Sr., Shreveport, LA (Evangel Christian HS)

CAREER: His 276 career completions is 10th on the USC all-time chart. His 3,303 career yards of total offense is 16th on USC's all-time list.

2006: Booty, believed to be the first prep football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university, was impressive while starting for his first season at quarterback as a junior in 2006 after serving as USC's backup the previous 3 years. He won the starting job despite missing all but the first day of 2006 spring practice with a herniated disk in his back that required surgery in late March (he was healthy throughout 2006 fall camp). Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he completed 242-of-391 passes (61.9%) for 2,956 yards and 25 TDs with 9 interceptions. He also had 29 carries for minus 49 yards (-1.7) with a TD. He is tied for 19th nationally in total offense (242.3, first in Pac-10). He made the 2006 All-Pac-10 first team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team, Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 first team. He is 1 of 11 finalists for the Manning Award (given to the nation's top quarterback) and was 1 of 15 semifinalists for the 2006 Maxwell Award (nation's top player) and 1 of 18 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback).

His 242 completions in 2006 is sixth on USC's season passing list. His 2,907 yards of total offense in 2006 is seventh on USC's season ladder. His 25 TD passes in 2006 is tied for 21st on the Pac-10 season list (sixth at USC). He has thrown a TD pass in 11 of his 12 starts in 2006 (all but UCLA), including 8 games with at least 2 TD throws and 6 with 3 TDs. He has thrown for at least 200 yards in 10 of USC's games in 2006, including the last 6 in a row.

He was impressive in his debut as a starter, as he completed 68.6% of his passes (24-of-35) for 261 yards and 3 second-half touchdowns at Arkansas (by comparison, his predecessor, 2004 Heisman winner Matt Leinart was 17-of-30 for 192 yards and a TD in his first start in 2003). He then was 25-of-36 for 257 yards and 3 TDs versus Nebraska. He was 24-of-39 for 179 yards and a short TD toss at Arizona, but threw his first interception of the season after 78 attempts. He was 23-of-32 for 269 yards and 3 TDs (with a pick) at Washington State. He hit 23-of-40 passes for 243 yards and a TD (with an interception) against Washington. He was 12-of-25 for 148 yards and 2 TDs against Arizona State, but threw an interception that was returned for a score. He hit 24-of-39 passes for a career-high 406 yards (the fifth most passing yards in USC history; only Carson Palmer 3 times and Mike Van Raaphorst once threw for more) with 3 TD passes and an interception at Oregon State. He was 12-of-21 for 203 yards with 3 second-quarter TDs (21, 7 and 2 yards) at Stanford. He was 17-of-26 for 213 yards with a TD and an interception against Oregon. He hit 18-of-31 passes for 238 yards and a pair of fourth-quarter TDs (25 and 37 yards) against California. He threw 3 TD passes (9, 5 and 43 yards) while going 17-of-28 for 265 yards (with 2 interceptions) against Notre Dame and also ran for a 1-yard score (his first career rushing TD). He was 23-of-39 for 274 yards (with an interception) at UCLA.

2005: Booty was USC's No. 2 quarterback as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games (all but Notre Dame, Fresno State and Texas), he completed 27-of-42 passes (64.3%) for 327 yards and 3 TDs with 2 interceptions.

He threw his first career TD pass while hitting 2-of-5 passes while directing USC in the fourth quarter at Hawaii. Against Arkansas, he was 4-of-9 for 60 yards with a TD, then saw brief action at the end of the Oregon game, but did not throw a pass, and played a snap at Arizona State when Matt Leinart was briefly dinged, but he did not throw a pass. He was 3-of-3 for 27 yards while directing the last series against Arizona, then was 5-of-6 for 71 yards with a 31-yard TD toss (and he threw an interception that was returned for a touchdown) while playing the fourth quarter at Washington. He hit 5-of-6 passes for 69 yards while playing most of the fourth quarter against Washington State, then hit 7-of-10 passes for 86 yards while playing most of the second half against Stanford and played the final 2 series at California, but did not throw a pass. He completed a 5-yard pass and had an interception among his 3 throws while playing most of the fourth quarter against UCLA

2004: Booty was set to be the No. 2 quarterback as a sophomore in 2004. But he suffered a badly bruised right (throwing) elbow in 2004 fall practice, which limited his participation, so he redshirted.

2003: As just a first-year freshman in 2003, Booty emerged as USC's No. 2 quarterback by mid-season. Overall in 2003 while seeing limited backup action in 5 games (Stanford, Notre Dame, Wahsington, Arizona and UCLA), he completed 7-of-14 passes (50.0%) for 90 yards. He broke his left wrist against UCLA, which sidelined him for USC's last 2 games of 2003. He was 1-of-4 for 13 yards against Stanford in his first action as a Trojan, then hit his only pass attempt (a 5-yarder) at Notre Dame, was 3-of-6 for 63 yards at Arizona and 2-of-3 for 9 yards against UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a junior quarterback in 2002 at Evangel Christian Academy in Shreveport (La..), he led his team to the Class 5A state title while throwing for 4,144 yards and 38 touchdowns while earning Student Sports Underclass All-American and Class 5A All-State honors.

He also led Evangel Christian to the Class 5A state title as a 2001 sophomore, passing for 4,330 yards and 50 TDs while being named a Student Sports Underclass All-American and Class 5A All-State.

As a 2000 freshman, he completed 9-of-11 passes.

In his career, he threw for 8,474 yards on 555-of-864 passing (64.2%) with 88 touchdowns and 26 interceptions. Because Louisiana rules allow junior high students to compete on high school teams if the school is a kindergarten-through-12th grade school, he actually played some varsity football for Evangel Christian since the seventh grade.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Johnny, played quarterback at Arkansas, Louisiana Tech and Mississippi State, then coached football at Evangel Christian. His brother, Josh, was a quarterback for the Cleveland Browns who played at LSU for 2 seasons (1999-2000) following a 5-year (1994-98) baseball career as an infielder in the Florida Marlins organization (including 13 games in the majors). Another brother, Abram, was a wide receiver at LSU (1997-1999) and Valdosta State (2001).

(21) ALLEN BRADFORD
Tailback-Safety, 6-0, 230, Fr./Fr., San Bernardino, CA (Colton HS)

2006: Bradford, who originally came to USC as a safety, moved to tailback in 2006 fall camp and served as a backup there as a freshman in 2006, his first year at USC. He was also used at fullback (he started there against California) and on special teams. Overall while appearing in 11 games (all but Nebraska), he ran for 23 yards on 9 carries (2.6 avg.) with a TD and caught 2 passes for 29 yards (14.5 avg.) with a TD. He also made 2 tackles and returned a kickoff 9 yards. He had 13 yards on 5 carries, with a 1-yard TD, at Arkansas. He caught a 17-yard scoring pass against Arizona State. He added a 12-yard reception at Stanford.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2005 honors included Parade All-American (he was the all-purpose MVP), USA Today All-USA first team, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American Game participant, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section Defensive MVP, All-CIF Division I Defensive MVP, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-San Bernardino MVP, Ken Hubbs Award (as the San Bernardino area's top athlete) and All-Citrus Belt League as a senior running back and linebacker at Colton (Calif.) High. He ran for 1,869 yards on 143 carries (13.1 avg.) with 29 TDs and caught 20 passes for 429 yards (21.5 avg.) with 6 TDs, plus recorded 157 tackles, 12 sacks, 4 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery in 2005.

As a junior in 2004, he was named Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division I, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire and Riverside Press-Enterprise All-San Bernardino. He rushed for 1,525 yards (8.7 avg.) with 15 TDs and caught 15 passes for 275 yards (18.3 avg.) with 3 scores, and also made 129 tackles, 11 sacks, 8 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries and 1 interception in 2004.

He made the 2003 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore and All-CIF Division V squads as a sophomore while running for 1,100-plus yards with 19 TDs and making 90 tackles, 3 sacks and 3 fumble recoveries. He played on the varsity for 4 years. Current Trojan Shareece Wright also prepped at Colton.

(30) MIKE BRITTINGHAM
Fullback, 6-1, 210, Sr.*/Sr., Santa Ana, CA (Foothill HS)

2006: Brittingham was a reserve fullback and key special teams player as a senior in 2006. He even started 3 games (Washington State, Washington, Oregon) at fullback. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had a 4-yard carry and a 4-yard reception (both at Arizona) and made 2 tackles.

2005: A one-time walk-on, Brittingham earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and served as a reserve fullback and key special teams player as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he caught 1 pass (9 yards against Arizona) and made 3 tackles.

2004: As a sophomore in 2004, Brittingham was a walk-on reserve linebacker and then fullback, as well as playing on special teams, and he recorded 1 tackle (at Oregon State) while appearing in 10 games (all but Virginia Tech, California and UCLA).

2003: As a walk-on redshirt freshman reserve fullback in 2003, Brittingham appeared in 1 game (Oregon State) on special teams.

2002: Brittingham redshirted as a first-year freshman walk-on safety in 2002, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Foothill High in Santa Ana (Calif.), where he earned All-CIF Division VI first team honors as a senior defensive back in 2001.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.79 GPA). He has 5 relatives with athletic backgrounds: sister, Kristine, lettered on UCLA's women's soccer team in 2000 and 2001, cousins Jack and Robert Brittingham were 3-year (1933-35) football lettermen at California, great uncle Richard Munroe lettered in football at both Stanford (1942) and California (1943), and great great grandfather Louis Sumner lettered in football at Wisconsin (1889, 1891-92).

(71) CHARLES BROWN
Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 285, Fr.*/So., Chino Hills, CA (Diamond Ranch HS)

2006: Brown was a backup left offensive tackle and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2006. He appeared in all 12 games in 2006, including 4 games when he saw brief action at tackle (Arkansas, Stanford, Oregon, UCLA)

2005: Brown redshirted as a freshman tight end in 2005, his first year at USC. He was switched to offensive tackle from tight end in the middle of the 2005 season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division VIII and Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley Lineman of the Year selection as a senior two-way lineman and tight end at Diamond Ranch High in Pomona (Calif.). He had 15 receptions and 2 touchdowns in 2004.

He was an All-League second teamer as a 2003 junior and an All-League first teamer as a 2002 sophomore.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(52) LUTHUR BROWN
Linebacker, 6-3, 235, Fr.*/So., Lakewood, CA (Lakewood HS)

2006: Brown was a backup middle linebacker and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 10 games (he strained his left hamstring at Washington State and sat out the Washington and Arizona State games), he made 4 tackles. He missed most of 2006 spring drills while recuperating from 2005 back surgery.

2005: Brown redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2005, his first year at USC. He was sidelined all season with a strained back that required mid-season surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2004 Parade All-American, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American second team, Old Spice Red Zone Player of the Year, Super Prep All-Farwest, Super Prep All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star Back of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast Back of the Year and All-Moore League Defensive MVP squads as a senior linebacker and running back at Lakewood (Calif.) High. He had 83 tackles, 3 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team pick. He had 88 tackles, 21 tackles for loss, 3 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions in 2003.

He also played baseball at Lakewood.

PERSONAL: He spent his elementary school years living in a small town in Mississippi.

(18) DAVID BUEHLER
Fullback-Placekicker-Safety, 6-2, 225, So./So., Anaheim, CA (Canyon HS/Santa Ana JC)

2006: Buehler, who transferred to USC in the fall of 2006 from a junior college, was a backup placekicker specializing in kickoffs and played on special teams, but also worked at fullback and safety (he did not see action at those spots). He appeared in 10 games in 2006 (all but Arkansas and Nebraska), mainly on special teams. He hit his only field goal attempt (49 yards, the longest by a Trojan since Adam Abrams had a 49-yarder at Oregon in 1998) and also kicked off once (at Stanford).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made the 2005 All-Mission Conference National Division first team as a freshman placekicker, linebacker and running back at Santa Ana (Calif.) Junior College. He had 25 touchbacks on his 58 kickoffs in 2005, plus recorded 24 tackles and 1 interception on defense and rushed for 50 yards on 9 carries (5.6 avg.) with 5 touchdowns (he also caught a TD pass) on offense.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2004 All-Century League team as a senior at Canyon High in Anaheim (Calif.). He also was on Canyon's volleyball, golf and track teams.

(53) JEFF BYERS
Offensive Guard, 6-3, 285, So.*/Jr., Fort Collins, CO (Loveland HS)

2006: After missing the 2005 season with a hip injury, Byers appeared ready to re-assume his starting job at left offensive guard as a sophomore in 2006. After seeing action as a backup in the opener at Arkansas, he suffered a back sprain prior to the Nebraska game and was sidelined the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt. He missed some of 2006 spring drills while recuperating.

2005: Byers was set to see plenty of action on the offensive line as a sophomore in 2005 as a left guard, either as a starter or key backup. But he had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right hip prior to 2005 spring practice and missed most of spring drills while recuperating, which forced him to redshirt in 2005.

2004: As a first-year freshman in 2004, Byers started 4 late-season games (Oregon State, Arizona, Notre Dame and UCLA) at left offensive guard for an injured John Drake and performed well. He served as a backup there and at center in USC's other 9 contests. He made the 2004 The Sporting News Freshman All-American second team and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2003 honors were Gatorade National Player of the Year, EA Sports National Player of the Year, Army of One Award (for effort on the field, class and community), Arena Football League Ironman of the Year (as nation's best two-way player), USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American MVP, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American, Insiders.com All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Midlands, Prep-Star All-Midlands, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Gatorade Colorado Player of the Year as a senior center and linebacker at Loveland (Colo.) High. He had 34 pancake blocks on offense in one game in 2003 and never allowed a sack in his career. On defense in 2003, he had 203 tackles, 56 tackles for loss, 10 sacks, 14 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries (with a TD). Loveland won its second consecutive Class 4A state championship in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he won All-State honorable mention, All-Area and All-Conference honors while posting 138 tackles, 29 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks on defense.

He also competed in basketball and track at Loveland.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC with a B average (3.17 GPA).

(27) MICHAEL COLEMAN
Tailback, 6-1, 230, So./So., San Bernardino, CA (Arroyo Valley HS)

2006: Coleman, who figured to provide quality depth at tailback as a sophomore in 2006, instead sat out the 2006 season (and most of 2006 spring drills) while recuperating from 2005 hip surgery.

2005: Coleman, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005, was a backup tailback as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 4 games (Arkansas, Arizona, Washington and Washington State), he ran for 95 yards on 20 carries (4.8 avg.) with 1 TD. He had surgery in the summer of 2005 for a hip strain and missed the Hawaii opener. He re-strained his hip prior to the Oregon game and missed the next 2 contests (Oregon, Arizona State) and again before the Stanford game, which sidelined him for USC's last 5 contests (Stanford, California, Fresno State, UCLA, Texas). He had 8 carries for 41 yards against Arkansas, 16 yards on 4 tries versus Arizona, 12 yards on 3 carries at Washington and then ran for 26 yards (with a 6-yard TD) on 5 carries versus Washington State. After the season, he had surgery to repair his strained hip.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2004 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division V Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-San Bernardino Area Player of the Year and San Bernardino Sun All-San Bernardino County Player of the Year as a senior quarterback and safety at Arroyo Valley High in San Bernardino (Calif.). He completed 143-of-261 passes (54.8%) for 2,388 yards and 22 TDs with 8 interceptions and ran for 1,077 yards with 17 TDs in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made All-San Andreas League first team while throwing for 1,171 yards and 15 touchdowns (with 3 interceptions) and rushing for 710 yards with 10 scores.

He was on the Cal-Hi Sports Sophomore All-State team in 2002. In his career, he started 4 seasons at quarterback and also posted more than 100 tackles.

He also was on Arroyo Valley's track team, throwing the shot put more than 52 feet.

(50) WILL COLLINS
Snapper, 6-2, 225, Jr.*/Sr., Laguna Beach, CA (Mater Dei HS)

2006: Collins was USC's snapper for his third season as a junior in 2006. He handled both short and long snaps. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 1 tackle (against Washington).

2005: Collins spent his second season as the short snapper and first season as the long snapper as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 1 tackle (against Arizona).

2004: Collins, who received a scholarship prior to 2004 spring practice, was USC's snapper on all field goals and PATs as a redshirt freshman in 2004 and he did a flawless job.

2003: Collins redshirted as a freshman snapper in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a long snapper and blocking tight end at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.), playing both years with a broken thumb.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC. His older brother, Rob, was a walk-on quarterback at USC in the 1980s, while 2 older sisters also attended USC (another sister currently is attending USC). His uncle, Joe Collins, was a member of USC's 1974 national championship football team.

(10) BRIAN CUSHING
Linebacker, 6-4, 245, So./So., Park Ridge, NJ (Bergen Catholic HS)

2006: Cushing, who started 4 times in 2005 at strongside linebacker, started all of his 2006 sophomore season as a stand-up defensive end in USC's hybrid 3-4 "Elephant" defense. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 50 tackles, including 9.5 for losses of 33 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 15 yards), plus a deflection, a blocked punt that he returned 21 yards (at Washington to set up a USC field goal) and a 42-yard scoring kickoff return of an onside kick (against Notre Dame). He made the 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American third team, All-Pac-10 second team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 second team. He won USC's John McKay Award (most competitive spirit). He missed some of 2006 spring drills while recuperating from shoulder surgery.

He had 7 tackles (1.5 for a loss) at Washington State, 6 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against California, 5 tackles against Arkansas (1 for a loss), Nebraska (0.5 for a loss), Washington (1.5 for a loss) and Stanford (1 for a loss), 4 tackles against Arizona (with a sack), Arizona State (0.5 for a loss) and Oregon (with a deflection), 2 tackles at Oregon State and UCLA (both for losses, with a sack) and 1 tackle against Notre Dame.

2005: Cushing made quite an impact in 2005 as a first-year freshman linebacker, despite missing nearly half the season with a shoulder injury. He started USC's last 4 games (versus California, Fresno State, UCLA and Texas) on the strong side after previously serving as an often-used backup there and a key special teams player. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 8 games (he missed the Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona and Notre Dame games after dislocating his shoulder before the Arkansas contest), he made 23 tackles, including 0.5 for a loss, plus had 3 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and a blocked punt that he returned 6 yards. He made 2005 Scout.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. After the season, he had surgery to repair a dislocating shoulder.

As a starter, he led USC with 7 tackles at California, then added 4 stops, a deflection and a fumble recovery to set up a USC field goal against Fresno State, had 2 tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection versus UCLA and had 1 tackle and 1 deflection against Texas. As a backup, he had 5 tackles against Stanford, 2 tackles and blocked a punt to set up a USC field goal at Washington, 1 tackle and forced a fumble that USC recovered for a touchdown at Hawaii and 1 stop versus Washington State.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2004 honors were Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Northeast Defensive Player of the Year, Prep Star All-East and All-State Defensive Player of the Year as a senior linebacker, running back and tight end at Bergen Catholic High in Oradell (N.J.). He had 120 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 10 sacks and 7 interceptions on offense in 2004, plus 475 rushing yards with 10 TDs and 13 receptions for 456 yards (35.1 avg.) with 7 TDs and a kickoff return for a score. He did all that despite missing 3 games with an ankle sprain.

As a junior in 2003, he made Student Sports Junior All-American, All-State first team and All-Bergen County Defensive Player of the Year while posting 120 tackles, 22 tackles for loss, 9 sacks and 7 interceptions.

(19) MARIO DANELO
Placekicker, 5-10, 200, Jr.*/Sr., San Pedro, CA (San Pedro HS)

CAREER: In his career, he is 24-of-26 on field goals and 125-of-130 on PATs. After missing his first career attempt in 2005, he had a string of 15 consecutive successful field goal tries until missing again at Arizona in 2006.

2006: The accurate Danelo, coming off a record-setting 2005 performance, had another strong showing in his second season as USC's placekicker as a junior in 2006. Overall in 2006, he made 13-of-14 field goals and 42-of-44 PATs. Accurate junior Mario Danelo (13-of-14 FG, 42-of-44 PAT in 2006) handles the placement kicks for his second season. He made 2006 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He hit all 3 of his field goal tries (35, 38 and a career-long 44 yards at the first half gun) and 5-of-6 PATs at Arkansas. Against Nebraska, he made all 4 of his PATs. He hit 2 of his 3 field goal attempts (35 and 33 yards), with the miss snapping a streak of 15 consecutive successful attempts, and both of his PATs at Arizona. At Washington State, he hit all 4 of his PATs. He made all 4 field goals (34, 25, 32 and 21 yards), a career best, and both PATs he attempted versus Washington, including 3 field goals in the second half as his final 2 proved to be the game's decisive points, to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He hit all 4 of his PATs versus Arizona State, then made a 29-yard field goal and both of his PATs at Oregon State. He hit all 6 of his PATs at Stanford and all 5 of his PATs against Oregon. He added a pair of field goals (19 and 32 yards) and PATs against California. He hit a 34-yard field goal and made 5 of his 6 PAT tries against Notre Dame, then connected on his only PAT attempt at UCLA.

2005: Danelo earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and won the starting placekicking job as a sophomore in 2005, setting records in the process. Overall in 2005 in his first year as USC's kicker, he hit 83-of-86 PATs and 11-of-12 field goals. He set the NCAA, Pac-10 and USC season records for PATs (83) and PAT attempts (86). He was 17th nationally in scoring (8.9, sixth in Pac-10). He hit his last 11 field goals after missing his first-ever try. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

His career got off to a quick start as he tied a USC game record by hitting all 9 of his PATs at Hawaii in his first USC action (he missed a 42-yard field goal). Then, for the second week in a row, he set the USC game record by hitting all 10 of his PATs versus Arkansas. At Oregon, he hit his first career field goal (36 yards) and made all 6 PATs, then he hit a 36-yard field goal and all 5 of his PATs at Arizona State. He hit all 6 of his PATs against Arizona, 4-of-5 PATs (his miss was on a 30-yard try because of a penalty) at Notre Dame and 6-of-7 PATs along with a 30-yard field goal (at the first half gun) at Washington. He added a pair of field goals (27 and 22 yards) and all 7 of his PATs against Washington State, a 21-yard field goal and 6 of his 7 PATs against Stanford, all 5 of his PATs at California and all 3 of his field goals (25, 31 and 26 yards) and all 5 of his PATs to set the Pac-10 season marks for PATs and PAT attempts against Fresno State. He set NCAA season records for PATs and PAT attempts as he hit 9-of-9 PATs and a 35-yard field goal against UCLA. He nailed a career-long 43-yard field goal and hit all 5 of his PATs against Texas.

2004: Danelo did not see any action as a walk-on redshirt freshman reserve placekicker in 2004.

2003: Danelo redshirted as a first-year freshman walk-on placekicker in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at San Pedro (Calif.) High, where he played football (he was an All-L.A. City first team linebacker as a senior in 2002) and soccer. Current Trojan Zack Heberer also prepped at San Pedro.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Joe, was a placekicker at Washington State (1972-74) before playing in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1975), New York Giants (1976-82) and Buffalo Bills (1983-84).

(83) FRED DAVIS
Tight End, 6-4, 260, Jr./Jr., Toledo, OH (Rogers HS)

2006: Davis started 9 games at tight end in his 2006 junior season (he came off the bench against Stanford, Oregon and California). Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 35 receptions for 313 yards (8.9 avg.) with 3 TDs. He had a game-best 5 catches for 59 yards, with a 9-yard TD, at Arkansas. He then had 2 catches for 16 yards against Nebraska, a team-best 5 catches for 38 yards at Arizona, 5 more catches for 46 yards at Washington State and caught 2 passes for 15 yards versus Washington State. He caught 4 passes for 20 yards at Oregon State, including a 4-yard TD. He had a 2-yard TD reception at Stanford, 2 catches for 16 yards against California and caught 3 passes for 33 yards against Notre Dame. He had 6 catches for 68 yards (both career highs) at UCLA, while Thompson added a 5-yard catch. He made the 2006 Scout.com All-Pac-10 second team

2005: Davis saw significant action at tight end as a sophomore in 2005, even starting 3 games (Stanford, California, Fresno State). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 13 catches for 145 yards (11.2 avg.) with 2 TDs. He caught 4 passes for 35 yards, with a 19-yard TD, against Stanford in his first start. He added 2 grabs against Arizona (23 yards), Washington State (28 yards) and Texas (19 yards), and 1 catch against both California (16 yards) and Fresno State (9 yards). He had a 15-yard TD reception against UCLA.

2004: Davis, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2004, was a reserve wide receiver and tight end as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 9 games (all but Oregon State, Arizona and Oklahoma), he caught 4 passes for 30 yards (7.5 avg.). He had a 15-yard grab at Stanford, 2 catches for 6 yards against Arizona State and a 9-yard reception versus Washington.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2003 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Insiders.com All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Midwest Offensive MVP,

Prep Star All-Midwest and All-Ohio selection as a senior at Rogers High in Toledo (Ohio). He had 500-plus receiving yards, 600-plus rushing yards, 100-plus tackles and 4 interceptions while scoring 12 TDs as a wide receiver, running back, quarterback and strong safety in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he made the Student Sports Junior All-American and All-Ohio squads while running for 1,100 yards and catching 50 passes for 700-plus yards with 26 TDs on offense and getting 80 tackles and 2 interceptions on defense.

He also was on the basketball (averaging 15 points a game) and track (hurdles) teams at Rogers.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(34) HERSHEL DENNIS
Tailback, 5-11, 200, Sr.*/Sr., Long Beach, CA (Poly HS)

2006: Dennis, a quick, darting runner who started at tailback in 2003 after missing the 2005 season with a knee injury, appeared ready to re-assume his starting role as a senior in 2006, but he re-tore ligaments in his left knee midway through 2006 spring practice. He missed the 2006 season after having surgery and likely will petition for a sixth year of eligibility in 2007.

2005: Dennis redshirted his 2005 senior season while recuperating for torn knee ligament sugery performed in January of 2005 (he was sidelined for 2005 spring practice).

2004: Dennis was a reserve as a junior in 2004. He also played on special teams. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 9 games (all but Virginia Tech, Colorado State, California and Oklahoma), he ran for 109 yards on 28 carries (3.9 avg.) with a TD and made a tackle. He had 18 yards on 3 carries at BYU, 19 yards on 5 tries versus Arizona State, 12 yards on 4 carries versus Washington and 55 yards on 11 rushes at Washington State. He had a 1-yard TD run against Arizona. He sat out USC's first 2 games while suspended for a team rule violation. He tore ligaments in his left knee in practice prior to the Orange Bowl, ending his 2004 season.

2003: Dennis started all of his 2003 sophomore season at tailback. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, he rushed for 661 yards on 137 carries (4.8 avg.) with 4 TDs, plus caught 10 passes for 62 yards (6.2 avg.) with 1 TD.

In his first career start, he ran for a career-best 85 yards on 21 carries at Auburn, including a second-effort 14-yard TD. He ran for 40 yards on 16 carries, with an 11-yard TD, against BYU, then had for 54 yards on 9 attempts and caught 2 passes for 5 yards against Hawaii. He rushed for 53 yards on 14 carries at California (he also caught 2 passes for 7 yards), then added 19 yards on 4 carries (he also caught a 12-yard pass) at Arizona State and 80 yards on 10 tries against Stanford. At Notre Dame, he had 38 yards on 10 tries (with a 2-yard TD) and caught 2 passes for 23 yards (with a 3-yard score), then had a game-high 98 rushing yards on 14 carries (he also had a 10-yard catch) at Washington and 53 yards on 7 tries (with a 24-yard TD) versus Washington State. He had 52 yards on 10 rushes at Arizona, then a game-best 69 yards on 12 carries against UCLA, followed by 5 yards each on 3 carries and 2 receptions versus Oregon State. He added 17 yards on 7 carries against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

2002: Dennis exhibited his outstanding future during his action as a reserve tailback and on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 198 yards on 49 carries (4.0 avg.) with 1 TD, caught 4 passes for 23 yards (5.8 avg.), returned 9 kickoffs for 151 yards (16.8 avg.) and had a tackle for a loss of 34 yards (on a punt at UCLA).

He got his first carries at Colorado, where he ran for 32 yards on 5 tries and caught a 4-yard pass. He then gained 9 yards on 3 carries and returned a kickoff 10 yards at Kansas State. He ran for 3 yards on 4 tries and returned a kickoff 21 yards against Oregon State, returned 3 kickoffs for 40 yards against California, rushed for 7 yards on 2 carries against Washington and gained 19 yards on 10 carries (he also caught a 2-yard pass) at Oregon. He had 21 yards on 6 carries at Stanford, 23 yards on 5 rushes versus Arizona State. At UCLA, he ran for a game-best 57 yards on 8 carries, with a 38-yard TD on a fourth-down play. He had 19 yards on 3 carries and returned a kickoff 15 yards versus Notre Dame. Against Iowa in the Orange Bowl, he ran twice for 8 yards.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2001 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Student Sports All-American second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Far West, Prep Star All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 first team, Student Sports All-West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team Co-Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times Glenn Davis Award (as the top Southern California prep football player), Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team MVP and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team Offensive MVP as a senior running back at Poly High in Long Beach (Calif.). He ran for 1,740 yards on 221 carries (7.9 avg.) with 24 touchdowns, averaging 134 yards a game, in 2001, even though he was pulled out of most games in the third quarter because Poly had large leads. He had some of his best performances in Poly's biggest games: getting 161 yards on 20 carries versus national champion De La Salle High and then 189 yards and 3 scores on 29 carries against Edison High in the CIF Division I final.

As a junior in 2000, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team Co-Offensive MVP, All-CIF Division I first team Co-Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team Offensive MVP. He set school and Moore League records for rushing yards (2,106) and rushing touchdowns (32) in 2000 while carrying 209 times (10.1 avg.). In one game as a junior, he had 41 carries for 237 yards and 5 TDs. He scored the winning touchdown on an 11-yard catch in overtime in the 2000 CIF Division I championship game against Loyola High.

He made the All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team as a sophomore in 1999 while running for 1,400-plus yards.

He set school career records for rushing yards (5,440) and rushing touchdowns (82). He returned 7 kicks for scores in his career. He was a 3-year starter as Poly went 39-1-1 and won 3 CIF Division I titles.

He also was on Poly's track team, with bests of 10.7 in the 100 meters, 22.3 in the 200 meters, 22-plus in the long jump and 6-6 in the high jump, and basketball team. Current Trojans Vincent Joseph, Travon Patterson and Alfred Rowe also prepped at Poly.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Hershel Sr., played tailback at North Carolina A&T. His nickname is "Patch."

(63) TRAVIS DRAPER
Center-Offensive Guard, 6-5, 285, So.*/Jr., Paso Robles, CA (Paso Robles HS)

2006: Draper, who returned to the offensive line in 2006 spring practice after playing on defense in 2005, served as a backup center as a sophomore in 2006. He appeared briefly at center in 3 games in 2006 (Arkansas, Stanford, Oregon).

2005: Draper, who was switched from offensive guard to nose tackle prior to 2005 spring practice, served as a backup there as a redshirt freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while seeing brief action in 5 games (Hawaii, Arkansas, Arizona, Washington State and Stanford), he had 2 tackles. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right hip.

2004: Draper, a 2003 signee who didn't enroll at USC until the spring of 2004, redshirted as a first-year freshman offensive guard in 2004. He broke his right thumb prior to the Oregon State game and had surgery, sidelining him for USC's final 5 games (Oregon State, Arizona, Notre Dame, UCLA and Oklahoma).

2003: Draper originally signed with USC in 2003, but did not qualify for admission, so he attended Cuesta Junior College in San Luis Obispo (Calif.) in 2003 as a part-time student (he didn't play football there).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura County/North Coast Lineman MVP and All-League Offensive Lineman MVP honors as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Paso Robles (Calif.) High.

As a junior in 2001, he made All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-North Coast first team and All-League Offensive Lineman MVP. He started for 3 years.

He also was on the track team at Paso Robles.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(49) SEDRICK ELLIS
Defensive Tackle, 6-1, 295, Jr.*/Sr., Chino, CA (Chino HS)

2006: Ellis was impressive once again while starting for the second year at nose tackle as a junior in 2006. Overall in 2006 while starting 9 games, he had 28 tackles, including 6 for losses of 35 yards (with 3.5 sacks for minus 29 yards), plus 2 fumble recoveries, 1 forced fumble, a blocked field goal (at Stanford that USC returned for a touchdown) and 2 deflections. He tore cartilage in his right knee prior to the Nebraska game and had arthroscopic surgery, sidelining him for 3 games (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State). He made the 2006 Collegefootballnews.com All-American first team, All-Pac-10 first team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team, Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 second team. He won the 2006 Pac-10 Morris Trophy (for the league's top defensive lineman, as voted by the league's offensive linemen).

He had 3 tackles (with a sack) and a forced fumble at Arkansas, then returned from a 3-game hiatus because of the knee injury and had 5 tackles against Washington. He made 5 tackles, including 2 for a loss (with 0.5 sack), versus Arizona State, another 5 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), at Oregon State and a tackle and the blocked field goal at Stanford. He added a tackle against Oregon, 4 tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection against California, 2 tackles against Notre Dame and 2 more tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection at UCLA.

2005: After an eye-opening showing in 2005 spring practice, Ellis earned the starting nose tackle spot as a sophomore in 2005 and didn't disappoint. Overall in 2005 while starting all 13 games, he made 50 tackles, including 8 for losses of 36 yards (with 4.5 sacks for minus 26 yards), plus 3 deflections and 1 forced fumble. He had 9 tackles (with a sack) at Notre Dame, 7 tackles (1.5 for a loss, with a sack) versus UCLA, 6 stops (with a sack) at Washington, 4 tackles against Arkansas (1 for a loss) and Oregon (2.5 for losses), and 3 stops versus Arizona State (with a sack), Washington State, Stanford, Fresno State and Texas. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

2004: Ellis backed up Mike Patterson at defensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 11 games (all but Virginia Tech and Notre Dame), he made 2 tackles (1 each against Arizona State and Oregon State).

2003: Ellis redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2003, his first year at USC. He suffered a left ankle fracture in 2003 fall practice, played briefly against BYU and then had midseason surgery, forcing him to miss the rest of the 2003 season (he was allowed to redshirt because of the early injury).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star Lineman MVP and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Lineman MVP selection as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Chino (Calif.) High. He posted 122 tackles (35 solo), including 19 for losses (with 6.5 sacks), plus 1 blocked punt, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team. He had 108 tackles, including 16 for losses (with 10 sacks), in 2001.

He was on the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team in 2000.

He also was on Chino's track team. Current Trojan Chris McFoy also prepped at Chino.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(4) KEVIN ELLISON
Safety, 6-1, 220, So./So., Inglewood, CA (Redondo Union HS)

2006: Ellison started all of his 2006 sophomore season at strong safety and did a steady job. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 63 tackles, including 6 for losses of 21 yards (with 1.5 sacks for minus 7 yards), plus an interception, 5 deflections and a forced fumble. He made 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American second team and All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He won USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award. He had 2 tackles and a deflection against Arkansas, Nebraska and Arizona. He then had 7 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Washington State, 9 tackles against Washington and 4 tackles, including 1.5 sacks, versus Arizona State. He added 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Oregon State and another 6 tackles with an interception at Stanford. He had 7 stops (1 for a loss) and a forced fumble against Oregon, a team-best 7 tackles with a deflection against California, 5 tackles (1 for a loss) against Notre Dame and 6 tackles (1 for a loss) at UCLA.

2005: Ellison, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005, was headed to an impressive season as a backup strong safety and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005, appearing often in extra defensive back situations. But he tore ligaments and got a fracture in his left knee while making a crucial interception late in the Arizona State game and had surgery, sidelining him the rest of the season. Overall while appearing in USC's first 4 games of 2005, he made 6 tackles, the interception and a forced fumble. He had 3 tackles at Arizona State, 2 versus Arkansas (with a forced fumble) and 1 at Hawaii. He made the 2005 The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside Player of the Year, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area Player of the Year and All-Bay League MVP as a senior running back and linebacker at Redondo Union High in Redondo Beach (Calif.). He ran for 1,661 yards on 230 carries (7.2 avg.) with 32 TDs and had 25 receptions for 414 yards (16.6 avg.) with 5 TDs on offense and 115 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 5 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) in 2004. In one game, he ran for a school-record 322 yards on 18 carries (17.9 avg.).

As a junior in 2003, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division IV, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first team and All-Ocean League Co-MVP. He had 1,402 yards on 222 carries (6.3 avg.) with 15 TDs and 15 receptions for 161 yards (10.7 avg.) with 1 TD, plus 101 tackles, 8 tackles for loss, 3 sacks, 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) and 1 fumble recovery in 2003.

He was a 2002 South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area and All-Ocean League Co-Defensive MVP selection as a 2002 sophomore. In his career, he rushed for a school-record 3,718 yards on 578 carries (6.4 avg.) and had 297 tackles.

PERSONAL: His brother, Chris, was a defensive back at BYU in 1997 and 1998, while another brother, Keith, was a linebacker at Oregon State in 2004 and 2005 (he also played at San Diego State in 2002) who now plays with the NFL's Buffalo Bills. His cousin, Donminic Ellison, played basketball at Washington State and New Mexico State.

(25) C.J. GABLE
Tailback, 6-1, 190, Fr./Fr., Sylmar, CA (Sylmar HS)

2006: As just a first-year freshman in 2006, Gable was impressive as a tailback and kickoff returner. He started 4 games—the opener at Arkansas and the last 3 games (California, Notre Dame, UCLA)—and was USC's rushing leader in the last 3 games. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 409 yards (third on USC) on 98 carries (4.2 avg.) with 4 TDs, plus 7 receptions for 93 yards (13.3 avg.) and 14 kickoff returns for 383 yards (27.4 avg.). He made 2006 Rivals.com Freshman All-American second team (as a kickoff returner), The Sporting News Freshman All-American honorable mention (as a tailback and kickoff returner), All-Pac-10 honorable mention (as a kickoff returner) and The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team (as a tailback and kickoff returner).

Gable became the first USC true freshman to start an opener at tailback when he did so at Arkansas as he had 51 yards on 12 attempts with a 3-yard TD. He then had 22 yards on 6 rushes against Nebraska, 34 yards on 5 carries and had a 5-yard reception at Arizona and he rushed for 6 yards on 3 tries and returned 4 kickoffs for 127 yards (including a 55-yarder) at Washington State. He returned 4 kickoffs for 98 yards against Washington, had 26 yards on 5 rushes with a 2-yard TD and also returned a kickoff 20 yards against Arizona State, had a 5-yard run and 2 kickoff returns for 40 yards at Oregon State, added 1 yard on 2 tries at Stanford and gained 14 yards on 6 tries and scored a 2-yard TD (he also had a 41-yard kickoff return) against Oregon. He started against California and ran for a game-best and career-high 91 yards on 19 carries (he also had a career-long 35-yard reception and returned a kickoff 33 yards for 159 all-purpose yards) to earn Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week honors. He had a game-best 107 yards on 20 carries (both career highs) while starting against Notre Dame, and he also caught a 21-yard pass. He had a team-best 52 yards on 19 carries (with a 1-yard TD), caught 3 passes for 32 yards and returned a kickoff 24 yards while starting at UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2005 Parade All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area Defensive MVP and All-L.A. City Offensive MVP as a senior running back and defensive back at Sylmar (Calif.) High. He rushed for 2,298 yards on 209 carries (11.0 avg.) with 34 TDs and caught 19 passes for 360 yards (18.9 avg.) with 4 scores on offense and had 56 tackles and 7 interceptions on defense in 2005.

As a junior in 2004, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area honorable mention. He ran for 2,026 yards (11.2 avg.) with 27 TDs, had 285 receiving yards and made 85 tackles and 5 interceptions in 2004.

He had 509 rushing yards on 80 carries (6.4 avg.) as a sophomore in 2003. He was the first player in Sylmar history to rush for 2,000 yards in 2 seasons.

PERSONAL: His initials stand for Carl Jr.

(44) RASHAAD GOODRUM
Defensive End, 6-3, 270, Sr.*/Sr., Fayetteville, NC
(Pine Forest HS/Los Angeles Valley JC)

2006: Goodrum, who was set to serve as a backup defensive end as a senior in 2006, missed the 2006 season (and 2006 spring drills) while recuperating from a 2005 rib and back injury.

2005: Goodrum was a backup defensive end as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 8 games (all but Notre Dame, California, Fresno State, UCLA and Texas), he made 2 tackles (both at Oregon). He suffered bruised ribs and a back sprain against Stanford and missed USC's last 4 games.

2004: Goodrum, who came to USC in the fall of 2004 as a junior college transfer, had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his left knee in 2004 fall practice and sat out the opener against Virginia Tech. He then saw brief action against Colorado State and BYU (he had a sack at BYU). But his knee injury flared up again, so he sat out the rest of the season and because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was a 2-year (2002-03) starting defensive end and linebacker at Los Angeles Valley Junior College in Valley Glen (Calif.). He was a 2003 Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention and All-Western State Conference Northern Division first team (unanimous) selection. He posted 55 tackles (35 solo), including 16 tackles for loss (with 6 sacks), and 2 forced fumbles in 2003.

He also made the 2002 All-Western State Conference Northern Division first team.

He originally signed with Washington in 2004, but did not enroll there in the spring because he did not graduate from junior college in time.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Pine Forest High in Fayetteville (N.C.), where he was a 2000 All-Mid South Conference second teamer as a senior linebacker and fullback. He averaged 6.0 yards per carry as a senior.

He did not attend any school during the 2001 season.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. His brother, Nuru, is a senior running back at The Citadel (he led the team in rushing and scoring in 2005).

(14) GARRETT GREEN
Safety-Quarterback, 6-2, 200, Fr./Fr., Chatsworth, CA (Notre Dame HS)

2006: Green began 2006, his first year at USC, as a freshman backup quarterback, but was moved to safety early in the season (he also continued to work some at quarterback late in the season). Overall in 2006 while appearing in 9 games (all but Arkansas and Nebraska), he had 1 tackle (against Oregon). He played mainly on special teams, as his only action at safety was briefly against Stanford and Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2005 Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III Offensive MVP and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team selection as a senior quarterback and defensive back at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). He hit 88-of-141 passes (62.4%) for 1,527 yards and 14 TDs and also rushed for 945 yards on 92 carries (10.3 avg.) with 8 scores in 2005 despite missing 3 early games with a thumb injury.

As a junior in 2004, he made Student Sports Junior All-American, Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-San Fernando Valley MVP, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-League. He was 112-of-168 passing (66.7%) for 1,850 yards with 15 TDs and just 3 interceptions and added 900 rushing yards on 94 carries (9.6 avg.) with 9 TDs in 2004 as Notre Dame won its second consecutive CIF Division III title.

He was named to the 2003 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore, All-CIF Division III and All-League squads as a sophomore.

He made All-League as a freshman in 2002. He was 38-2 as a starting quarterback (including 36 consecutive wins). Current Trojans Cary Harris and Lou Ferrigno Jr. also prepped at Notre Dame.

He also ran track at Notre Dame, with bests of 14.44 in the 110-meter high hurdles and 38.18 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles.

PERSONAL: His cousin is former Purdue and USC quarterback Brandon Hance.

(40) BRANDON HANCOCK
Fullback, 6-1, 240, Sr.*/Sr., Fresno, CA (Clovis West HS)

2006: Hancock—a tough blocker and an excellent receiver who is big, strong and fast—was set to regain his starting fullback job as a senior in 2006. But he tore knee ligaments in his left knee in 2006 fall camp and had surgery, sidelining him for the season.

2005: Hancock returned after a year's layoff because of injury and served as the backup fullback as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 13 yards on 4 carries (3.2 avg.) with a TD and caught 9 passes for 102 yards (11.3 avg.). He ran for an 8-yard score against Stanford. He had 2 catches for 17 yards at Arizona State, plus caught a 21-yarder against Arkansas, a 16-yarder at Oregon, a 15-yarder at Washington, a 12-yarder versus Washington State, an 8-yarder against Texas and a 6-yarder versus Arizona. He had arthroscopic surgery to removed cartilage from his knee in the summer of 2005. He won USC's Howard Jones/Football Alumni Club Award.

2004: Hancock redshirted the 2004 season (he was slated to start at fullback) after having surgery in the spring of 2004 for a torn ligament in his left knee and a ruptured chest muscle (the injuries also caused him to miss 2004 spring football practice).

2003: Hancock started at fullback for most of his 2003 sophomore season. He missed USC's first 3 games of 2003 (Auburn, BYU and Hawaii) with a sprained right ankle suffered in fall drills. He then sprained his left knee at Arizona and missed the UCLA and Oregon State contests. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 8 games (off the bench at California, then starting the next 6 contests and against Michigan in the Rose Bowl), he caught 13 passes for 160 yards (12.3 avg.) with 2 TDs, had 1 carry for minus 2 yards and made a tackle. He caught 2 passes for 42 yards (including a 33-yard TD on fourth down) at Arizona State, then had 3 receptions versus Stanford (19 yards) and Notre Dame (28 yards). He caught a 52-yard TD pass at Washington. He then had a 5-yard reception against Washington State and a 6-yarder at Arizona. He added 2 grabs for 8 yards versus Michigan. He missed 2003 spring practice after having spring surgery to repair a dislocating bone in his right wrist.

2002: Hancock, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2002, was a backup fullback and appeared on special teams as a freshman in 2002. He even started twice (Oregon State and California). Overall while appearing in all 13 games, he gained 8 yards on 3 carries (2.7 avg.), caught 2 passes for 15 yards (7.5 avg.) and made 4 tackles and a fumble recovery (at Washington State, which led to a USC TD).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Far West, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Fresno Bee All-Fresno second team pick as a senior fullback at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.). He ran for 1,280 yards in 2001 and had 1,600-plus all-purpose yards with 15 TDs.

As a junior in 2000, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team as he rushed for 700-plus yards with 5 scores and, as a linebacker, had 80 tackles (31 solo), 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles and an interception despite missing some game with a mid-season ankle sprain. He also played some at quarterback and defensive end while at Clovis West.

Also a fine student, he was valedictorian at Clovis West.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in communication (business administration minor) at USC in the spring of 2006 and is now working on his master's degree in communication management. He has an A- average (3.91 GPA). He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest honor society that recognized scholars in the liberal arts and sciences. He was named to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VIII first team, 2003 CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII first team and 2003 and 2005 Pac-10 All-Academic first teams. In April of 2006, he was invited to accompany the USC Debate Squad to South Bend, Ind., to formally debate Notre Dame's forensics team on the topic of who will win the 2006 Trojan-Irish football game. He has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

(7) CARY HARRIS
Cornerback, 6-0, 180, So./So., Pacoima, CA (Notre Dame HS)

2006: Harris did a reliable job while starting most of 2006 at cornerback as a sophomore. Overall while appearing in all 12 games (he started all but Arkansas and Arizona State), he had 41 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss of 3 yards, plus an interception that he returned 28 yards, 2 deflections and a fumble recovery. He also returned 6 kickoffs early in the season for 93 yards (15.5 avg.). He had 3 tackles, an interception and 3 kickoff returns for 50 yards at Arkansas, then a tackle, a fumble recovery and returned 3 kickoffs for 43 yards against Nebraska. He added 5 stops at Arizona, 6 at Washington State, 2 against Washington, 3 versus Arziona State, 4 at Oregon State and 3 at Stanford. He had a team-high 10 tackles (0.5 for loss) against Oregon, then 2 tackles and a deflection against California. He had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections against Notre Dame and 2 tackles at UCLA.

2005: Harris served as a reserve cornerback and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 9 tackles and 1 deflection. He had 2 stops versus Washington (with a deflection), Stanford and UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, EA Sports All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team selection as a senior running back and cornerback at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). He rushed for 1,800 yards with 24 TDs and had 81 tackles, 19 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions in 2004. Notre Dame went 14-0 and won the CIF Division III championship in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section second team and All-CIF Division III while gaining 1,150 rushing yards (7.5 yards per carry) with 17 TDs and posting 73 tackles, 6 deflections, 3 forced fumbles, 2 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery.

He was named to the Cal-Hi Sports Sophomore Al-State and All-CIF Division III squads in 2002. In his career, Notre Dame won 3 consecutive CIF Division III crowns.

He also ran track at Notre Dame, with a best of 10.75 in the 100 meters. Current Trojans Garrett Green and Lou Ferrigno Jr. also attended Notre Dame.

PERSONAL: He has a B- average (2.81 GPA) at USC.

(26) WILL HARRIS
Safety, 6-1, 200, So./So., Covina, CA (Charter Oak HS)

2006: Harris was set to serve as a backup free safety as a sophomore in 2006, but missed the 2006 campaign after tearing ligaments in his right knee while playing pickup basketball in May of 2006, which required surgery. He missed some of 2006 spring drills while recuperating from a 2005 knee injury.

2005: Harris, originally a safety, was moved to cornerback early in his 2005 first-year freshman season and saw limited action there as a reserve and on special teams, but his season was plagued by injuries. He missed USC's first 6 games because of an ankle sprain suffered in 2005 fall camp, then he sprained his right knee against Stanford and was sidelined the rest of the season. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 3 games (Washington, Washington State and Stanford), he made 1 tackle (versus Washington State).

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2004 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division VI, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley Player of the Year and All-Miramonte League MVP as a senior defensive back, wide receiver and quarterback at Charter Oak High in Covina (Calif.). He had 108 tackles, 6 interceptions (2 for TDs), 3 fumble recoveries and 3 forced fumbles on defense, while on offense he had 63 receptions for 640 yards (10.2 avg.) with 11 TDs, ran for 372 yards on 23 carries (16.2 avg.) with 4 scores and completed 5 passes for 100 yards and 2 TDs.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-Valley and All-League first team choice while getting 64 tackles, 7 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery, plus catching 22 passes for 400 yards (18.2 avg.) with 6 TDs.

He made All-League as a sophomore in 2002.

He also played basketball at Charter Oak, earning All-CIF and All-League MVP honors.

He had 5 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss (with a sack), plus he forced a fumble and had a deflection against California. He had a tackle for a loss against Notre Dame, then 6 tackles (1 for a loss) at UCLA.

2005: Jackson started for his second season at defensive end as a sophomore in 2005 and did a stellar job. Overall in 2005 while starting all 13 games, he had 46 tackles, including 13 for losses of 76 yards (with a team-best 10 sacks for minus 60 yards), plus 6 deflections, a team-best 2 fumble recoveries, a team-best 4 forced fumbles and a blocked PAT. He was a 2005 Rivals.com All-American third teamer. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He won USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year and Co-Player of the Game versus UCLA Awards.

He had 4 tackles (including 2 sacks and a deflection) at Hawaii, 4 tackles each against Arkansas and Oregon, a team-high 7 tackles (including 2.5 for losses, with 1.5 sacks) at Arizona State, 2 stops and 2 deflections against Arizona, and 4 tackles (1 for a loss) at Notre Dame). He added 2 tackles (with a sack) and a deflection at Washington, then 3 tackles (1 for a loss), a forced fumble and a fumble recovery on the same play that led to a USC TD and also a blocked PAT against Washington State. He had 3 stops (with a sack), a fumble recovery (to set up a USC TD) and 2 deflections against Stanford, a tackle at California and then 7 tackles (with a sack) and a forced fumble that USC recovered to set up a field goal against Fresno State. He had 5 tackles, including 3 sacks, and 2 forced fumbles (USC recovered the second one).

2004: Jackson started at defensive end as a redshirt freshman in 2004 and did a commendable job. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games (he started all but BYU), he had 32 tackles, including 11 for losses of 41 yards (with 6 sacks for 31 yards), plus a deflection and an interception (against Arizona, which he returned 19 yards to set up a TD). He made the 2004 Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American first team, The Sporting News and Rivals.com Freshman All-American second teams and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He had 5 tackles against Oregon State (1.5 for losses) and Notre Dame (2 for losses) and 4 stops against Arizona State.

2003: Jackson redshirted as a freshman defensive end in 2003, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Defensive Player of the Year award. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right ankle to remove debris.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Tom Lemming All-American, CNNSI.com All-American first team, The Insiders.com All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside Lineman MVP, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Bay League MVP honors as a senior at Inglewood (Calif.) High. He had 142 tackles, with 11 sacks, plus 4 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions in 2002 while playing defensive line and middle linebacker.

As a junior in 2001, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay Lineman of the Year, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Ocean League Defensive MVP. He had 134 tackles, including 22 sacks, plus 2 interceptions (1 returned for a TD), 7 forced fumbles, 3 fumble recoveries and 3 blocked kicks in 2001. Inglewood made it to the 2001 CIF Division X semifinals.

In his career, he had 57 sacks.

He also was on Inglewood's track team.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His brother, Keith, was an offensive tackle at Arizona.

(8) DWAYNE JARRETT
Wide Receiver, 6-5, 215, Jr./Jr., New Brunswick, NJ
(New Brunswick HS)

CAREER: The 2-time All-American first teamer is second on USC's career receptions chart with 205 (11th on the all-time Pac-10 ladder) and needs just 2 catches to equal Trojan leader Keary Colbert. His 39 career TD catches are a Pac-10 record, as the old standard was 26 years old (the NCAA record is 50 by Louisiana Tech's Troy Edwards, 1996-98). His 2,933 career receiving yards is fourth on USC's all-time list (14th on the Pac-10 career chart). He has 12 100-yard receiving games in his career. He has caught a pass in all 37 games he has played in his career (he sat out the 2006 Washington State game with a shoulder injury), with a TD reception in 24 of those contests.

2006: The big, athletic and acrobatic Jarrett was among the nation's premier players as he started for his third season at wide receiver as a junior in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 11 games (all but Washington State), he caught 59 passes (second on USC) for 810 yards (13.7 avg.) with 10 TDs. He also lost 3 yards on a run (at UCLA) and threw an interception (against Oregon). He currently is 24th nationally in receptions (5.4, second in Pac-10). His 59 catches in 2006 is 14th on the USC season chart. His 10 TD catches in 2006 are tied for 22nd on the Pac-10 season list. He has 3 100-yard receiving games in 2006. He sprained his left shoulder at Arizona and missed the Washington State game (he also didn't start against Washington, but played). He was bothered early in the season with a sore quadriceps. He was named to the 2006 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team. He made the 2006 AP, Walter Camp All-American, SI.com and Scout.com first teams (making him USC's first-ever 2-time All-American first team wide receiver), The Sporting News and Rivals.com All-American second teams, Collegefootballnews.com All-American third team, Pro Football Weekly All-Americanhonorable mention, All-Pac-10 first team (for the second year in a row), ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team, Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 first team. He was ninth in the voting for the 2006 Heisman Trophy. He was 1 of 14 semifinalists for the 2006 Biletnikoff Award. He won USC's Player of the Game versus Notre Dame Award.

He had a game-best 5 receptions for 35 yards at Arkansas, then caught a career high-equalling 11 passes for 136 yards versus Nebraska, with TDs of 12 and 5 yards to give him the USC career touchdown reception record and help him earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He caught 4 passes for 36 yards at Arizona, including a 3-yard TD, before sitting out most of the second half with a sprained shoulder. He returned after missing the Washington State game and had a 5-yard reception against Washington, but sat out the second half when his sore shoulder flared up. He had a game-best 6 receptions for 60 yards, with a 14-yard TD to break the Pac-10 career touchdown reception record (33), against Arizona State. He had 4 grabs for 63 yards at Oregon State. He then had a game-best 5 receptions for 118 yards, with a 21-yard TD, at Stanford, then a game-best 7 catches for 91 yards against Oregon with a 12-yard TD. He added 5 grabs for 66 yards (with a 25-yard score) against California. He earned Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors against Notre Dame as he caught 3 TD passes (9, 5 and 43 yards, the last after bouncing off a defender and outracing 4 others) to equal a career best while grabbing 7 passes for 132 yards (both game highs), including an amazing one-handed grab. He had 4 receptions for 68 yards at UCLA.

2005: Jarrett started for his second year at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while starting 12 games (all but UCLA) and appearing in all 13 contests, he had a team-best 91 receptions for 1,274 yards (14.0 avg.) with 16 TD. He also had 2 carries for 4 yards (2.0 avg.), completed 1-of-3 passes for 11 yards and made 1 tackle. He was 1 of 3 finalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award. He won the 2005 Touchdown Club of Columbus' Wide Receiver of the Year Award. He was named a 2005 AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, The Sporting News, SI.com, CBS Sportsline.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American first teamer and Rivals.com All-American second teamer (he was a unanimous choice and joined Mike Williams as the only USC sophomore wide receivers to win All-American honors). He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He made the 2005 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 team. He was 12th nationally in receptions (7.0, second in Pac-10) and 13th in receiving yards (98.0, fourth in Pac-10). His 91 catches in 2005 put him third on USC's season list. His 16 TD catches were the most in the nation in 2005 and put him third on the Pac-10 season chart (tying Mike Williams' USC season record). He had a TD catch in 9 games in 2005 and 5 100-yard receiving games in 2005 (including a 200-yarder). With 1,274 receiving yards in 2005, he was USC's ninth pass catcher to break the 1,000-yard barrier.

He had 7 catches for 88 yards at Hawaii, with 3 TDs (22, 28 and 2 yards) to tie a USC game record. He added 4 catches for 79 yards against Arkansas, with a pair of TD grabs (24 and 8 yards). He caught 8 passes for 94 yards (both game highs), with 2 TDs (11 and 6 yards), at Oregon. He had a team-best 7 receptions for 90 yards at Arizona State, then had a game-best 9 catches for 116 yards and 2 TDs (22 and 29 yards) against Arizona. He added 4 catches for 101 yards at Notre Dame, none bigger than his 61-yard fourth-and-9 grab with less than a minute to play to set up USC's game-winning TD. He then caught 3 TDs at Washington (24, 7 and 7 yards, with the last being a spectacular one-handed, one-foot-in grab) on 7 receptions for 95 yards (all game bests). He caught 11 passes for 200 yards (both career bests) with a 29-yard TD against Washington State (it was only the eighth time a Trojan had at least 200 receiving yards). He had 8 catches for 101 yards (both team highs) against Stanford, including a spectacular 19-yard over-the-should TD grab. He hit 1,000 receiving yards in 2005 with 5 catches for 69 yards (both game highs) at California. He made 5 receptions for 37 yards against Fresno State. He caught a game-best 6 pases for 83 yards, with an 8-yard TD grab, against UCLA (he also completed an 11-yard pass off a reverse). He had 10 catches for 121 yards, with a 22-yard TD, against Texas (all game highs), to earn a place on the 2005 Rivals.com All-Bowl team.

2004: Jarrett made an immediate impact as a first-year freshman wide receiver in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games (he started the last 8), he had a team-high 55 receptions for 849 yards (15.4 avg.) and 13 TDs. He had just 3 less TD catches than Williams had in his 2003 All-American sophomore campaign (and just 1 less than Williams had in 2002 when he was a Freshman All-American). His 13 TD catches are the second most ever by a Trojan freshman receiver (behind Williams' 14). He had 4 multiple-TD games and 4 100-yard outings in 2004. His 55 catches is tied for 14th on USC's season list. He made the 2004 Football Writers, The Sporting News, Collegefootballnews.com and Rivals.com Freshman All-American first teams, All-Pac-10 honorable mention and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team.

He had 2 catches for 8 yards in his debut at Virginia Tech, then 3 for 32 yards (with a 4-yard score) against Colorado State and 3 for 58 yards (including a 15-yard TD) at BYU. He added 5 receptions for 54 yards at Stanford, then had a team-best 4 catches for 37 yards (with a 16-yard TD) versus California. He tied the USC single game TD catch record with his 3 scores (19, 52 and 34 yards, all in the second quarter) against Arizona State (overall, he caught 5 passes for a career-best 139 yards) to earn Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week honors. He had 5 catches for 31 yards versus Washington, 4 catches for 64 yards at Washington State, with 2 TDs (42 and 4 yards), and 2 catches for 21 yards at Oregon State. He had 6 catches for 144 yards (both career bests) and 2 TDs against Arizona for his second career 100-yard outing. He then had a game-best 6 catches for 102 yards (his third 100-yard outing and second in a row) with 2 TDs (12 and 57 yards) against Notre Dame. At UCLA, he had 5 catches for 44 yards. He had 5 catches for 115 yards, with a 54-yard TD grab, against Oklahoma.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2003 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Super Prep All-Northeast Offensive MVP, Prep Star All-East and New Jersey Offensive Player of the Year pick as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at New Brunswick (N.J.) High. He scored 26 TDs (including all 3 in New Brunswick's 21-14 state title victory), with 5 of the TDs coming on his 15 punt returns (for a 48.0 average) in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he had 40 receptions for 956 yards (23.9 avg.) with 17 TDs on offense and 24 tackles and 6 interceptions on defense. He also played basketball at New Brunswick.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His cousin, Desmond Belton, is a junior wide receiver at Idaho.

He was 1 of 6 finalists for the Rimington Trophy (nation's top center). He won USC's Most Inspirational Player and Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year Awards.

2005: Kalil started for his second season at center as a junior in 2005 and anchored the USC offensive line with his fine play. He was named to the 2005 SI.com All-American and Collegefootballnews.com second teams. He made the 2005 All-Pac-10 first team. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award.

2004: Kalil started all season at center as a sophomore in 2004 and did an admirable job. He won USC's 2004 Courage Award.

2003: As just a first-year freshman, Kalil backed up Norm Katnik at center in 2003 and saw brief action in 6 games (Hawaii, Arizona State, Notre Dame, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Southern Section first team, CIF Division I first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County second team selection as a senior offensive lineman at Servite High in Anaheim (Calif.).

· He also started as a 2001 junior. He did not allow a sack in 2001 or 2002. He also was a long snapper.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Frank, was a center at Arkansas (1978) and Arizona (1980-81-82), then was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in 1982 before playing for the USFL's Arizona Wranglers in 1983 and Houston Gamblers in 1984. He likes to sing, particularly Frank Sinatra tunes.

(68) BUTCH LEWIS
Offensive Tackle, 6-7, 300, Fr./Fr., Denver, CO (Regis Jesuit HS)

2006: Lewis redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2006, his first year at USC. He was switched to offense in 2006 fall camp after coming to USC as a defensive tackle.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2005 Parade All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Midlands, Prep Star All-Midlands, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, All-State and All-Conference selection as a senior defensive and offensive lineman at Regis Jesuit High in Aurora (Colo.). He had 65 tackles and 7 sacks in 2005.

As a junior in 2004, he made All-State second team while getting 10 sacks. He was a 3-year varsity starter in football.

He also played basketball at Regis Jesuit, averaging 15 points a game.

PERSONAL: His real first name is Wendell.

(45) OSCAR LUA
Linebacker, 6-1, 245, Sr.*/Sr., Indio, CA (Indio HS)

2006: Lua, USC's tackles leader in 2005, was an often-used backup middle linebacker and key special teams player as a senior in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 11 games (all but Arizona State) and starting 3 times (Arkansas, Oregon State, Notre Dame), he had 31 tackles, including 2 for losses of 3 yards, and 3 deflections. He bruised his right leg against Washington and missed the Arizona State contest. He had a tackle for a loss at Arizona, then 3 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Washington State and 2 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and a deflection against Washington. He added 5 tackles at Oregon State, then had a team-best 7 tackles at Stanford, 3 stops against Oregon, 4 tackles and a deflection against California and 6 tackles and a deflection against Notre Dame. He won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award.

2005: Lua emerged from 2005 fall camp as the starting middle linebacker and did a commendable job there as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 12 games (he missed the California game with a sprained left knee suffered against Stanford) and starting 11 times (he didn't start against Stanford after getting hurt on the opening kickoff), he had a team-high 66 tackles, including 0.5 sack for minus 1 yard, plus 1 fumble recovery, 2 forced fumbles, 1 interception which he returned 13 yards and 2 deflections. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He had 3 tackles at Hawaii, a team-best 8 stops against Arkansas, another 8 at Oregon and 3 tackles with an interception (to set up a USC field goal) at Arizona State. He then had a team-best 10 tackles against Arizona, another 10 tackles and a deflection at Notre Dame, 7 stops at Washington and 3 tackles and a fumble recovery (to set up a USC TD) against Washington State. He returned from his knee injury to post 6 tackles with a forced fumble against Fresno State. He had 2 tackles and a deflection against UCLA. He added 6 tackles and forced a fumble against Texas.

2004: Lua was a backup middle linebacker and key special teams player as a sophomore in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 13 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 2 stops against Virginia Tech and Oregon State. He missed some of 2004 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

2003: Lua hoped to push for the starting middle linebacker job as a sophomore in 2003. But he missed 2003 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury suffered late in 2002. He then played briefly against BYU but reinjured the knee, forcing him out for the rest of the 2003 season (he had mid-season surgery). He was able to redshirt because of the early injury.

2002: Lua served as an often-used backup middle linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 11 games (all but Arizona State), he made 13 tackles, including a 14-yard sack, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble. He had 2 tackles against Oregon State, Washington State and UCLA. His sack was at Colorado (which caused a fumble that USC recovered to set up a TD) and his fumble recovery was at Kansas State. He tore ligaments in his right knee during bowl practice, had surgery and was sidelined.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Prep Star All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest Defensive MVP, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, All-CIF Division VIII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Desert/Mountain first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County first team and All-Desert Valley League Defensive MVP laurels as a senior linebacker at Indio (Calif.) High. Despite missing 3 games with an injury in 2001, he made 148 tackles (88 solo) with 3 sacks while averaging 13 stops a game, plus had 3 interceptions (one returned for a TD), 4 fumble recoveries, 6 forced fumbles and scored twice on blocked punts.

· He also was an outfielder on Indio's baseball team, hitting .485 with 11 home runs in 2001 to earn All-League honors for the second consecutive season and then .456 with 28 RBI in 2002.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. His sports idol is ex-USC All-American and NFL star linebacker Junior Seau.

(70) ALATINI MALU
Offensive Guard, 6-4, 330, Jr.*/Sr., Torrance, CA
(Torrance HS/Long Beach CC)

2006: Malu was a backup at right offensive guard as a junior in 2006. He even started the Washington game for an injured Chilo Rachal and did a commendable job. He appeared in all 12 games in 2006 on special teams and, besides his starting assignment, he also saw brief action at guard in 6 other contests (Arkansas, Arizona, Arizona State, Stanford, Oregon, Notre Dame) besides his starting assignment.

2005: Malu was a backup offensive guard as a sophomore in 2005 (he was also available at tackle). He appeared briefly in 9 games (all but Oregon, Arizona State, Notre Dame and Texas) on the line and on special teams.

2004: Malu, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2004 after transferring from a junior college, redshirted as a sophomore offensive guard in 2004. He was slowed early in the season after having an appendectomy in 2004 fall practice, then he broke a finger prior to the California game.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made the 2003 All-Mission Conference first team as a freshman offensive lineman at Long Beach (Calif.) City College. He originally signed with Cal State Northridge and was set to play there following his return from a 2-year Mormon mission in Austrailia, but the Matador program disbanded while he was serving his mission, so he enrolled at Long Beach City.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Torrance (Calif.) High, where as a senior offensive lineman in 1998 he did not allow a sack and was a Super Prep All-Farwest, All-CIF Division X, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Ocean League first team honoree.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His nickname is "Tiny."

(47) CLAY MATTHEWS
Linebacker, 6-4, 230, So.*, Jr., Agoura Hills, CA (Agoura HS)

2006: A one-time walk-on, Matthews earned a scholarship in the fall of 2006 and served as a reserve linebacker and key special teams player as a sophomore in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 13 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 9 yards (with a 7-yard sack). He had 4 tackles at Stanford (with 0.5 tackle for a loss and a sack) and 3 tackles against Oregon. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

2005: As a redshirt freshman reserve linebacker in 2005 (he also played on special teams), he had 8 tackles and a deflection while appearing in 12 games (all but Hawaii). He had 3 tackles versus Stanford and 2 against Washington State. He had a tackle and deflection versus Arkansas. He missed the Hawaii game with a sprained elbow.

2004: He did not see any action as a first-year freshman linebacker in 2004.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Agoura (Calif.) High.

PERSONAL: He's an international relations major at USC with a B average (3.10 GPA). He made the 2006 Pac-10 All-Academic second team. He comes from a football family. His father, Clay, was a 4-year (1974-77) letterman linebacker at USC who played on Troy's 1974 national championship team and earned All-American honors in 1977 (he went on to play with the NFL's Cleveland Browns and Atlanta Falcons from 1978 to 1996). His brother, Kyle, lettered at safety on USC's 2003 national championship team. His uncle, Bruce, was a 3-year (1980-82) letterman offensive guard at USC who earned All-American honors in 1982 and then played with the NFL's Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans from 1983 to 2001. His grandfather, Clay Sr., was on the football, wrestling and swimming teams at Georgia Tech in the 1940s and then played in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers in the 1950s.

(29) TAYLOR MAYS
Safety, 6-4, 225, Fr./Fr., Seattle, WA (O'Dea HS)

2006: Just a first-year freshman, Mays took over the free safety job in 2006 after Josh Pinkard suffered a season-ending injury in the opener and he ended up starting USC's final 11 games. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 58 tackles, a team-best 3 interceptions that he returned 40 yards (13.3 avg.) and 3 deflections. He made the 2006 The Sporting News All-American second team, Collegefootballnews.com Defensive Freshman of the Year, The Sporting News, Rivals.com and Scout.com Freshman All-American first teams and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 second team and was named Pac-10 Co-Freshman of the Year, The Sporting News Pac-10 Defensive Freshman of the Year and Rivals.com Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

After getting 2 tackles at Arkansas, he had 5 tackles against Nebraska while starting for the first time at free safety. He then had 3 tackles at Arizona, 4 tackles, a deflection and an interception near the goal line on the game's last play at Washington State, 8 stops with a deflection against Washington and a tackle versus Arizona State. He made a game-best 11 tackles (with a deflection) at Oregon State, added 4 stops at Stanford, had 4 tackles and returned an interception 38 yards against Oregon and 6 tackles and an interception against California. He had 7 tackles against Notre Dame and 3 at UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2005 Parade All-American (he was the defensive back MVP), USA Today All-USA first team, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American Game participant, Old Spice Red Zone Player of the Year, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nugget, Gatorade Washington Player of the Year, All-State first team and All-Metro League Mountain Division Offensive MVP and Defensive Co-MVP pick as a senior defensive back, wide receiver and quarterback at O'Dea High in Seattle, Wash. He had 166 tackles, 5 interceptions returned for 98 yards (19.6 avg.) and 5 deflections in 2005, plus caught 36 passes for 765 yards (21.3 avg.) with 15 TDs and rushed for 3 more scores.

As a junior in 2004, he made Student Sports Junior All-American while posting 89 tackles, 5 interceptions and 5 deflections, catching 25 passes for 614 yards (20.6 avg.) with 7 TDs and returning 12 punts for 392 yards (32.7 avg.) with 3 TDs.

He also ran track (best of 10.88 in the 100 meters) at O'Dea, where he was a 2-time (2004-05) state 3A champion in the 100 and 200 meters.

PERSONAL: His father, Stafford Mays, was a defensive lineman at Washington in 1978 and 1979 who then played in the NFL with the St. Louis Cardinals (1980-86) and Minnesota Vikings (1987-88 when current USC head coach Pete Carroll was an assistant coach there).

(86) ANTHONY McCOY
Tight End, 6-5, 240, Fr./Fr., Fresno, CA (Bullard HS)

2006: McCoy saw brief action in 3 early games (Arkansas, Arizona, Arizona State) as a backup tight end as a freshman in 2006, his first year at USC, but did not catch a pass. He strained his hamstring prior to the Oregon State game and was sidelined for the rest of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2005 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and Fresno Bee All-Area first team as a senior wide receiver, tight end and defensive lineman at Bullard High in Fresno (Calif.). He had 70 receptions for 1,210 yards (17.3 avg.) and 15 TDs and made 65 tackles, 14 sacks, 13 tackles for loss and 15 deflections in 2005.

As a junior in 2004, he was a Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team and All-League honoree while catching 54 passes for 850 yards (15.7 avg.) with 7 TDs and getting 10 sacks. Current Trojan Nick Howell also prepped at Bullard.

He also was an All-League basketball player at Bullard.

(9) MOZIQUE McCURTIS
Cornerback, 6-1, 225, So.*/Jr., San Diego, CA
(St. Augustine HS/Grossmont JC)

2006: McCurtis, a backup at cornerback, was USC's often-used nickel back as a sophomore in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 4 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 3 yards, plus an interception (against California) and a deflection. He had 2 tackles at Stanford and a tackle for a loss against Nebraska.

2005: McCurtis, a sophomore cornerback who transferred to USC in the fall of 2005 from a junior college, redshirted in 2005. He was sidelined all season with a strained abdominal muscle (sports hernia).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McCurtis emerged as a starting safety by the middle of his 2004 freshman season at Grossmont Junior College in El Cajon (Calif.). He had 30 tackles, 10 deflections and 2 interceptions as Grossmont went 11-1.

He attended Grossmont in 2003, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed his junior and senior seasons (2001 and 2002) at St. Augustine High in San Diego (Calif.) with torn knee ligaments.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His nickname is Zeke.

(16) MICHAEL McDONALD
Quarterback, 6-2, 185, Jr.*/Sr., Newport Beach, CA (Newport Harbor HS)

CAREER: His only 2 career passes were for touchdowns.

2006: McDonald was a reserve quarterback and the holder on all placekicks as a junior in 2006. He appeared in all 12 games of 2006 as the holder and even threw a 20-yard touchdown pass off a fake field goal attempt against Washington, but he didn't see any action as a quarterback.

2005: McDonald, a one-time walk-on, earned a scholarship in the fall of 2005 and was USC's No. 3 quarterback as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing briefly in 4 games (Arkansas, Washington State, Stanford and UCLA), he was 1-of-1 (1.000%) for 4 yards and 1 TD. He saw his first career action late in the Arkansas game and threw a 4-yard TD on his first career pass (his only toss of the contest). He played the last 3 snaps versus Washington State and took the final snap of the Stanford and UCLA games (kneel downs). He had actually quit the team following the 2004 season, but was talked into returning for 2005 spring practice by the coaches; he then quit the team again after 2005 spring drills, only to return again for the 2005 season when asked by the coaching staff.

2004: McDonald did not see any action as a walk-on redshirt freshman reserve quarterback in 2004.

2003: McDonald redshirted as a first-year freshman walk-on quarterback in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Newport Harbor High in Newport Beach (Calif.), where he starred in football and volleyball.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. His father, Paul, was a 3-year (1977-79) letterman quarterback at USC who helped the Trojans to the 1978 national championship and earned All-American and Academic All-American honors in 1979 (he then played in the NFL with the Browns and Cowboys from 1980 to 1987 and now serves as the radio analyst on USC football broadcasts).

(82) CHRIS McFOY
Wide Receiver, 6-2, 200, Sr.*/Sr., Chino, CA (Chino HS)

CAREER: He has 55 receptions and 17 starts in his career but he didn't catch a touchdown until the fourth game of his 2006 fifth-year senior season.

2006: McFoy, a steady veteran, was a key backup wide receiver as a senior in 2006. He even started at Arizona. He missed 6 mid-season games in 2006 (Washington, Arizona State, Oregon State, Stanford, Oregon, California) with a fractured left shoulder suffered at Washington State. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 6 games, he caught 15 passes for 158 yards (10.5 avg.) with a TD. He had 2 catches for 7 yards at Arkansas, then 3 receptions for 39 yards versus Nebraska, 3 catches for 41 yards at Arizona and 2 grabs for 12 yards, including a 7-yarder for his first career TD. He then had 2 catches for 24 yards against Notre Dame in his first game back after sitting out those 6 contests and he added 3 catches for 35 yards at UCLA.

2005: McFoy saw significant action as a junior wide receiver in 2005, even starting 6 games (Arkansas, Notre Dame, Stanford, California, Fresno State and UCLA). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 17 catches for 172 yards (10.1 avg.) and added 2 carries off reverses for 7 yards (3.5 avg) and 1 tackle. He had 4 receptions for 46 yards versus Washington State, 3 catches against Arizona (27 yards), Notre Dame (19 yards) and Stanford (42 yards) and 1 catch versus Hawaii (7 yards), Oregon (16 yards), Washington (6 yards) and California (9 yards, plus the 11-yard reverse).

2004: The steady McFoy started USC's first 9 games at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2004. He sprained his left knee in that ninth game (at Oregon State) and missed the following week's contest at Arizona. He was an often-used backup the last 3 games. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, he had 21 receptions for 272 yards (13.0 avg.). He caught 4 passes against Colorado State (59 yards) and BYU (37 yards) and 3 at Washington State (54 yards).

2003: McFoy was a reserve wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 2003. He missed 5 midseason games (Arizona State, Stanford, Notre Dame, Washington and Washington State) after spraining his right ankle at California. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 8 games (he even started at California), he had 2 receptions for 23 yards (12.5 average). He had a 15-yard grab against Hawaii and an 8-yarder at Arizona.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2001 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team and All-CIF Division II first team pick as a senior wide receiver at Chino (Calif.) High. He had 47 receptions for 820 yards (17.4 avg.) and 5 TDs in 2001 and added 110 yards on 8 carries (18.8 avg.) with 2 scores.

As a junior in 2000, he made All-CIF Division II first team, All-Area and All-League while catching 43 passes for 750 yards (17.4 avg.) and 7 TDs.

He also was on Chino's track team, with a best of 23-7 1/4 in the long jump. Current Trojan Sedrick Ellis also prepped at Chino.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in economics at USC in the spring of 2006 and is now working on a bachelor's degree in political science. His nickname is "Bobble." His brother, Ryan, is a freshman safety at Arizona State.

(88) JIMMY MILLER
Tight End, 6-5, 260, So.*/Jr., Thousand Oaks, CA (Westlake HS)

2006: Miller, who was a backup tight end as a sophomore in 2006, appeared briefly in 10 contests in 2006 (all but Arkansas and Oregon State), primarily on special teams. His only appearance as a tight end came against Oregon, but he did not catch a pass. He missed the Arkansas opener after spraining his shoulder in 2006 fall camp.

2005: Miller was a backup at tight end and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 3 catches for 8 yards (2.7 avg.) with 2 TDs and made 1 tackle. He caught a 4-yard TD pass against Arkansas and had 2 receptions for 4 yards (with a 1-yard TD) versus Stanford.

2004: Miller redshirted as a freshman tight end in 2004, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2003 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura/North Coast Lineman of the Year and Daily News All-Valley first team as a senior tight end and defensive end at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.). He had 40 receptions for 750 yards (18.8 avg.) with 9 TDs on offense and 85 tackles with 17 sacks on defense.

As a 2002 junior, he was a Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division IV, Daily News All-Area first team, All-Ventura County and All-League selection. He caught 12 passes for 200 yards (16.7 avg.) with 1 TD on offense in 2002 and posted 80 tackles, 33 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks and 14 deflections on defense.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His brother, Jeff, is a freshman defensive end at UCLA. He grew up in Texas before moving to California in the late 1990s.

(75) FILI MOALA
Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 295, So.*/Jr., Buena Park, CA (Western HS)

2006: Moala started USC's last 6 games at defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2006. He also started 3 early-season contests (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State) at nose tackle for an injured Sedrick Ellis. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 18 tackles, including 5 for losses of 12 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 5 yards), plus a fumble recovery and 4 deflections. He made 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He had 5 tackles against Notre Dame (including 2 for losses, with a sack), plus a fumble recovery and a deflection. He added 4 tackles against Nebraska, 3 against California and 2 at Oregon State (with a sack).

2005: Moala saw key playing time at defensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2005, even starting 2 games (Arizona State and Arizona). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 8 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 1 yard. He had 3 tackles against Washington State and 2 versus Arizona.

2004: Moala redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2004, his first year at USC. He sprained his right hand and his shoulder in 2004 fall practice and missed USC's first 4 games. He was USC's 2004 Service Team Defensive Player of the Year.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He originally signed with USC in 2003, but did not qualify for admission, so he attended Cypress (Calif.) Junior College in 2003 as a part-time student (he didn't play football there).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 selection as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Western High in Anaheim (Calif.). He missed all but 2 games of his 2002 senior season because of an injured left foot ligament.

As a junior in 2002, he made All-CIF Division IX first team and All-League while posting 60 tackles and 4 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's an international relations major at USC. His cousin is former Oregon defensive tackle Haloti Ngata (2002-05), now in the NFL.

(26) EMMANUEL MOODY
Tailback, 6-1, 195, Fr./Fr., Coppell, TX (Coppell HS)

2006: As just a first-year freshman in 2006, Gable had an impressive showing at tailback. He started 4 early-season games (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State, Washington) and was USC's rushing leader in its first 3 games. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 9 games (he sprained his left ankle against Oregon and sat out the California, Notre Dame and UCLA games), he had 459 yards (second on USC) on 78 carries (5.9 avg.) with 2 TDs and caught 3 passes for 39 yards (13.0 avg.). He had 5 runs and 1 reception of 20-plus yards. He made 2006 The Sporting News Freshman All-American honorable mention and was named the The Sporting News Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

In the opener at Arkansas, he rushed for a game-high 58 yards on 7 carries with a 9-yard TD. He then started versus Nebraska and ran for a game-best 70 yards on 9 carries. He ran for a game-high 130 yards on 21 carries as the starter at Arizona, with a 9-yard TD run and other runs of 40 and 30 yards (he also lost a yard on a reception) to earn Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week honors. He added 69 yards on 8 carries (including a 48-yard run) at Washington State, 67 yards on 15 rushes versus Washington, 29 yards on 6 carries against Arizona State, 8 yards on 3 carries at Oregon State, 26 yards on 9 rushes and 40 yards on 2 receptions at Stanford and he had a 2-yard carry before spraining his ankle against Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2005 Parade All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Southwest, Prep Star All-Midlands and All-District first team as a senior running back at Coppell (Tex.) (56) ALEX PARSONS
Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 260, Fr./Fr., Irvine, CA (Woodbridge HS)

2006: Parsons was a reserve freshman defensive tackle in 2006, his first year at USC. He appeared in all 12 games in 2006, primarily on special teams. He saw limited action at defensive tackle in 2 games (Arkansas, Oregon), but he did not make a tackle. He won USC's Service Team Defensive Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2005 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, CaliFlorida Bowl Defensive MVP, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VI first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Seaview League first team as a senior defensive lineman, linebacker, tight end and offensive lineman at Woodbridge High in Irvine (Calif.). He had 104 tackles, 18 tackles for loss and 4 sacks in 2005.

As a junior in 2004, he made All-Seaview League while posting 102 tackle, 7 sacks, 4 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions. He played 3 years on the varsity.

PERSONAL: His brother, B. Jay Parsons, was a defensive end at Kentucky (2004-05).

(17) TRAVON PATTERSON
Wide Receiver, 5-11, 180, Fr./Fr., Long Beach, CA (Poly HS)

2006: The speedy Patterson was a backup wide receiver as a freshman in 2006, his first year at USC. Overall while appearing in 11 games (all but UCLA), he had 3 receptions for 63 yards (21.0 avg.) and had a 1-yard run. He had 2 catches for 44 yards at Stanford and a 19-yard grab at Arkansas.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2005 honors included Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division I first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-Moore League first team as a senior wide receiver at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High. He had 1,097 all-purpose yards in 2005, caught 25 passes for 700 yards (28.0 avg.) with 15 TDs and averaged 38.0 yards on kickoff returns and 27.0 yards on punt returns.

As a junior in 2004, he had 26 receptions for 612 yards (23.5 avg.) with 3 TDs. Current Trojans Hershel Dennis, Vincent Joseph and Alfred Rowe also prepped at Long Beach Poly.

He also ran track at Poly, with bests of 10.44 in the 100 meters (winning the 2006 CIF Division I race; he also was third at the 2006 CIF Masters meet and fourth at the 2006 state meet) and 21.41 in the 200 (he was third in the 2006 CIF Division I meet and seventh in both the CIF Masters and state meets).

PERSONAL: His nickname is "Peanut." His cousin is current Trojan Stafon Johnson.

(6) ANTWINE PEREZ
Safety, 6-1, 190, Fr./Fr., Westville Grove, NJ (Woodrow Wilson HS)

2006: Perez, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2006, was a backup free safety as a first-year freshman in 2006. Overall in 2006 while seeing limited action in 7 games (Arkansas, Nebraska, Arizona, Washington, Arizona State, Stanford, Oregon), he made 3 tackles (1 each against Washington, Stanford and Oregon). He played primarily on special teams, but did come in at safety briefly in 3 games (Arkansas, Stanford, Oregon).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2005 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Northeast Defensive MVP, Prep Star All-Eastern, Gatorade New Jersey Player of the Year, All-State first team, Philadelphia Inquirer South Jersey Defensive MVP and All-Conference selection as a defensive back and quarterback at Woodrow Wilson High in Camden (N.J.). He had 82 tackles, 10 deflections, 7 interceptions, 4 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries in 2005, plus threw for 1,700 yards with 14 TDs and ran for 195 yards with 2 TDs.

As a junior in 2004, he recorded 58 tackles, 7 interceptions and 4 forced fumbles, and also passed for 1,763 yards with 15 scores and ran for another 10 TDs.

(36) JOSH PINKARD
Safety-Cornerback, 6-1, 215, Jr./Jr., Oxnard, CA (Hueneme HS)

2006: Pinkard started the 2006 opener at Arkanas at free safety as a junior, but he tore ligaments in his right knee late in that game, had surgery and was sidelined the rest of the year. He was allowed to redshirt because of the early-season injury. He had 6 tackles at Arkansas. He missed some of 2006 spring practice because of a sports hernia (he had surgery on it in April).

2005: Pinkard began his 2005 sophomore season as an often-used backup safety, available at both the free and strong safety spots. He played often in extra defensive back situations and even started the Arkansas game at strong safety. But he was moved to cornerback by mid-season and started there in USC's last 6 games (Washington State, Stanford, California, Fresno State, UCLA and Texas). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 54 tackles (third on team), including 1.5 for losses of 8 yards (with 0.5 sack for minus 4 yards), plus a team-best 7 deflections, 2 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery.

He had a team-high 10 tackles (1 for a loss) against Washington State in his first start at cornerback. He had 7 tackles and 4 deflections against Fresno State, another 7 tackles with a deflection against Texas, 6 stops and an interception (to set up a USC TD) versus Arkansas (while starting at safety), 5 tackles at Hawaii (with a forced fumble) and Arizona State, and 4 stops at Notre Dame (with a forced fumble) and Washington (in his first extended action at cornerback). His other interception came at Oregon (to set up a USC touchdown). He returned a fumbled interception 21 yards to set up a USC TD versus Stanford. He recovered a fumble against UCLA (to set up a USC touchdown).

2004: Pinkard was a reserve safety and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 9 tackles (including 2 against both Arizona State and Oklahoma), recovered a fumble (against Oklahoma, setting up a USC TD) and fielded a short kickoff (against California, returning it for 0 yards).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2003 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV and Los Angeles Times All-Ventura/North Coast pick as a senior defensive back and wide receiver at Hueneme High in Oxnard (Calif.). He had 123 tackles,

2 sacks and 4 interceptions on defense and 22 receptions for 200-plus yards with 5 TDs on offense.

As a junior in 2002, he had 90 tackles and 6 interceptions.

He also was on the basketball and track teams at Hueneme.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(37) RYAN POWDRELL
Fullback-Tailback, 6-0, 255, Sr.*/Sr., Rancho Santa Margarita, CA (Mission Viejo HS/Saddleback CC)

2006: Powdrell started USC's first 2 games of 2006 at fullback as a senior and was making an impact, but he suffered a dislocated and fractured right ankle against Nebraska and was sidelined the rest of the season. Up to that point, he had 9 yards on 3 carries (3.0 avg.) and 4 receptions for 72 yards (18.0 avg.) with a 1-yard TD in 2006. The rushing and receiving yards all came at Arkansas (he had a 44-yard catch where he juked several defenders). He was switched to fullback from linebacker prior to 2006 spring practice. Because of a shortage of tailbacks in 2006 spring drills, he even was used at that spot and emerged from spring practice as the starting tailback before the coaches moved him back to fullback in 2006 fall camp.

2005: Powdrell was a reserve linebacker (available in the middle or outside) and played on special teams as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (all but Hawaii and Arkansas), he made 10 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 5 yards, and also had a deflection. He had to sit out USC's first 2 games of 2005, per the NCAA, in order to get a redshirt year out of 2004 (when he played just briefly in the 2004 opener). He had 5 tackles against Stanford and 3 at Washington.

2004: Powdrell, a junior reserve linebacker who transferred to USC in the fall of 2004 from a junior college, saw brief action in the 2004 opener against Virginia Tech on special teams (he did not make a tackle). But he did not see any further action in 2004 and, after petitioning the NCAA, was allowed to redshirt if he sat out the first 2 games of 2005.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was named a 2003 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100, JC Athletic Bureau All-Region IV and All-Mission Conference National Division first team honoree as a sophomore linebacker and short-yardage fullback at Saddleback Community College in Mission Viejo (Calif.). He recorded 83 tackles, 3 interceptions and 5 forced fumbles in 2003.

As a freshman in 2002, he had 107 tackles and 4 interceptions. Current Trojan Mike Davis also attended Saddleback.

He originally signed with Fresno State, but did not qualify for admission.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High, where as a senior linebacker and fullback in 2001 he was a Super Prep All-Farwest, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-League MVP selection. He had 98 tackles, 5 sacks, 2 interceptions, 9 deflections and 1 fumble recovery on defense and ran for 494 yards and 8 TDs on offense in 2001. Mission Viejo was 14-0 and won the CIF Division II title in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he posted 87 tackles, 4 sacks and 1 interception. Current Trojans Drew Radovich and Mark Sanchez also prepped at Mission Viejo.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(66) CHILO RACHAL
Offensive Guard, 6-5, 300, So.*/Jr., Compton, CA (Dominguez HS)

2006: Rachal started 11 games at right offensive guard as a sophomore in 2006. He earned 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American second team and All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice and made the Rivals.com All-Pac-10 second team. He missed the Washington game after spraining his ankle at Washington State.

2005: Rachal appeared in all 13 games as a backup offensive guard and on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

2004: Rachal redshirted as a freshman offensive guard and tackle in 2004, his first year at USC. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage from his left knee prior to the Colorado State game, sidelining him for 3 contests (Colorado State, BYU and Stanford).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2003 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-Southeast/South Coast Lineman of the Year, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-Conference selection as a senior offensive lineman at Dominguez High in Compton (Calif.). He only played in 4 games in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass squad.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(60) DREW RADOVICH
Offensive Guard, 6-5, 305, Jr.*/Sr., Mission Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2006: Radovich started all of 2006 at left offensive guard as a junior and did a solid job. He missed some of 2006 spring drills while recuperating from 2005 hip surgery.

2005: Radovich appeared briefly in USC's first 3 games as a reserve offensive guard and on special teams as a sophomore in 2005. But he then suffered a hip strain that required surgery, which sidelined him for the rest of the season and allowed him to redshirt. He was switched from offensive tackle to guard in 2005 spring practice.

2004: Radovich was a backup at offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2004 (he also was available at offensive guard). He also played on special teams. He saw action in 10 games (all but Virginia Tech, Stanford and UCLA) in 2004. He suffered a sprained hip against Notre Dame, sidelining him for the UCLA contest.

2003: Radovich redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle and guard in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2002 honors included Parade All-American first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student

Sports All-American, Riddell Footwear All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Lineman MVP, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County first team as an offensive and defensive lineman at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division II first team and Orange County Register All-Orange County second team. Mission Viejo went 14-0 and won the CIF Division II championship in both 2001 and 2002. Current Trojans Ryan Powdrell and Mark Sanchez also prepped at Mission Viejo. His head coach at Mission Viejo was Bob Johnson, father of ex-USC and NFL quarterback Rob Johnson.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Mark, was a linebacker at Arizona State in 1974-75-76.

(22) DESMOND REED
Tailback, 5-9, 180, Jr.*/Sr., Temple City, CA (Temple City HS)

2006: Reed, an inspirational story after returning from a serious 2005 knee injury (although he still is bothered by subsequent nerve damage in his foot and must use a unique brace in order to run), served as a backup tailback and was a punt and kickoff returner as a junior in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 11 games (he missed the Oregon contest to attend a relative's funeral), he returned 16 punts for 95 yards (5.9 avg.) and 2 kickoffs for 42 yards (21.0 avg.), plus he gained 12 yards on 7 carries (1.7 avg.), caught 5 passes for 51 yards (10.2 avg.) and made a tackle. He won USC's Chris Carlisle Courage Award. He missed 2006 spring drills while recuperating from 2005 knee surgery.

In the opener at Arkansas, he had 7 yards on 4 ties and also had a 6-yard reception. He caught 2 passes for 13 yards, returned a punt 4 yards and had a tackle versus Nebraska. He returned 3 punts for 19 yards and lost 5 yards while sacked on an attempted reverse pass at Arizona. He had a punt return for no yards at Washington State and a 2-yard punt return versus Washington. He had 2 receptions for 32 yards, a 23-yard kickoff return and a 7-yard punt return against Arizona State. He had a 19-yard kickoff return, a punt return for no yards and a rush for a 1-yard loss at Oregon State. He returned 4 punts for 18 yards at Stanford. He had a 1-yard punt return against California. He had an 11-yard run and returned a pair of punts 44 yards (with a 43-yarder) against Notre Dame. He had a punt return for no yards at UCLA.

2005: Reed served as a backup tailback as a sophomore in 2005, played on special teams and also returned kickoffs for his second season. But he tore ligaments in his right knee at Notre Dame and had surgery, sidelining him for the rest of the 2005 season. Overall in 2005 while appearing in USC's first 6 games, he ran for 137 yards on 19 carries (7.2 avg.) with 1 TD, returned 5 kickoffs for 194 yards (38.8 avg.) and made 5 tackles, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery. He averaged 13.8 yards on his 24 touches in 2005 (he had 331 all-purpose yards).

He ran for 26 yards on 5 tries, including a 29-yard scoring cutback run, at Hawaii and also starred on special teams as he returned a fumbled Warrior kickoff 15 yards for a score, made a tackle on another kickoff and returned a kickoff 33 yards. He then rushed for 50 yards on 3 carries (including a 43-yarder) and returned 2 kickoffs for 101 yards (51 and 50 yards) against Arkansas. He ran for 32 yards on 4 carries, returned a kickoff 29 yards and had a tackle at Oregon, then had a 2-yard run, made a tackle and forced a fumble at Arizona State. He ran for 27 yards on 6 carries against Arizona (he also made a tackle) and returned a kickoff for 31 yards and had a tackle at Notre Dame.

2004: Reed, who spent 2003 working in the secondary and at wide receiver, was switched to tailback prior to 2004 spring practice and was a reserve there as a redshirt freshman in 2004. He also played on special teams. Some say he is a younger version of USC tailback Reggie Bush. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 173 yards on 31 carries (5.6 avg.) with a TD, returned 7 kickoffs for 150 yards (21.4 avg.), had a 16-yard punt return, caught 3 passes for 0 yards, completed a 55-yard pass and made 5 tackles (including 1 for a 12-yard loss). He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 second team (as a special teams player). He was USC's 2004 Special Teams Player of the Year.

He had 56 yards on 8 carries (the first of his career) against Colorado State. At BYU, he had 21 yards on 7 carries. He returned a kickoff 15 yards against California, plus he tackled the punter after a bad snap and forced a fumble. He had a 21-yard kickoff return, a carry for no yards and a tackle against Arizona State. He ran for a 28-yard TD (the first of his career) against Washington (he also caught a 2-yard pass and had a tackle), then ran for 27 yards on 9 tries and also had a 16-yard punt return and a 7-yard kickoff return at Washington State. He had a 32-yard kickoff return at Oregon State. Against Arizona, he rushed for 37 yards on 2 carries, caught a 1-yard pass, completed a 55-yard pass off a reverse and made a tackle. He returned 2 kickoffs for 26 yards, plus had a 2-yard run and a tackle, versus Notre Dame, then returned a kickoff 49 yards at UCLA. He ran for 2 yards on 2 carries against Oklahoma.

2003: Reed redshirted as a freshman in 2003, his first year at USC. He began the season playing safety and cornerback, but was moved to wide receiver in midseason.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Super Prep All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Defensive Back MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium School first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division X Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley MVP, Pasadena Star News Player of the Year choice as a senior at Temple City (Calif.) High. He had 80 tackles and 9 interceptions as a defensive back in 2002, while on offense as a running back and wide receiver he ran for 1,200 yards and caught 46 passes for 800 yards (17.4 avg.). He scored 29 touchdowns in 2002, including a California state record 8 while returning kicks (4 on kickoffs, 4 on punts). He set 6 school records in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division X first team (as a wide receiver) and Pasadena Star News Player of the Year. He had 62 tackles, 9 interceptions (3 for TDs) and 3 forced fumbles in 2001, and returned 3 punts and a kickoff for touchdowns.

As a sophomore in 2000, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team, All-CIF Division X (as a wide receiver) and All-Area (as a cornerback). He had 9 interceptions in 2000. In his career, he had 31 interceptions. He was a 4-year starter.

He also played basketball and baseball at Temple City. His head coach in football at Temple City was ex-USC fullback Mike Mooney (1990-92).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(55) KEITH RIVERS
Linebacker, 6-3, 230, Jr./Jr., Lake Mary, FL (Lake Mary HS)

2006: Rivers started for his second season at weakside linebacker as a junior in 2006 and proved to be a dominant force. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had a team-high 76 tackles, including 7.5 for losses of 22 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 9 yards), plus a team-best 3 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and 2 deflections. He made the 2006 Pro Football Weekly All-Americanhonorable mention, All-Pac-10 first team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team, Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 second team. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award.

He had a team-best 8 tackles, with a fumble recovery and forced fumble, at Arkansas to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors. He added 5 stops (with 1 for a loss) versus Nebraska, 3 tackles (with a sack) at Arizona and 5 tackles at Washington State. He had a game-best 12 tackles (1 for a loss), plus 2 deflections, against Washington and a team-best 8 tackles (1 for a loss) against Arizona State. He had 5 tackles (with a sack) at Oregon State, 5 more tackles and forced a fumble that USC recovered at Stanford and a game-best 10 tackles against Oregon. He made 6 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against California, 4 stops (1 for a loss) and forced a fumble that USC recovered versus Notre Dame and 5 tackles (1 for a loss) at UCLA.

2005: Rivers started at weakside linebacker job as a sophomore in 2005 and proved effective. Overall in 2005 while starting 11 games (he missed the Stanford game with a hamstring strain suffered prior to the Washington game and then the UCLA game after re-straining his hamstring against Fresno State), he had 52 tackles, including 3 for losses of 17 yards (with an 11-yard sack), plus had a team-best 2 fumble recoveries and returned an interception 14 yards. He saw limited action at Washington because of the hamstring strain, then re-strained it early in the Fresno State contest and was sidelined. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He had 3 tackles at Hawaii, 7 against Arkansas, 8 (with 2 for losses) at Oregon and 6 at Arizona State. He added a stop against Arizona, then a game-best 12 tackles (with a sack), plus an interception (to set up a USC TD) and fumble recovery, at Notre Dame. He made 1 tackle at Washington before sitting out with the sore hamstring and another tackle versus Washington State in restricted play before sitting out the Stanford contest. He returned to get 6 tackles with a fumble recovery at California, then had 2 tackles in limited action versus Fresno State. He made 5 tackles against Texas.

2004: Rivers saw significant playing time as a backup weakside linebacker behind Matt Grootegoed, as a defensive end in pass rushing situations and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 25 tackles, including 3 for losses of 23 yards (with 2.5 sacks for 22 yards), plus had a deflection and returned an interception 22 yards. He made the 2004 The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team. He had 5 tackles against Colorado State, 4 versus Washington (with the interception) and Oklahoma and 3 against Stanford and Arizona.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2003 honors included USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, EA Sports All-American, Insiders.com All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Dixie, Prep Star All-Southeast, FOX Sports Net All-South, Gatorade Florida Player of the Year and Florida Class 6A Mr. Football runnerup as a senior linebacker at Lake Mary (Fla.) High. He had 111 tackles, 14 tackles for loss, 2 sacks and 2 interceptions in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American and Florida Class 5A second team honoree as he posted 160 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 4 sacks and 2 interceptions.

He made All-State as a sophomore in 2001 when he had 100-plus tackles.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC. He was born in Riverside (Calif.) and lived in nearby San Bernardino for 8 years during his youth.

(39) ALFRED ROWE
Safety, 6-2, 210, Fr./Fr., Los Angeles, CA (Poly HS)

2006: Rowe redshirted as a freshman safety in 2006, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2005 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, All-CIF Division I, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-Moore League Co-Defensive MVP as a senior defensive back and linebacker at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High. He had 131 tackles, 4 sacks, 5 fumble recoveries and 1 interception in 2005.

As a junior in 2004, he recorded 72 tackles, 2 sacks, 3 fumble recoveries (1 for a TD) and 2 interceptions. Current Trojans Hershel Dennis, Vincent Joseph and Travon Patterson also prepped at Long Beach Poly.

(6) MARK SANCHEZ
Quarterback, 6-3, 225, Fr.*/So., Mission Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2006: Sanchez, who had an impressive showing in 2006 spring practice while John David Booty was sidelined with an injury, was USC's No. 2 quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing late in 5 games, he completed 3-of-7 passes (42.9%) for 63 yards. He also had 4 carries for minus 5 yards (-1.2 avg.) with a TD. He hit 1-of-2 passes for 19 yards at Arkansas, then he played the entire fourth quarter at Stanford and was 2-of-4 for 44 yards and also ran for a 4-yard TD. His only pass attempt against Oregon was intercepted. He also saw action against Arizona and Notre Dame, but did not throw a pass.

2005: Sanchez redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2005, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Offensive Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named 2004 Parade All-American Player of the Year, Super Prep All-American Player of the Year, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division II Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-Orange County and All-South Coast League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior quarterback at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He completed 151-of-245 (61.6%) passes for 2,441 yards with 24 TDs and 4 interceptions in 2004 despite sitting out 8 halves because Mission Viejo was winning handily. Mission Viejo was the CIF Division II champion in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division II, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League first team. He completed 161-of-211 passes (76.3%) for 2,460 yards with 29 TDs and 7 interceptions, plus he ran for 90 yards and caught a touchdown pass in 2003. In one game in 2003, he was 12-of-12 for 326 yards and 4 scores. Mission Viejo was 27-1 in his career.

He also played basketball and baseball at Mission Viejo. Current Trojans Ryan Powdrell and Drew Radovich also prepped at Mission Viejo. His coach at Mission Viejo was Bob Johnson, the father of former USC and NFL quarterback Rob Johnson.

He spent his freshman and sophomore years at Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita (Calif.), where his first varsity pass as a 2002 sophomore went 55 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

PERSONAL: He has a B average (3.20 GPA) at USC. His brothers—Nick (Yale in 1992-93-94) and Brandon (DePauw in 1997)—played football in college.

(42) DALLAS SARTZ
Linebacker, 6-5, 240, Sr.*/Sr., Granite Bay, CA (Granite Bay HS)

CAREER: USC is 31-2 in games Sartz has started in his career (the losses were at Oregon State and UCLA in 2006).

2006: The veteran Sartz started for his third season at strongside linebacker as a senior in 2006 and provided a steadying influence on the defense. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 66 tackles, including 8.5 for losses of 43 yards (with a team-high 6 sacks for minus 37 yards), plus 5 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble. He made 2006 All-Pac-10 honorable mention.

He had 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and forced a fumble at Arkansas, 4 tackles against Nebraska, 3 tackles and recovered a fumble that led to a USC touchdown at Arizona and 5 tackles and a deflection at Washington State. He added 6 stops against Washington, 3 against Arizona State, 8 (with 3 sacks) at Oregon State and 3 at Stanford. He had 9 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss (with a sack), and also recovered a fumble (to set up a USC TD) and had a deflection against Oregon. He had 4 tackles and a deflection against California, then a team-high 8 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), and a deflection against Notre Dame and a team-high 8 tackles (with a sack), plus a deflection, at UCLA.

2005: Sartz began his 2005 senior season starting for his third year at strongside linebacker. But he dislocated his left shoulder early in the Arkansas game and was sidelined the rest of the season, allowing him to redshirt. Overall in 2005 while starting USC's first 2 games, he had 8 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 6 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 5 yards). He had a game-best 7 tackles (including 2 sacks) at Hawaii and a tackle (0.5 for a loss) versus Arkansas.

2004: Sartz started all of his 2004 junior season at strongside outside linebacker and did an outstanding job. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 48 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 11 yards (with 1.5 sacks for 5 yards), plus 6 deflections and an 8-yard interception. He made 2004 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He had 10 tackles against California, 7 versus Arizona State, 5 at Washington State and Oregon State, 4 against Stanford and Notre Dame and 3 against Virginia Tech and Oklahoma. His interception against Colorado State set up a TD.

2003: Sartz was one of USC's most pleasant surprises in 2003. After beginning his 2003 sophomore season as a backup strongside linebacker and safety (he saw action at both spots), as well as a special teams player, he emerged as the starting strongside linebacker for the last 6 games for an injured Matt Grootegoed. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 60 tackles, including 6 for losses of 29 yards (with 2 sacks for 17 yards), plus had 4 deflections and a blocked punt. He had 10 tackles versus Oregon State (with a sack and a blocked punt), 9 tackles against UCLA (a game high) and Washington State, 7 against Stanford (a team best), Notre Dame and Michigan in the Rose Bowl (including 2 for losses, with a sack, plus a deflection), 6 at Washington and 3 against Hawaii (while playing safety).

2002: Sartz was a backup strongside linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 12 games (all but Arizona State), he had 8 tackles, including 1 for a 5-yard loss, plus a pass deflection and an interception (which he returned 22 yards against Oregon State). He had 3 tackles at Stanford.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2001 honors included Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and Sacramento Bee All-Sacramento first team as a senior defensive back and tight end at Granite Bay (Calif.) High. He had 103 tackles, including 4 for losses, 2 interceptions, 7 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries, 3 forced fumbles and 6 blocked kicks in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he made 81 tackles, including 4 sacks, plus 6 interceptions and 4 forced fumbles. He was also a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete.

He also was on Granite Bay's track (with bests of 11.1 in the 100 meters, 14.47 in the 110-meter high hurdles, 39.7 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles and 20-plus in the long jump, while also competing in the high jump, shot put and 400 meters) and basketball (earning All-League honors) teams.

(54) JEFF SCHWEIGER
Defensive End, 6-4, 255, Jr./Jr., San Jose, CA (Valley Christian HS)

2006: Schweiger was a backup defensive end as a junior in 2006. Overall while appearing briefly in 5 games (Arkansas, Washington State, Arizona State, Stanford, Oregon) in 2006, he made 2 tackles (both against Oregon).

2005: After missing USC's first 4 games of 2005 while recovering from a fractured right foot suffered in 2005 fall camp, Schweiger saw significant action as a backup defensive end as a sophomore. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 8 games (all but Hawaii, Arkanas, Oregon, Arizona State and UCLA), he made 11 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 2 yards. He had 2 stops each against Arizona, Notre Dame, Stanford and California.

2004: Schweiger backed up Frostee Rucker at defensive end as a first-year freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 12 games, he made 18 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 32 yards (with 2 sacks for 27 yards), plus 1 deflection and 1 forced fumble. He had 4 tackles against Colorado State (2.5 for losses of 21 yards, with a sack that caused a fumble, which USC recovered for a TD), and 3 stops against Virginia Tech (including an 11-yard sack on his second play as a Trojan) and Washington (with a deflection). He missed the California game after spraining his left knee at Stanford.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2003 USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American first team, Prep Star All-American, Insiders.com All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest Defensive MVP, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, and Orange County Register Fab 15 first team as a senior defensive lineman and tight end at Valley Christian High in San Jose (Calif.). He had 140 tackles, 37 tackles for loss, 18 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 4 fumble recoveries (with a TD) and 15 deflections in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team and San Francisco Chronicle All-Metro first team as he posted 138 tackles, 23 tackles for loss and 13 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's a social science pyschology major at USC.

He had a game-best 5 receptions for 67 yards at Arkansas, then had 6 catches for 53 yards with a 3-yard scoring grab against Nebraska and a 9-yard reception at Arizona. He was named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week as he caught 11 passes for 186 yards (then both career highs), including a pair of second-half touchdowns (7 and 11 yards), at Washington State, stepping up for Dwayne Jarrett, who missed the game with a shoulder injury (10 of his catches were for first downs, including 2 on third downs and another pair on fourth downs). He caught 5 passes for 96 yards against Washington, including a 20-yard TD off a fake field goal attempt. He caught a 12-yard pass before sitting out the second half with a sore foot against Arizona State. He equaled his career high with 11 receptions at Oregon State for a career-best 258 yards (2 shy of the USC game record, the eighth best showing in Pac-10 history and setting Oregon State opponent and stadium records) and a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns (37 and 2 yards). He had 2 grabs for 17 yards, including a 7-yard TD, at Stanford, then grabbed a game-best 7 catches for 88 yards against Oregon. He had a game-high 6 catches for 88 yards (with a 37-yard TD) against California and added 3 catches for 35 yards versus Notre Dame and 6 catches for 66 yards at UCLA.

2005: Smith started for his second season at wide receiver in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 8 times (Hawaii, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Washington, Washington State, UCLA and Texas), he had 60 receptions (second on USC) for 957 yards (15.9 avg.) with 5 TDs and he also had 2 carries for 11 yards (5.5 avg.). His 60 catches in 2005 was 12th on USC's season list. He had 3 100-yard receiving games in 2005. He made 2005 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He was 1 of 15 semifinalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award.

He had 7 catches for a game-high 185 yards at Hawaii, with a 67-yard TD grab. He had 4 catches for a game-best 129 yards against Arkansas, his third consecutive 100-yard outing (extending back to 2004). He added 6 catches for 93 yards at Oregon, and 3 grabs for 33 yards (and an 8-yard run) at Arizona State. He had 7 receptions for a game-topping 135 yards against Arizona, then 4 catches for 90 yards at Notre Dame. He opened USC's scoring at Washington with an 8-yard TD grab on 5 catches for 25 yards. He had 15- and 24-yard TD grabs among his 3 receptions for 53 yards versus Washington State. He added 3 receptions for 79 yards against Stanford and 5 grabs for 36 yards at California. He had a game-best 7 catches for 42 yards (with a 6-yard TD) against Fresno State. He caught 3 passes for 28 yards and had a 3-yard rush against UCLA. He had 3 receptions for 29 yards against Texas.

2004: Smith started 7 games (the first 5 contests, then the UCLA and Oklahoma games) at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2004. He broke his left leg against California and missed the next 5 games. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 8 games, he had 42 receptions (third on USC) for 660 yards (15.7 avg.) with 6 TDs. He also lost 1 yard on a reverse and had a tackle in 2004. He had 4 catches for 68 yards against Virginia Tech, a career-high 8 catches for 79 yards (with a 5-yard TD) against Colorado State, a team-high 6 catches for 62 yards at BYU, then 7 catches for 153 yards (with a 2-yard TD) at Stanford and 2 receptions for 76 yards against California before breaking his leg. He returned for the Notre Dame game, but did not catch a pass, then he had 4 catches for 37 yards at UCLA (plus a tackle and forced fumble which USC recovered after an interception). Against Oklahoma, he caught an Orange Bowl and USC record-tying 3 TDs (5, 33 and 4 yards, with the 33-yarder caught with just one arm while being held by an OU defender) among his game-best 7 catches for 113 yards to earn a place on Sports Illustrated's and CBS Sportsline.com's All-Bowl Teams.

2003: Smith was USC's often-used No. 3 wide receiver as a first-year freshman in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 12 games (all but Hawaii), he had 17 catches for 319 yards (18.8 avg.) with 2 TDs, plus he had an 8-yard run (on a backwards pass against Hawaii). He had his first career 100-yard receiving game when he caught 5 passes for 136 yards with a 73-yard TD (USC's longest play from scrimmage in 2003) against Oregon State. He also had 4 receptions for 27 yards against UCLA and 2 for catches against both Washington State (for 60 yards, including a 55-yard catch-and-run for a TD) and Arizona (for 54 yards).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Parade All-American (and top wide receiver), USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Tom Lemming All-American, The Insiders.com All-American second team, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team (unanimous), Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Wide Receiver MVP, All-L.A. City Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Fernando Valley first team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team honors as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.). In 2002, he caught 86 passes for 1,362 yards (15.8 avg.) with 11 TDs on offense and had 48 tackles, 5 interceptions and 13 deflections on defense (he did all this despite missing 2 games with an ankle sprain). Taft advanced to the L.A. City final for the second consecutive year in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he was a Student Sports All-West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Wide Receiver MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-L.A. (69) MATT SPANOS
Offensive Guard-Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 305, Jr.*/Sr., Corona, CA (Corona HS)

2006: Spanos, who has played every position on the offensive line in his career, sat out his 2006 junior season while academically ineligible (he might be eligible to play in the Rose Bowl). He was switched to offensive guard from center prior to 2006 spring practice and performed well enough to compete for the starting job on the left side (he also can play tackle).

2005: Spanos, who was moved to center from offensive tackle in 2005 spring practice, saw brief action in all 13 games as a backup and on special teams as a sophomore in 2005.

2004: Spanos was a reserve offensive tackle and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2004. He appeared in 9 games in 2004. He sprained his left arch prior to the Colorado State game and missed the next 4 contests (Colorado State, BYU, Stanford and California).

2003: Spanos redshirted as a freshman offensive guard in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2002 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division V first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County first team and All-Mountain View League first team (on offense and defense) as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Corona (Calif.) High. He had 77 tackles (52 solo), with 13 sacks, and 6 forced fumbles on defense in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County second team and All-League. He had 60-plus tackles, including 18 for losses (with 3 sacks), in 2001.

He was a 3-year starter.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(99) AVERELL SPICER
Defensive Tackle, 6-2, 295, Fr.*/So., Rancho Cucamonga, CA (Rancho Cucamonga HS)

2006: Spicer was a reserve nose tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2006. Overall while appearing briefly in 7 games (Arkansas, Nebraska, Washington State, Arizona State, Oregon State, Stanford, Oregon) in 2006, he made 3 tackles, including 2 for losses of 5 yards (with a 1-yard sack), and deflected a pass. He had 2 tackles at Stanford (with 1 for a loss of 4 yards) and he had the sack against Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2004 honors were Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, USA Today All-USA second team, Scout.com All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Cal-Hi Sports All-State third team as a senior defensive lineman and running back at Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.) High. He had 82 tackles, 14 sacks, 5 forced fumbles and 5 deflections in 2004 despite missing 2 games with a cracked rib.

As a junior in 2003, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and All-Valley first team while posting 71 tackles, 29 tackles for loss, 14 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. In his career as a 4-year starter, he had 280 tackles and 37 sacks.

He also was on Rancho Cucamonga's track team, with best of 11.2 in the 100 meters, 61-8 in the shot put and 170-0 in the discus throw. Current Trojan Terrell Thomas also prepped at Rancho Cucamonga.

PERSONAL: He grew up in Florida before moving to California when he was in middle school.

Linebacker, 6-1, 225, Fr./Fr., San Pablo, CA (McClymonds HS)

2006: Tatum redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2006, his first year at USC, while recuperating from a high school knee injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2005 Prep Star Dream Team, ESPN 150, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 pick as a senior linebacker and running back at McClymonds High in Oakland (Calif.). He had 82 tackles and 6 sacks in 2005 despite missing the last half of the season with a torn knee ligament.

As a junior in 2004 at St. Mary's High in Berkeley (Calif.), he had 45 tackles and 4 sacks in his first 3 games, but was sidelined the rest of the season with a shoulder injury.

He was an All-League Defensive MVP as a 2003 sophomore when he recorded 135 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 10 sacks, 8 forced fumbles and 5 interceptions.

(15) KEVIN THOMAS
Cornerback, 6-1, 180, So./So., Oxnard, CA (Rio Mesa HS)

2006: Thomas was set to be a key contributor at cornerback in 2006 as a sophomore, but injuries limited his availability (he could play in the Rose Bowl). He started the opener at Arkansas but sprained his right ankle in that game, which caused him to miss the next 2 games (Nebraska and Arizona). He returned for USC's next 3 games (even starting against Arizona State) but broke his left foot against Arizona State and was sidelined the rest of the regular season. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 4 games, he had 10 tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection. He had a tackle and an interception at Arkansas, then added 2 tackles and a deflection at Washington State, 3 tackles against Washington and 4 tackles versus Arizona State.

2005: Thomas saw action as a backup cornerback and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 9 games (all but Hawaii, Oregon, Arizona State and Arizona), he made 7 tackles and 2 deflections. He missed the Oregon, Arizona State and Arizona games because of mononucleosis. He had 3 tackles at Washington and 2 versus Washington State.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2004 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division IV, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura/North Coast Back of the Year and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team honors as a senior defensive back and wide receiver at Rio Mesa High in Oxnard (Calif.). He had 81 tackles and 5 interceptions (1 for a TD) on defense, caught 27 passes for 430 yards (15.9 avg.) with 5 TDs on offense and returned a kickoff for a score in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made All-County and All-League first team while recording 68 tackles, 3 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery, plus getting 21 catches for 481 yards (22.9 avg.) with 1 TD.

He also ran track at Rio Mesa, with best of 10.84 in the 100 meters and 22.0 in the 200 meters.

(28) TERRELL THOMAS
Cornerback, 6-1, 200, Jr.*/Sr., Alta Loma, CA (Rancho Cucamonga HS)

2006: Thomas, who began the 2005 season as a starting cornerback before being sidelined by a knee injury, won back his starting spot as a junior in 2006 and did an outstanding job. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 46 tackles, including 2 sacks for minus 24 yards, plus a team-high 12 deflections, 2 interceptions that he returned 7 yards (3.5 avg.), 2 forced fumbles and a TD on a return of a blocked field goal. He made the 2006 All-Pac-10 second team, Rivals.com All-Pac-10 second team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 second team.

He had 2 tackles and an interception at Arkansas and 4 tackles and a forced fumble against Nebraska. He then had a team-high 6 tackles (1 sack) at Arizona and a team-best 9 tackles with 2 deflections at Washington State. He added a tackle and 4 deflections against Washington, a tackle and deflection versus Arizona Stat and 3 stops and a deflection at Oregon State. He had a sack, an interception and returned a blocked field goal 71 yards for a TD at Stanford. He had 6 tackles and a deflection against both Oregon and California. He had 4 stops and 2 deflections against Notre Dame and 3 tackles at UCLA.

2005: Thomas started USC's first 2 games of 2005 at cornerback as a sophomore. But he tore ligaments in his right knee against Arkansas and had surgery, sidelining him for the season. Overall in 2005, he had 5 tackles and 1 deflection. He had 3 tackles at Hawaii and 2 stops with a deflection versus Arkansas.

2004: Thomas, who was switched from safety to cornerback prior to 2004 spring practice, was a backup there and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in 11 games (all but California and Arizona), he had 9 tackles, 2 deflections and 2 interceptions (at BYU and Washington State, both in the end zone; he returned the BYU pick 29 yards). He had 3 stops against Arizona State.

2003: Thomas redshirted as a freshman safety in 2003, his first year at USC. He was sidelined the entire season after having surgery to repair a dislocating right shoulder suffered in 2003 fall practice.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division II first team and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team choice as a senior at Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.) High. He ran for 1,250 yards on 134 carries (9.3 avg.) with 14 TDs and caught 30 passes with 5 TDs as a running back and had 115 tackles, 7 interceptions and 4 forced fumbles as a defensive back (he also averaged 44.5 yards on kickoff returns) in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he had 78 tackles and 5 interceptions, plus 15 catches for 250 yards (16.7 avg.) with 6 TDs.

He also was on the school's track team (with bests of 10.5 in the 100 meters and 21.4 in the 200). Current Trojan Averell Spicer also prepped at Rancho Cucamonga.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC.

(89) DALE THOMPSON
Tight End, 6-4, 255, Jr./Jr., Corona, CA (Santiago HS)

2006: Thompson was a key backup tight end as a junior in 2006. He even started 3 times (Stanford, Oregon, California). Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 3 catches for 19 yards (6.3 avg.). His catches came against Arizona (6 yards), California (8 yards) and UCLA (5 yards).

2005: Thompson was a backup tight end and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games (all but Washington, Washington State and Texas), he caught 1 pass for 5 yards (5.0 avg.) and made 1 tackle. He even started the Hawaii opener. His catch came against UCLA. He suffered a broken thumb against Arizona State, but he continued to play in games while wearing a cast.

2004: Thompson was a reserve tight end and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2004. He appeared in 12 games (all but Virginia Tech). He did not catch a pass, but made 1 tackle (at Washington State).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2003 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division V, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County and All-Mountain View League first team honors as a senior tight end at Santiago High in Corona (Calif.). He had 40 receptions for 700 yards (17.5 avg.) with 10 TDs, plus 200 rushing yards with 2 TDs, in 2003.

As a junior in 2002, he made the All-Mountain View League first team. He began the 2002 season at tight end, then broke his right hand and missed the next 2 games before returning as an offensive tackle for the next 5 contests (he was moved back to tight end for the season finale when the cast on his hand was removed). He made 6 catches for 125 yards (20.9 avg.) with 3 TDs in 2002.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(95) TRAVIS TOFI
Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 265, Sr.*/Sr., Aoa, American Samoa (Fagaitua HS)

2006: Tofi missed the first 8 games of 2006 after suffering a stress fracture in his left foot in 2006 fall camp, then returned to appear as a backup nose tackle for USC's final 4 games (Oregon, California, Notre Dame, UCLA) as senior in 2006. He made 2 tackles in 2006 (both at UCLA). He missed some of 2006 spring practice with a stress fracture in his right foot.

2005: Tofi was an often-used backup defensive tackle as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 16 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 7 yards (with 1.5 sacks for 4 yards), plus had a deflection and forced fumble. He had 3 tackles at Washington and 2 each against Arkansas, Stanford and California.

2004: Tofi was a reserve defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2004. He appeared in 5 games (Virginia Tech, BYU, Arizona State, Notre Dame and Oklahoma) in 2004, getting 2 tackles. He sprained his knee prior to the Colorado State game, forcing him out of that contest, and then re-sprained it at BYU, which sidelined him for the Stanford game. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage from his right knee prior to the Washington State game, forcing him to miss 3 games (Washington State, Oregon State and Arizona).

2003: Tofi was a backup nose tackle behind Mike Patterson as a redshirt freshman in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 6 games (Hawaii, Stanford, Washington, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State), he made 3 tackles (all versus Hawaii), including a sack for 21 yards (which was a safety against Hawaii), plus he had 2 deflections.

2002: Tofi redshirted as a freshman defensive end in 2002, his first year at USC. He was USC's Defensive Service Team Player of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2-time (2000-01) All-Star (winning Defensive Line MVP in 2001) as a senior defensive end at Fagaitua (American Samoa) High. He had 49 tackles and 9 sacks in 2001. He also won a Samoa International Sports Award in 2001, which recognizes the achievements of Samoan athletes.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His real first name is Tupula. His cousin, Suaese "Pooch" Taase, played football at Louisiana Tech.

2006: Vanderboom missed USC's first 6 games after spraining his left foot in 2006 fall camp, then returned and served as a backup tight end as a senior in 2006. He appeared briefly in 4 games (Oregon State, Stanford, Oregon, Notre Dame) in 2006, but did not catch a pass. He won USC's Howard Jones/Football Alumni Club Award.

2005: Vanderboom was a reserve tight end and played on special teams as a junior in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 12 games (he missed the Hawaii opener after spraining his left ankle in 2005 fall camp), he made 1 catch for 6 yards (versus Stanford).

2004: He earned a scholarship in the fall of 2004 and served as a reserve tight end. He also played on special teams. He appeared in 7 games in 2004, but did not catch a pass. He sprained his right knee at Stanford and had surgery to remove torn cartilage, sidelining him for the next 6 games.

2003: He appeared in 8 games (all but California, Arizona State, Washington, Washington State and Michigan) as a walk-on redshirt freshman tight end and special teams player in 2003, but did not catch a pass or make a tackle. He was switched to tight end from quarterback in 2003 spring drills.

2002: He redshirted as a walk-on freshman quarterback in 2002, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at The Breck School in Minneapolis (Minn.).

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in business administration at USC in the spring of 2006 and is now working on his master's degree in real estate development. He has a B+ average (3.60 GPA). He made 2005 and 2004 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention.

(23) CHAUNCEY WASHINGTON
Tailback, 6-0, 220, Jr.*/Sr., Torrance, CA (South Torrance HS)

2006: Washington, a hard-charing tailback, was USC's rushing leader as a junior in 2006 after missing the previous 2 seasons because of ineligibility. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games, he ran for 736 yards on 155 carries (4.7 avg.) with 9 TDs, caught 9 passes for 93 yards (10.3 avg.) and had a tackle. He led USC in rushing in 6 games. He did this despite being nagged early in the 2006 season with a hamstring injury. He started 4 mid-season games in 2006 (Arizona State, Oregon State, Stanford, Oregon) when finally healthy, but a knee sprain bothered him since then. He sat out 2006 spring practice while academically ineligible.

He had 55 yards on 8 tries at Arkansas, 52 yards on 12 carries and scored his first career TD (a 7-yarder) versus Nebraska and 33 yards on 10 tries and a 4-yard catch at Arizona. He had a game-high 71 yards on 18 carries, with a 3-yard TD, at Washington State, then a team-high 81 yards on 17 carries and caught 2 passes for 17 yards versus Washington. Against Arizona State, he had a game-best 108 yards on 22 carries, both career bests, with the game-winning 2-yard scoring run with 4:29 to play (he had 64 yards on 10 carries on the decisive 74-yard scoring drive) and added a 29-yard reception in his first career start. He led USC with 81 yards on 18 carries, with a 2-yard TD run and a 2-point conversion run, and also added 3 catches for 32 yards at Oregon State. He ran for a game-best 74 yards on 12 carries (with a 15-yard TD run on fourth down) at Stanford. He ran for 3 touchdowns (5, 3 and a career-long 43 yards) and gained a career-high 119 yards on 15 carries (a 7.9 average per carry) against Oregon (he also caught a 7-yard pass). He then had 29 yards on 12 carries against California, added 24 yards on 6 rushes against Notre Dame and had 9 yards on 5 carries at UCLA.

2005: Washington was sidelined for his second consecutive year while academically ineligible as a sophomore in 2005. He had an impressive showing in 2005 spring practice.

2004: Washington redshirted the 2004 season while academically ineligible. He missed 2004 spring practice while recovering from an ankle injury.

2003: Washington was a backup tailback and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in 7 games (all but California, Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA, Oregon State and Michigan), he ran for 65 yards on 19 carries (3.4 avg.), caught a 6-yard pass and made 3 tackles. He sprained his right ankle against Hawaii and missed USC's next 2 games, then reinjured the ankle against Washington State and missed the last 4 contests (a stress fracture also was discovered in the ankle).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2002 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Pioneer League Co-MVP honors as a senior running back at South Torrance (Calif.) High. He ran for 1,549 yards on 140 carries (11.1 avg.) with 23 TDs and caught 13 passes for 200 yards (15.4 avg.) with 2 TDs in 2002 despite missing 5 games with a knee injury.

As a junior in 2001, he was named to the All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Ocean League first team. He gained 1,975 yards on 225 carries (8.8 avg.) with 26 TDs, plus had 22 catches for 273 yards (12.4 avg.) with 2 TDs and returned 10 kickoffs for 324 yards (32.4 avg.) in 2001.

As a sophomore in 2000, he made the All-Ocean League first team as he rushed for 1,548 yards on 179 carries (8.6 avg.).

He also competed for South Torrance's soccer and track (with a best of 10.5 in the 100 meters) teams.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

(81) GERALD WASHINGTON
Tight End, 6-6, 255, Jr./Jr., Vallejo, CA (Vallejo HS/Chaffey JC)

2006: Washington, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2006 after transferring from a junior college, redshirted as a junior tight end in 2006. He suffered a bruised knee prior to the Arizona game and was sidelined the rest of the season. He entered USC as a tight end, was switched to defensive end early in 2006 fall camp, then was moved back to right end early in the season.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was named to the 2005 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region II first team and All-Foothill Conference first team squads as a sophomore tight end at Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.). He caught 23 passes with 2 TDs in 2005.

As a freshman in 2004, he had 15 receptions with 1 TD.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Vallejo (Calif.) High, where he played football just as a senior (his only catch was a 21-yard touchdown).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. Before he entered junior college in 2004, he spent the previous 4 years in the U.S. Navy as a helicopter mechanic. As a youth, he played tennis and competed in juniors tournaments.

(78) KYLE WILLIAMS
Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 300, Sr.*/Sr., Dallas, TX (Highland Park HS)

2006: Williams started all of 2006 at right offensive tackle as a senior and performed solidly.

2005: Williams served as a key backup offensive tackle and played on special teams as a junior in 2005. He appeared in 12 games in 2005 (all but Arizona State). He was used often in extra offensive linemen formations near the goal line.

2004: Williams was an often-used backup at right offensive tackle and also played on special teams as a sophomore in 2004. He appeared in 12 games (all but BYU) in 2004.

2003: Williams was a backup offensive right guard and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2003. He appeared in 12 games in 2003 (all but BYU), all on the PAT/field goal protection team. He also saw brief action on the offensive line in 7 of those games (Hawaii, Arizona State, Stanford, Notre Dame, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State). He was switched from offensive tackle to guard in 2003 spring drills.

2002: Williams redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2002, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Southwest, Prep Star All-Midlands Region, Student Sports All-Southwest first team, All-State, Dave Campbell Football Magazine Texas 4-1 Player of the Year finalist, Old Spice Lone Star All-Star team, All-Area and All-District as a senior offensive lineman at Highland Park High in Dallas (Tex.). He had 126 pancake blocks, didn't allow a sack and posted a blocking grade of 89% in 2001.

As a junior in 2000, he had 60 pancake blocks. He was a 3-year starter and also saw action at tight end. Current Trojan Ben Malcolmson also prepped at Highland Park.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. He and his fiancée, former USC All-American swimmer Jana Krohn, have a newborn daughter, Kylie. He lived in California until his sophomore year in high school. His father, Scott, played college basketball. An uncle, Eric Williams, was a defensive lineman with the Detroit Lions (1984-89) and Washington Redskins (1990-93, including on the 1991 Super Bowl champs) after earning 1983 All-Pac-10 first team honors in his 3 years (1981-83) at Washington State. His grandfather, Roy Williams, played for the Detroit Lions and San Francisco 49ers. Another uncle played professional basketball in Europe, while his other grandfather played 3 sports at Lehigh in the 1960s.

(41) THOMAS WILLIAMS
Fullback-Linebacker, 6-3, 240, Jr.*/Sr., Vacaville, CA (Vacaville HS)

2006: Williams, who started most of 2005 at linebacker, began his 2006 junior season as USC's utility linebacker, but was moved to fullback in midseason of 2006. He also was a key special teams performer. He made his first appearance at fullback blocking on Chauncey Washington's game-winning 2-yard touchdown run late in the Arizona State game. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 12 games (he started the Stanford and UCLA games at fullback), he did not carry the ball or catch a pass, but he did make 18 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 12 yards (with an 11-yard sack), and had an interception that he returned 12 yards and forced a fumble. He had 4 tackles against Nebraska (with the sack), Arizona State and Oregon State. He had 2 stops and the interception at Arkansas. He missed some of 2006 spring drills while recuperating from a 2005 knee injury. He also had surgery for an abdominal strain prior to 2006 spring practice.

2005: Williams played a key role for USC at linebacker as a sophomore in 2005. After serving as the backup on the strong side for USC's first 2 games, he took over the starting job there for the next 6 contests (Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame, Washington and Washington State), then switched to the starting inside job for the Stanford and California games. But he sprained his left kneecap at California and was sidelined for USC's last 3 games (Fresno State, UCLA and Texas). Overall in 2005 while appearing in 10 games and starting 8 times (all but Hawaii, Arkansas, Fresno State, UCLA and Texas), he had 29 tackles, including 4 for losses of 12 yards (with a 3-yard sack), plus 3 deflections, a forced fumble and an interception that he returned 10 yards.

He had 3 tackles at Hawaii and a tackle for a loss and a deflection against Arkansas. He then made 4 tackles at Oregon in his first start. He added 2 stops (with 1 for a loss) at Arizona State, 2 tackles against Arizona, 8 stops (with a sack) and a deflection at Notre Dame and 2 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington. He had 5 tackles, an interception to set up a USC field goal and a forced fumble against Stanford in his first start at middle linebacker. He added 2 stops at Calfiornia before spraining his kneecap.

2004: Williams backed up Dallas Sartz at strongside linebacker and also played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 14 tackles, including 2 for losses of 8 yards (with a 7-yard sack at Washington State). He had 3 stops against Notre Dame. He won USC's 2004 John McKay Award.

2003: Williams redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 2003, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and Sacramento Bee All-Sacramento first team selection as a senior fullback and linebacker at Vacaville (Calif.) High. He had 125 tackles, with 12 sacks, plus 2 interceptions, 6 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries in 2002.

As a junior in 2001, he posted 85 tackles, with 8 sacks, plus 3 interceptions, 4 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries on defense, and had 378 rushing yards with 4 TDs (and 1 receiving TD) on offense.

He played safety as a sophomore in 2000.

He also played baseball (hitting .430) at Vacaville.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

PETE CARROLL
USC HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Energetic and charismatic sixth-year USC head football coach Pete Carroll quickly restored the glory of the Trojan football program and has returned Troy to national prominence.

He is 64-12 (84.2%) in 6 years (2001-2006) as a college head coach (all at USC), the best winning percentage of any current Division I coach with at least 5 years of experience. He got to 50 career USC wins faster than any head coach in Trojan history. His losses have been by a total of 51 points (4.3 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 62-7 (89.9%) with a pair of national championships (2003-04). He is 42-7 in Pac-10 games, giving him an 85.7% winning mark (a league record). He is 20-0 in November. His teams have won 55 of their last 59 games and been ranked in the AP Top 10 for the past 56 games. His teams have won an unprecedented 5 consecutive Pac-10 titles and appeared in a record 5 consecutive BCS bowls (including a pair of BCS Championship Games). USC's 13 (2004), 25 (2003-04 and 2004-05) and 37 (2003-05) wins represent the winningest periods in Trojan history. Troy's 10 wins in each of the past 5 seasons is a school record.

Under Carroll, USC is riding winning streaks in a Pac-10 record 33 consecutive home games, a Pac-10 record 23 consecutive league home games, 20 November games, 10 September games, 10 non-conference home games and 6 non-conference road games (not including 3 neutral site contests). His USC teams also had a number of since-broken other winning streaks: a Pac-10-record 34 overall games, a Pac-10-record 27 Pac-10 games, a school-record 18 road games (not including 4 neutral site contests), 18 October games, 16 non-conference games, 16 games against AP Top 25 teams and a school-record 13 Pac-10 road games. His Trojans also set a no-longer-active NCAA record by scoring at least 20 points in 63 consecutive games. USC was AP's No. 1 team for a national-record 33 straight polls (including 2 pre-season polls).

Also under Carroll, USC is the first school to have 3 Heisman Trophy winners in a 4-year span. Carroll has produced 24 All-American first teamers and 27 NFL draft picks (including 7 first rounders, with a No. 1 selection in Carson Palmer and a No. 2 in Reggie Bush). His last 4 recruiting classes have been ranked in the Top 5 nationally (including first each year by some experts). He also served as USC's defensive coordinator in his first 5 seasons at Troy.

In 2006 in what was considered a rebuilding year after losing a pair of Heisman winners and 11 NFL draftees from 2005, USC went 10-2 and shared the Pac-10 title at 7-2 to capture an unprecedented fifth straight league crown. Troy did this despite starting just 4 seniors, playing 15 first-year freshmen and facing what was the nation's second toughest schedule according to the Sagarin rating. The Trojans won a berth into the Rose Bowl and came within a regular season-ending 4-point loss at UCLA to advancing to a third consecutive BCS Championship Game. USC was ranked in the AP Top 10 all season and beat rival Notre Dame for the fifth year in a row. The Trojans were in the national Top 25 statistically in scoring and passing offense, as well as rushing, pass efficiency, total and scoring defense. USC broke its Pac-10 record home average attendance record for the fourth consecutive year and its Pac-10 record home total attendance record for the second straight season, plus it set the school record for the third straight year for home sellouts (6), regular season sellouts (10) and season sellouts (11). Five Trojans—wide receivers Dwayne Jarrett and Steve Smith, offensive tackle Sam Baker, center Ryan Kalil and defensive tackle Sedrick Ellis—were All-American first teamers (Jarrett and Baker for the second year in a row). Carroll was named the 2006 Pac-10 Coach of the Year (for the third time) and was 1 of 15 semifinalists for the 2006 George Munger Coach of the Year Award.

In 2005, his Trojans held AP's No. 1 ranking for the entire regular season. USC went 12-1 overall (while facing 6 AP Top 25 teams) to advance to the BCS Championship Game in the Rose Bowl, where it barely fell to Texas, and 8-0 in the Pac-10 to win its fourth straight league title. The Trojans played the nation's ninth most difficult schedule, according to the NCAA. USC swept rivals Notre Dame and UCLA for an unprecedented fourth season in a row. Troy's offense was in the national Top 6 in every offensive category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans won games by an average of 26.2 points. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season. And USC was second nationally in turnover margin (+1.6). For the third consecutive year, USC set Pac-10 records for total home attendance and home attendance average and school marks for overall attendance and overall attendance average. The Trojans also set school standards for the second straight year for home sellouts (4), regular season sellouts (9) and season sellouts (10). For the second consecutive year, a school-record 6 Trojans were All-American first teamers, including Heisman Trophy-winning tailback Reggie Bush. Carroll was the 2005 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team Coach of the Year and was named by The Sporting News as the top coach in the nation. He received the United States Sports Academy Amos Alonzo Stagg Coaching Award. He was the 2005 Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year, as well as the American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year. He was 1 of 5 finalists for the 2005 Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award, 1 of 6 finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and 1 of 12 semifinalists for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award.

In 2004, he guided No. 1-ranked USC to its second consecutive national championship with a convincing win over Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. USC became only the second team ever to hold its AP pre-season No. 1 ranking all the way through a season. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. His team was 13-0 (a school record for wins) and went 8-0 in the Pac-10. He also led the Trojans to their third consecutive Pac-10 title and their third straight season sweep of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (a first at Troy). Troy was in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average was USC's lowest in 15 years), including first in rushing defense (for the second year in a row) and turnover margin and third in scoring defense. USC outscored opponents by 25.2 points (including a school-record 8 games with a margin of at least 30 points). USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts, all school marks. And Troy set a USC and Pac-10 record for home attendance average, as well as school records for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance. A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu) were named All-American first teamers. Carroll was the 2004 National Quarterback Club College Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2004 Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award, the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the ESPY Best Coach of the Year Award and a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award. He was the 2004 ESPN.com Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

The 2003 season–his third at Troy–was one of the best in USC history. The Trojans won the AP national championship (USC's first national crown since 1978) and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll but weren't allowed to keep the top spot after winning that bowl because of a contractual agreement which required the coaches to vote the Sugar Bowl winner as their poll's champion (USC ended up second). USC was 12-1 overall (the only loss was by 3 points at California in triple overtime) and, at 7-1 in the Pac-10. Troy won its second consecutive league title for the first time since 1988-89 (and its first outright crown since 1989). His Trojans won their last 9 games and posted back-to-back seasons of double digit wins for the first time since 1978 and 1979. For just the second time in history (the other time also was 1978 and 1979), USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years. His 2003 squad featured a potent offense, a stingy defense and productive special teams. USC had a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-point games (also a school mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. The defense led the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns. And the Trojans topped the nation in net punting. Five Trojans–wide receiver Mike Williams, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, punter Tom Malone and quarterback Matt Leinart–were first team All-Americans (Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting).

For all this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year (USC's first honoree since Larry Smith in 1988), a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year, 1 of 6 semifinalists for the Eddie Robinson/Football Writers Association of America Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year. In early 2004, he received the Chuck Benedict Founders Award (for special achievement) from the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association, the Orange County Youth Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year Award, the Spirit of Los Angeles Award from the Los Angeles Headquarters Association and the Vincent T. Lombardi Hall of Fame Award from the Boy Scouts of America San Gabriel Valley Council.

In 2002, just his second season at USC, his Trojans thrived despite playing what was ranked by the NCAA, Sagarin and the BCS as the nation's most difficult schedule (facing 9 AP-ranked teams and 11 bowl squads). USC—which beat Iowa in the Orange Bowl—posted an 11-2 overall record and a No. 4 ranking in the final polls, and won the Pac-10 championship while going 7-1. The Trojans also won their last 9 home games. It was USC's first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking since 1988. Troy won its final 8 games (scoring at least 30 points in each), including blowouts of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (the first time USC beat both in the same season since 1981 and the first time in back-to-back games since 1978). USC led the Pac-10 in total offense (449.3) and total defense (284.9), as well as scoring offense (35.8) and scoring defense (18.5), and was in the NCAA's Top 25 in nearly every team statistical category on both sides of the ball. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Carson Palmer and safety Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans. Carroll was 1 of 8 finalists for the 2002 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award and was 1 of 4 runners-up for the 2002 American Football Monthly Schutt Sports Division I-A Coach of the Year Award.

Carroll brought big doses of experience, enthusiasm and leadership in his quest to revive the USC football program when he was named the Trojans' head football coach on Dec. 15, 2000 (he signed a 5-year contract). After USC started off his opening 2001 season slowly at 1-4, Carroll stayed the course and got his troops to rally by winning 5 of their last 7 games (including the final 4 regular season contests) to finish at 6-6 overall. USC, which won its last 5 Pac-10 games after beginning league play at 0-3, placed fifth in the conference at 5-3 and earned a berth into the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Putting an exclamation point on the regular season was a 27-0 blanking of No. 20 UCLA, USC's first shutout in the crosstown rivalry since 1947 and the series' biggest margin of victory since 1979.

The 55-year-old Carroll has 31 years of NFL and college experience, including 15 on the college level.

He was the head coach of the NFL's New England Patriots for 3 seasons (1997-99) and New York Jets for 1 year (1994). He guided the Patriots into the playoffs in his first 2 seasons, winning the AFC Eastern Division title at 10-6 in 1997 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs, then posting a 9-7 regular season mark in 1998. His overall record in New England was 27-21 in the regular season (including 8-8 in 1999) and 1-2 in the playoffs. He owns the franchise's second-best winning percentage (54.9%).

After serving as the Jets' defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (1990-93), he became the team's head coach the following season. His 1994 Jets went 6-10. Only 3 other Jets head coaches won more games in their rookie campaign.

He spent the next 2 years (1995-96) as the defensive coordinator with the San Francisco 49ers, who won the NFC Western Division title both seasons. The 49ers were 11-5 in the 1995 regular season when they had the NFL's top-ranked defense and then went 12-4 in 1996.

Carroll began his coaching career at the college level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for 3 years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977) under Lou Holtz as the Razorbacks won the 1978 Orange Bowl, and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) under Earle Bruce (the Cyclones played in the 1978 Hall of Fame Bowl) and at Ohio State (1979) under Bruce. That Buckeye squad lost to USC in the 1980 Rose Bowl. He next spent 3 seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, then returned to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

He entered the NFL in 1984 as the defensive backs coach of the Buffalo Bills, then held a similar position with the Minnesota Vikings for 5 seasons (1985-89). The Vikings advanced to the playoffs his last 3 years there, getting to the NFC Championship game in 1987. The 1988 team was 11-5 in the regular season and the 1989 squad won the NFC Central Division crown with a 10-6 mark. His secondary averaged 25 interceptions a season and led the NFL in passing defense in 1989.

Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column about pro football for CNNSI.com.

Carroll was a 2-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

After he graduated from Pacific, he spent a year trying out for the World Football League and selling roofing materials in the Bay Area.

He was a 3-sport (football, basketball and baseball) standout at Redwood High in Larkspur, Calif., earning the school's Athlete of the Year award as a senior. He played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. He then played football at Marin Junior College in Kentfield, Calif., in 1970 (he also was on the team in 1969, but did not letter).

He was born on Sept. 15, 1951 in San Francisco. He and his wife, Glena, who played volleyball at Pacific, have 3 children: sons Brennan, 27, who played tight end at Pittsburgh (he previously played at Delaware) and is now an assistant at USC, and Nate, 18, a freshman at USC, and daughter Jaime, 23, who played on the Women of Troy's highly-ranked volleyball team which competed in the 2000 NCAA Final Four.

In 2003, he helped develop "A Better L.A.," a non-profit group consisting of a consortium of local agencies and organizations working to reduce gang violence by empowering change in individuals and communities. He received the Courageous Leadership Award from Women Against Gun Violence in 2005, as well as being named a Cedars-Sinai Sports Spectacular Honoree.

USC ASSISTANT COACHES

BRENNAN CARROLL
Tight Ends

Brennan Carroll, the oldest son of USC head coach Pete Carroll, is in his fifth year on the USC staff, including his third as a full-time assistant. He is in charge of the tight ends.

Tight end Dominique Byrd was a third round NFL draft pick following the 2005 season.

He joined the USC staff in August of 2002 as a graduate assistant. He spent 2002 working with the offense and special teams, then handled the tight ends in 2003.

USC played in the 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl. In 2003 and 2004, the Trojans won national championships.

Carroll, 27, was a reserve tight end and key special teams player at Pittsburgh the previous 3 years (1999-2001). He caught 3 passes for 25 yards (8.3 average) as a 2000 junior, including 1 for a touchdown (a 3-yarder versus Boston College). He added a 12-yard reception as a senior in 2001. The Panthers played in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl. He redshirted the 1998 season.

He spent his 1997 freshman season at Delaware, but did not see action as a reserve tight end.

He prepped at Saratoga (Calif.) High, where he starred as a linebacker in football and also played basketball.

He earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Pittsburgh in 2001.

Born March 20, 1979, he is single.

His father, Pete, has been USC's head coach since 2001 and has 32 years coaching experience in college and the NFL (he was the head coach of the New England Patriots and New York Jets). His mother, Glena, played volleyball at Pacific. His sister, Jaime, was on the USC women's volleyball team in 2000 and 2001 (the 2000 Women of Troy advanced to the NCAA Final Four). His brother, Nate, is a freshman at USC. His late grandfather, Dean Goranson, received his master's degree from USC.

NICK HOLT
Defensive Coordinator
Defensive Line

Nick Holt, who was the head coach at Idaho the past 2 seasons and previously was an assistant at USC, returned to the Trojan program in February of 2006 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Defensive tackle Sedrick Ellis was an All-Pac-10 first teamer in 2006. USC was 12th nationally in scoring defense (14.9), 17th in rushing defense (97.7), 20th in pass efficiency defense (107.9) and 23rd in total defense (293.8). USC played in the 2007 Rose Bowl.

Holt spent the previous 2 seasons (2004-05) as the head coach at Idaho, going 5-18. The Vandals were 3-9 in 2004 and 2-9 in 2005.

He originally joined the Trojan staff in January of 2001 and spent 3 seasons (2001-03) as the linebackers coach. In 2002, linebacker Matt Grootegoed was an All-Pac-10 first teamer. USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl (USC won the national championship that year) and 2004 Rose Bowl.

He was the defensive line coach at Louisville for the previous 3 seasons (1998-2000). In 2000, the Cardinals were fourth nationally in rushing defense (79.9), set a school record for sacks with 50 (second in the nation) and were second nationally in turnovers with 38. Louisville appeared in a bowl game each season (the 1998 Motor City Bowl, 1999 Humanitarian Bowl and 2000 Liberty Bowl).

Holt, 44, came to Louisville after 8 seasons (1990-97) at Idaho. He was in charge of the defensive line for the first 5 years and then was the linebackers coach the final 3 seasons. He also served as the defensive coordinator for the last 4 of those seasons. His 1994 unit topped Division I-AA in run defense (and was fifth in 1995).

He began his coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at St. Mary's High in Stockton (Calif.). He then was a graduate assistant at UNLV in 1987 before becoming the Rebels' linebackers coach the following 2 seasons (1988-89).

He lettered 4 years (1981, 83-85) at linebacker for Pacific. He was an All-American honorable mention selection in 1985, when he also earned All-AP West Coast and All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association notice. He was Pacific's MVP in 1985 and a team captain as a junior and senior.

He earned his bachelor's degree in political economics from Pacific in 1986.

He played football and baseball at Bellarmine Prep in San Jose, Calif.

He was born Oct. 15, 1962. He and his wife, Julie (who was the head women's basketball at Nevada Reno, Pacific, Gonzaga, Idaho and Los Angeles Harbor Junior College), have 2 sons, Nick, 13, and Ben, 9.

His maternal grandfather was Clarence "Buster" Crabbe, USC's first All-American swimmer (1931) who was a 1931 NCAA freestyle titlist and 1932 Olympic gold medalist (he won a bronze in 1928) before starring in Hollywood as Tarzan, Flash Gordon and Buck Rogers.

LANE KIFFIN
Offensive Coordinator
Wide Receivers
Recruiting Coordinator

Lane Kiffin, the son of longtime pro and collegiate coach Monte Kiffin, is in his sixth year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2001 and spent the 2001 season handling the tight ends. He became the wide receivers coach in 2002. In 2004, he took on the additional duty of passing game coordinator. In 2005, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator, in addition to continuing as the wide receivers coach.

In 2006, wide receiver Dwayne Jarrett was named an All-American first teamer for the second consecutive year (USC's first-ever 2-time All-American first team pick), while wide receiver Steve Smith also was an All-American first teamer (the first time ever that USC had a pair of All-American first team wide receivers in the same season). Jarrett became the Pac-10 career leader in touchdown catches (39). USC ranked 17th nationally in passing offense (253.3) and 20th in scoring offense (30.3).

In 2005, he was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com. Jarrett was an All-American first teamer and Biletnikoff Award finalist. Troy's offense was in the national Top 6 in every offensive category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans, who scored 50 points a school-record 7 times, won games by an average of 26.2 points. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

In 2004, Jarrett was named a Freshman All-American first teamer. The Trojans won their second consecutive national championship.

Wide receiver Mike Williams was a consensus All-American first teamer and a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2003 (he finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and was a first round pick in the 2005 NFL draft) as he set the USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the USC career reception record (207) and was a NFL second round pick. Troy won its first national championship since 1978.

In 2002, Williams was a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year as he and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers. Also in 2002, wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader and was a sixth round NFL draft pick.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Kiffin, 31, was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary).

He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs.

He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96).

He earned his bachelor's degree in leisure service management from Fresno State in 1998.

He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was born May 9, 1975. His wife's name is Layla. They have 2 daughters, Landry, 1, and newborn Presley.

His father, Monte, is the defensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The elder Kiffin, a longtime NFL and collegiate assistant coach who served as North Carolina State's head coach in the early 1980s, has a long history with Pete Carroll (Carroll was an assistant on Kiffin's Wolfpack staff from 1980 to 1982, and they served as assistants together with Arkansas in 1977, the Buffalo Bills in 1984, the Minnesota Vikings from 1986 to 1989 and the New York Jets in 1990).

TODD McNAIR
Running Backs
Special Teams Coordinator

Former NFL player Todd McNair, a one-time NFL running back and assistant coach, is in his third year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2004. He also took on the additional duty of special teams coordinator beginning in 2005.

In 2005, tailback Reggie Bush won the Heisman Trophy and Doak Walker Award, was a unanimous All-American, was the Player of the Year by AP, Walter Camp and the Touchdown Club of Columbus and was the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year. Bush joined fellow tailback LenDale White as the first pair of USC runners to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing in a season. Bush was the second pick of the 2006 NFL draft and White was a second rounder, while fullback David Kirtman was a fifth round choice. USC was sixth nationally in rushing offense (260.0) in 2005 and averaged a national-best 6.4 yards per carry. He was named the nation's third-best recruiter by Rivals.com in 2005.

In 2004, Bush finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was an All-American and was the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year. The Trojans won the national championship.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2001-03) coaching the running backs for the Cleveland Browns.

McNair, 41, began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator at Camden (N.J.) High in 1998 and 1999, then handled similar duties at Schalick High in Pittsgrove, N.J., in 2000.

He was a running back and special teams standout for 8 seasons in the NFL, first with the Kansas City Chiefs for 5 years (1989-93), followed by 2 seasons (1994-95) with the Houston Oilers and then back with the Chiefs in 1996. In his career, he ran for 803 yards with 3 touchdowns, caught 252 passes with 7 scores and averaged 18.6 yards on kickoff returns. He retired as the Chiefs' No. 10 all-time receiver.

He lettered 4 years (1985-88) as a running back at Temple, where he was a 1987 All-American honorable mention selection. He ended up third on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,383 yards and 16 TDs. As a junior in 1987, he ran for 1,058 yards with 6 scores.

He prepped at Pennsauken (N.J.) High. Among his prep teammates were future NFL players John and Keith Taylor and David and Billy Griggs (the Griggs were his cousins).

He was born on Aug. 16, 1965. He and his wife, Lynnette, have 3 daughters: Logan, 13, Daryn, 8, and Thai, 3.

KEN NORTON JR.
Linebackers

Ken Norton Jr., one of the premier linebackers in NFL and collegiate history, is in his third year on the USC staff, including his second as a full-time assistant working with the linebackers (he was promoted in February of 2005). He spent his first year at USC as a graduate assistant (helping with the linebackers) after joining the Trojan staff in February of 2004.

In 2006, linebackers Keith Rivers and Rey Maualuga made the All-Pac-10 first team.

In 2005, Maualuga was a Freshman All-American first teamer.

In 2004, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu were named All-American first teamers (Grootegoed also was a Butkus Award finalist and Tatupu was a NFL second round pick). The Trojans won the national championship.

USC played in the 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Norton Jr., 40, spent 13 years playing in the NFL, first with the Dallas Cowboys for 6 seasons (1988-93) and then 7 years with the San Francisco 49ers (1994-2000). The All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection is the only player in history to play on 3 consecutive Super Bowl-winning teams (the Cowboys in 1992 and 1993 and the 49ers in 1994).

After retiring from the NFL, he was a radio and television commentator and analyst, including on the NFL Network.

He also served as the defensive coordinator at Hamilton High in Los Angeles in 2003.

He was the Cowboys' second round NFL draft pick in 1988 after earning All-American honors at UCLA in 1987. He lettered 4 seasons (1984-87) with the Bruins and was a finalist for the 1987 Butkus Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from UCLA in 1998.

He prepped at Westchester (Calif.) High.

Born Sept. 29, 1966, he and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: daughters Brittney, 20, and Sabrina, 12, and son Ken III, 10. His father, Ken Sr., is the former world heavyweight boxing champion and played football at Northeast Missouri State.

PAT RUEL
Offensive Line

Pat Ruel, who has 33 years of college and NFL coaching experience, is in his second year at USC. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 2005 and works with the offensive line.

In 2006, offense tackle Sam Baker was named an All-American first teamer for the second consecutive year, while center Ryan Kalil—a Rimington Award finalist—made the All-Pac-10 first team for the second year in a row.

In 2005, Baker and offensive guard Taitusi Lutui were All-American first teamers and Kalil was on the All-Pac-10 first team. Lutui and offensive tackle Winston Justice were a second round picks in the 2006 NFL draft, while offensive guard Fred Matua was a seventh rounder.

USC played in the 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Ruel, 56, spent the 2004 season as an offensive line assistant with the New York Giants.

He worked on the college level for the first 26 years of his career before moving to the NFL for the next 5 years. His coaching career began in 1973 as a graduate assistant at Miami, his alma mater. He was promoted to a fulltime assistant handling the offensive line for the Hurricanes for the following 3 years (1974-76).

He next was the assistant offensive line coach at Arkansas in 1977 (USC head coach Pete Carroll was a member of that Razorbacks' staff and the team played in the 1978 Orange Bowl).

He then spent 4 years (1978-81) at Washington State, the first 2 seasons as the offensive line coach before adding offensive coordinator duties for his final two seasons. The 1981 Cougars played in the Holiday Bowl.

He was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas A&M for the next 3 years (1982-84), then had similar duties (along with being the assistant head coach) at Northern Illinois for 3 seasons (1985-87).

He spent the next 9 years (1988-96) at Kansas, the first 3 as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, then adding assistant head coach to his title the final 6 years. The Jayhawks played in the 1992 and 1995 Aloha Bowls.

After spending 1997 in private business, he then was at Michigan State for 2 years (1998-99), the first year as the offensive line coach and then adding assistant head coach duties in the second season. The Spartans played in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl.

He moved to the NFL in 2000 as the offensive line coach with the Detroit Lions, then spent the next 2 seasons (2001-02) as the assistant offensive line coach for the Green Bay Packers. The Packers were in the NFC playoffs both seasons. He was the offensive line coach with the Buffalo Bills in 2003 before going to the Giants.

He lettered at offensive guard for Miami in 1971 and 1972. He received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Miami in 1972.

He prepped at Coral Gables (Fla.) High, where he starred in football.

He was born on Dec. 5, 1950. He and his wife, Marti, have a daughter, Sabra, 19, currently a student at USC. His full name is Golden Pat Ruel.

STEVE SARKISIAN
Assistant Head Coach
Quarterbacks

Steve Sarkisian, who is in his fourth stop at USC as an assistant coach or athlete, returned to the Trojan staff in Feburary of 2005 as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach.

In 2006, quarterback John David Booty made the All-Pac-10 first team as he led the league in passing efficiency and total offense.

In 2005, quarterback Matt Leinart won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien, Maxwell and Walter Camp Awards and was an All-American first teamer. He set 16 USC records (11 were Pac-10 marks and 2 was an NCAA record). He was the 10th pick of the 2006 NFL draft. USC's 4,157 passing yards in 2005 was a school record and the Trojans were fifth nationally in passing (319.8).

Sarkisian spent the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. His quarterbacks passed for more than 4,000 yards in 2004 as Oakland ranked eighth in passing in the NFL.

Sarkisian, 32, originally joined the USC staff as an offensive assistant in January of 2001. Then, after joining San Diego State briefly as the quarterbacks coach in January of 2002, he returned to USC in March of 2002 to handle the quarterbacks fulltime for 2 seasons (2002-03).

In 2003, quarterback Matt Leinart was an All-American first teamer and was the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (he finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting) while setting Pac-10 season records for TD passes (35) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating of any USC quarterback (163.2). USC won its first national championship since 1978.

In 2002, quarterback Carson Palmer won the Heisman and Unitas Award en route to setting the Pac-10 career records for passing yards and total offense (he was the No. 1 pick in the 2003 NFL draft), plus he was an All-American first teamer.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Sarkisian spent the 2000 season as the quarterbacks coach at El Camino Junior College in Torrance (Calif.). His quarterback, Robert Hodge, earned All-American honors. El Camino played in the CHIPs For Kids Bowl.

Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. He was with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for 3 seasons (1997-99). He started in 1999 and threw 16 touchdowns.

He had a record-setting 2-year (1995-96) career at BYU, where he was coached by former USC assistant Norm Chow. He completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6%) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating is third on the all-time NCAA list. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the seventh best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996, won All-American second team honors and played in the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl. As a 1995 junior, he made the All-WAC team and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2%).

He came to BYU from El Camino Junior College, where he starred for 2 seasons (1993-94). He was a J.C. All-American first teamer as a 1994 sophomore and won All-Mission Conference honors in 1993 as a freshman. He also played baseball (shortstop) at El Camino in 1993.

He actually began his college career at USC, spending the fall of 1992 on the Trojan baseball team before transferring to El Camino.

He was a standout football and baseball player at West Torrance (Calif.) High.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from El Camino in 1994.

He was born March 8, 1974. He and his wife, Stephanie, have a 4-year-old daughter, Ashley, and a son, Brady, 2.

ROCKY SETO
Secondary

Former USC linebacker Rocky Seto is in his eighth year on the USC staff, including his fourth as a full-time assistant. He took over handling of the secondary in 2006 after being in charge of the linebackers in 2004 and 2005 and the safeties in 2003.

In 2006, safety Taylor Mays was a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-10 Co-Freshman of the Year.

In 2005, linebacker Rey Maualuga was a Freshman All-American first teamer. Safety Darnell Bing was a fourth round pick in the 2006 NFL draft.

In 2004, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu were named All-American first teamers (Grootegoed also was a Butkus Award finalist and Tatupu was a NFL second round pick). The Trojans won their second consecutive national championship.

In 2003, Bing was a Freshman All-American first teamer. Troy won its first national championship since 1978.

He spent the previous 2 years (2001-02) as a Trojan graduate assistant, the first year working with the defense in general and then handling the safeties in 2002 (where he worked with All-American first teamer and NFL first rounder Troy Polamalu).

He spent the 2000 season as an administrative graduate assistant with the USC program. In 1999, he was a volunteer assistant, working with the defense and special teams.

2006 USC GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 2, Fayetteville, Arkansas
USC 50, Arkansas 14
Att: 76,564

USC	3	13	14	20	—	50
Arkansas	0	7	0	7	—	14

No. 6 USC used impressive debuts by QB John David Booty and some young tailbacks, plus an aggressive defense that came up with 5 turnovers and effective special teams play, to get its "life after the Heismans" off to an impressive start with a dominating season-opening 50-14 victory at Arkansas in front of a stadium-record capacity crowd of 76,564 and a national ESPN audience.

It was the most points scored on the Razorbacks in Fayetteville since 1919. It also was USC's 16th consecutive road win, extending a school record, and its ninth straight victory in a season opener.

Booty, in his first start as the successor to 2004 Heisman winner Matt Leinart, completed 68.6% of his passes (24-of-35) for 261 yards and 3 second-half touchdowns with no interceptions (by comparison, Leinart was 17-of-30 for 192 yards and a TD in his first start). Three freshman tailbacks—C.J. Gable, Emmanuel Moody and Allen Bradford—each rushed for a TD in their first games in a Trojan uniform as they took over for 2005 Heisman winner Reggie Bush and his running mate, LenDale White. The USC defense turned those 5 turnovers into 31 points. And PKs Mario Danelo (3 field goals) and Troy Van Blarcom (8 touchbacks) were weapons.

USC compiled 472 total yards and 27 first downs on 80 plays while holding the ball for 35:19. Arkansas managed just 287 total yards and 16 first downs while converting just 2-of-10 third downs.

After LB Keith Rivers recovered a fumble on Arkansas' third play of the game, USC drove to a 35-yard Danelo field goal. Then, early in the second quarter, CB Kevin Thomas recovered another fumble by TB Felix Jones to set up Gable's 3-yard TD run. Only a 1-yard scoring run by Razorback QB Robert Johnson interrupted 2 more Danelo field goals, the first from 38 yards and the second a career-long 44-yarder at the halftime gun to give Troy a 16-7 lead.

That last field goal by Danelo (his 14th in a row) started a 31-point scoring run for the Trojans. Booty threw touchdown passes to WR Patrick Turner (14 yards following an interception by CB Terrell Thomas early in the second half), TE Fred Davis (9 yards) and, early in the fourth quarter, FB Ryan Powdrell (1 yard). After CB Cary Harris' interception, USC scored again on Moody's 9-yard scamper. Arkansas backup QB Mitch Mustain then ran for a 4-yard TD, but he was picked off on his next series by LB Thomas Williams, which led to a 1-yard scoring run by Bradford.

Moody rushed for a game-high 58 yards on 7 carries, TB Chauncey Washington added 55 yards on 8 tries and Gable—who became the first USC true freshman to start an opener at tailback—had 51 yards on 12 attempts. Davis (59 yards) and WRs Steve Smith (67 yards) and Dwayne Jarrett (35 yards) each had 5 receptions, while Powdrell added 4 for 72 yards.

Rivers led Troy with 8 tackles to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors, while CB Josh Pinkard and LB Rey Maualuga each had 6 stops.

For Arkansas, Johnson was 12-of-25 for 110 yards, Jones had 48 yards on 7 carries and TB Darren McFadded added 42 yards on 9 attempts. WRs Damian Williams (61 yards) and Marcus Monk (44 yards) each caught 4 passes.

It was USC's first visit to Arkansas since 1974 and its first-ever to Fayetteville.

Nebraska	3	0	0	7	—	10
USC	7	7	7	7	—	28

WR Dwayne Jarrett caught a pair of touchdown passes to become USC's career TD reception leader, QB John David Booty had 3 scoring throws and the Trojan defense allowed just 211 total yards as No. 4 USC beat No. 19 Nebraska, 28-10, before a soldout Coliseum crowd of 92,000 and a national ABC-TV audience.

USC extended its Pac-10 record home winning streak to 28 games, while NU had its 5-game winning streak snapped.

Jarrett caught TDs of 12 yards at the end of the first quarter and 5 yards early in the second half, giving him 31 career touchdown grabs to break Mike Williams's mark of 30. He was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week.

After Nebraska PK Jordan Congdon hit a 38-yard field goal late in the first quarter, USC scored the next 21 points as Jarrett's TDs sandwiched a 3-yard Booty scoring pass to WR Steve Smith late in the first half. The Cornhuskers' only other score came on a 1-yard run by QB Zac Taylor early in the fourth quarter, but USC countered with a 7-yard TD run by TB Chauncey Washington.

Nebraska entered the game averaging 541.0 total yards, 256.5 rushing yards and 52.5 points. NU's 211 total yards were the fewest allowed by USC since Washington State had 156 in 2004. The Cornhuskers managed just 68 rushing yards (averaging 1.9 yards per carry), 10 first downs (the fewest allowed by USC since Washington had 6 in 2004) and 53 plays. The Trojans had 399 total yards and 26 first downs.

Jarrett caught a career high-equalling 11 passes for 136 yards (his 10th career 100-yard outing), Booty was 25-of-36 for 257 yards and Smith added 6 receptions for 53 yards. TB Emmanuel Moody ran for a game-best 70 yards on 9 carries as the starter, making it the first time in USC history that a true freshman has started at tailback in consecutive games. Washington added 52 yards on 12 tries. LB Rey Maualuga led the USC defense with a game-high 11 tackles.

For Nebraska, IB Kenny Wilson had 46 yards on 19 rushes, Taylor was 8-of-16 for 115 yards and IB Brandon Jackson caught 4 passes for 36 yards.

It was the first meeting between the 2 traditional football powers since 1970. The Coliseum was sold out for an unprecedented fifth consecutive game. ESPN's College GameDay pre-game show was there.

GAME 3 – September 23, Tucson, Arizona
USC 20, Arizona 3
Att: 58,801

USC	0	3	7	10	—	20
Arizona	0	0	0	3	—	3

Behind a suffocating defense, No. 3 USC earned a hard-fought 20-3 victory at Arizona before a sellout crowd of 58,801 fans and a regional ABC-TV audience.

The win kept alive USC's streaks of consecutive Pac-10 victories (24), road wins (17) and Pac-10 road wins (12), and barely kept intact Troy's NCAA record of 55 straight 20-point games (it was USC's fewest points scored in 52 games).

The Trojan defense limited the Wildcats to just 154 yards, including minus 16 rushing (the third fewest in USC history and the least since Washington State had minus 25 in 2003). Arizona, which never penetrated the USC red zone, managed just 8 first downs on 44 plays (the least plays against USC since Pittsburgh had 34 in 1974) while holding the ball only 21:13 and converting just 2-of-12 third downs.

USC led just 3-0 at halftime behind a 35-yard field goal by PK Mario Danelo midway through the second quarter. It followed DE Lawrence Jackson's block of a field goal attempt by Arizona PK Nick Folk. The Wildcats had just 52 total yards (minus 7 rushing) and 3 first downs in the first half (converting none of their 6 third downs).

The Trojans then scored on the opening series of the second half by driving 80 yards as QB John David Booty hit WR Dwayne Jarrett with a 3-yard TD pass. It was Jarrett's 32nd career TD catch, tying him with Stanford's Ken Margerum (1977-80) for the Pac-10 record.

Arizona got on the board early in the fourth quarter on a 43-yard Folk field goal. But the Trojans responded on their next possession with Danelo's 33-yard field goal. USC sealed the victory when LB Dallas Sartz recovered a fumbled Wildcat punt return and TB Emmanuel Moody scored the following play on a 9-yard run.

Moody ran for a game-high 130 yards on 21 carries, including dashes of 40 and 30 yards, and was named Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week. He and FB Stanley Havili became the first USC true freshmen tailback/fullback combo to start a game together. Booty hit 24-of-39 passes for 179 yards (his second quarter interception was his first of the year after 78 attempts). TE Fred Davis led USC with 5 receptions for 38 yards, while Jarrett (36 yards) and Havili (24 yards) each added 4 catches.

USC had 381 yards of total offense (256 in the second half) and 22 first downs while converting 12-of-18 third downs.

The Trojan defense posted 5 sacks. CB Terrell Thomas had 6 tackles, while CB Cary Harris had 5 tackles, as did LB Rey Maualuga (including 1 for a loss; he also had an interception).

For Arizona, QB Willie Tuitama was 14-of-23 for 170 yards, while WR Mike Thomas caught a game-best 7 passes for 78 yards.

It was the ninth straight capacity crowd, home or away, for a USC game.

GAME 4 – September 30, Pullman, Washington
USC 28, Washington State 22
Att: 35,117

USC	7	7	7	7	—	28
Washington State	3	9	0	10	—	22

WR Steve Smith caught 11 passes for 186 yards, both career highs, and had a pair of second-half touchdowns to help No. 3 USC survive on a warm afternoon at Washington State, 28-22, before a sold-out crowd of 35,117 and a national TBS cable audience.

USC extended its win streaks for Pac-10 games (25), road games (18) and Pac-10 road games (13), as well as its NCAA record of 20-point games (56). It also was USC's 10th consecutive sellout, home and away.

The Trojans, who were playing without All-American WR Dwayne Jarrett (he stayed home with a shoulder injury), needed 3 touchdown passes from QB John David Booty, a pair of long second-half drives and then an interception by S Taylor Mays near the goal line on the game's final play to prevail after the Cougars had advanced to the USC 39-yard line.

USC led just 14-12 at halftime as WSU ran 16 more plays (43-27) and had 7 more first downs (14-7). After Cougar PK Loren Langley hit a 35-yard field goal midway through the first quarter, USC took just 2 plays to gain the lead on WR Chris McFoy's first career touchdown catch, a 7-yarder from Booty. WSU then turned a fumble recovery into another 35-yard Langley field goal early in the second quarter, but USC answered again on an 80-yard drive that culminated with a 3-yard TD run by TB Chauncey Washington. However, the Cougars scored late in the half on QB Alex Brink's 4-yard scoring pass to WR Jason Hill (the 2-point conversion pass failed).

After the intermission, USC put together a 99-yard drive late in the third quarter, with Smith grabbing a 7-yard TD strike from Booty. But WSU responded with Langley's third field goal, a 20-yarder after the Cougars couldn't get into the end zone on 3 tries from the 3-yard line. The Trojans then went on a 17-play, 83-yard drive to seemingly put the game out of reach as Smith caught an 11-yard Booty TD pass with 5:52 to go. But WSU took less than 2 minutes to go 80 yards, with Brink hitting RB Dwight Tardy on a 10-yard scoring pass to pull the Cougars within 6 points.

Booty was 23-of-32 for 269 yards, Washington had a game-best 71 yards on 18 carries and TB Emmanuel Moody added 69 yards on 8 attempts. Smith was named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week. LB Rey Maualuga and CB Terrell Thomas topped USC with 9 tackles apiece as the Trojans limited the Cougars to field goals on 3 of their trips inside the red zone.

For WSU, Brink was 26-of-46 for 287 yards, Tardy rushed for 62 yards on 11 tries, WR Michael Bumpus caught 11 passes for 112 yards and Hill added 7 receptions for 49 yards.

The Cougars held advantages in total yards (418-404), first downs (26-20) and plays (75-64) and sacked Booty 3 times.

GAME 5 – October 7, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 26, Washington 20
Att: 90,282

Washington	3	7	3	7	—	20
USC	7	10	6	3	—	26

No. 3 USC—behind PK Mario Danelo's career-best 4 field goals—held on for a 26-20 victory as Washington advanced to the Trojan 15-yard line before time ran out in front of a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 90,282 and a national FSN cable audience.

It was USC's 29 consecutive home win, 26th straight Pac-10 victory and 20th Pac-10 home win in a row, all extensions of league records. Troy also continued its NCAA record of consecutive 20-point games to 57. It was also USC's 11th consecutive sellout, home and away (and its seventh in a row at home).

The Trojans escaped with their second straight 6 point win over a school from the Pacific Northwest (the previous week, Washington State got to the USC 39-yard line before throwing an interception near the goal line on the game's final play).

Troy used some trickery to open the game's scoring on its first possession (an 18-play, 96-yard drive), with reserve QB Michael McDonald throwing a 20-yard scoring strike to WR Steve Smith off a fake field goal attempt (it was McDonald's second career TD pass in as many attempts). But Washington answered on the next series with PK Michael Braunstein's 26-yard field goal (the Huskies had first-and-goal at the 6 but couldn't get in the end zone). The teams continued to alternate scores on the remaining possessions of the first half: USC countered with a 79-yard drive that culminated in QB John David Booty's 17-yard TD toss to WR Patrick Turner early in the second quarter, Washington then came back with a 69-yard drive that ended with QB Isaiah Stanback's 6-yard scoring pass to TB Kenny James and then Danelo hit a 34-yard field goal shortly before the gun.

Washington used some hijinks of its own to start the second half, grabbing an on-side kick and then going 46 yards on a reverse on the next play to set up Braunstein's 25-yard field goal (again, UW had first-and-goal at the 6 but had to settle for 3 points). It was the first points scored on USC in the third quarter in 2006. But Danelo hit his own 25-yard field on the next series. Then, after LB Brian Cushing blocked a punt, Danelo connected on a 32-yard field goal late in the third quarter.

Stanback hit TE Johnnie Kirton with a 6-yard TD pass early in the final quarter before Danelo nailed a 21-yard field goal with 1:34 to play. UW then moved 65 yards and had the ball spotted on the USC 15 with 2 seconds to play but couldn't get the snap off before the clock expired.

Booty was 23-of-40 for 243 yards, Turner caught 12 passes for 116 yards (both career bests and the most receptions by a Trojan since Mike Williams had 13 at Oregon in 2002), Smith added 5 catches for 96 yards, TB Chauncey Washington had 81 yards on 17 carries and TB Emmanuel Moody had 67 yards on 15 tries. Danelo was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week.

For UW, Stanback hit 17-of-38 passes for 212 yards and ran for 33 yards on 10 tries, James had 84 yards on 13 rushes and WR Sonny Shackelford had 9 grabs for 125 yards.

LB Keith Rivers had a game-best 12 tackles with 2 deflections for USC.

The Trojans had 411 total yards to Washington's 379 and held the ball 32:16, but Troy was penalized 8 times and allowed UW to convert 8-of-16 third downs. It was USC's only home day game of 2006, the fewest in 100 years.

USC 28, Arizona State 21
Att: 91,126

Arizona State	0	7	14	0	—	21
USC	14	7	0	7	—	28

TB Chauncey Washington ran for a 2-yard touchdown with 4:29 to play to give No. 3 USC a 28-21 victory and help avert a huge Arizona State comeback in front of a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 91,126 and an ABC-TV regional audience.

Washington carried the ball 10 times for 64 yards on USC's decisive 74-yard drive after USC nearly blew a 21-0 first half lead.

It was USC's 30th consecutive home win, 27th straight Pac-10 victory and 21st Pac-10 home win in a row (all continuations of league records), as well as its seventh straight over the Sun Devils. Troy also extended its NCAA record of consecutive 20-point games to 58. It was USC's 12th consecutive sellout, home and away (and its eighth in a row at home). However, it was the first time since 1968 that USC won 3 straight games by a touchdown or less and the first time since the start of the 2001 season that Troy won 5 consecutive games by scoring less than 30 points in each outing.

The Trojans scored on 3 of their first 4 possessions. TB Allen Bradford caught a 17-yard scoring pass from QB John David Booty early in the game, then after CB Shareece Wright recovered a fumbled ASU punt return, TB C.J. Gable scored on a 2-yard run late in the first quarter. After the Sun Devils missed a 49-yard field goal on their ensuing possession, Booty hit WR Dwayne Jarrett with a 14-yard TD pass early in the second quarter to give Jarrett sole possession of the Pac-10 career touchdown reception record (33).

ASU then came alive late in the half as TB Ryan Torain capped an 11-play, 84-yard drive with a 6-yard scoring run. After USC fumbled away the ball at the top of the second half, the Sun Devils scored quickly as QB Rudy Carpenter found TE Zach Miller for an 8-yard TD. Then, late in the third quarter, CB Keno Walter-White picked off a Booty pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to tie the game.

USC had just 307 total yards, but limited ASU to 245 (139 under its average). The Trojans had 6 penalties and converted just 4-of-13 third downs, while ASU was penalized 12 times for 97 yards.

Booty hit 12-of-25 passes for 148 yards and Jarrett had a game-best 6 receptions for 60 yards.

Carpenter was 12-of-21 for 124 yards and added 49 yards on 8 scrambles, while Torain ran for 57 yards on 20 tries and caught 3 passes for 39 yards and Miller added 4 catches for 36 yards.

LBs Keith Rivers and Rey Maualuga each had 8 tackles for USC.

GAME 7 – October 28, Corvallis, Oregon
Oregon State 33, USC 31
Att: 42,871

USC	0	10	7	14	—	31
Oregon State	7	9	17	0	—	33

Unranked Oregon State batted down a 2-point conversion pass with 7 seconds to play to preserve a 33-31 upset over turnover-prone No. 3 USC in front of a near-capacity Corvallis crowd of 42,871 and a national FSN cable audience.

The loss ended several impressive streaks for USC: 27 Pac-10 games, 18 road games, 18 October games, 13 Pac-10 road games and 6 overall games. It was the highest ranked team that Oregon State defeated since knocking off No. 1 USC in 1967 and it was the most points the Beavers scored in the series since getting 38 in 1914 in the initial contest between the teams.

USC, which was hampered by 4 turnovers, battled back from a 33-10 deficit late in the third quarter. First, after a botched Beaver punt, QB John David Booty hit TE Fred Davis on a 4-yard scoring pass with 23 seconds to play in the third quarter. Then, on USC's next possession, Booty hit WR Steve Smith on a 37-yard TD aerial and TB Chauncey Washington ran in for the 2-point conversion to bring Troy with 8 points. Then, USC took over with 2:39 to play and drove 80 yards in 10 plays as Booty hit Smith with a 2-yard TD toss, but Booty's potential game-tying conversion pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett was knocked down at the line by DE Jeff Van Orsow.

USC, which was coming off a bye, played catch-up the entire game. After OSU scored on the game's first series—a 1-yard run by QB Matt Moore—USC got on the board early in the second quarter on Washington's 2-yard run. But PK Alexis Serna, the 2005 Lou Groza Award winner, kicked field goals on the Beavers' next 3 possessions of the half (47, 31 and 54 yards), including the last 2 following USC fumbles. But Troy responded with a field goal of its own, a 29-yarder by PK Mario Danelo with 7 seconds to go in the half, to close the gap to 16-10.

But Oregon State scored on its first 3 possessions in the second half, in less than a 5-minute span: a 9-yard Moore TD pass to TE Joe Newton, a 70-yard scoring punt return by WR Sammie Stroughter (his third of the season to tie a Pac-10 record) and, following another Trojan fumble, a 20-yard Serna field goal. On the ensuing drive, USC marched to the OSU 10 for first-and-goal late in the third quarter, but couldn't score on 4 tries (the Trojans also blew a first quarter scoring opportunity when they got to the OSU 9, but Booty was intercepted in the end zone).

Smith caught 11 passes for the second time in 2006 and his 258 receiving yards were 2 shy of the USC game record, the eight most in Pac-10 history and set Oregon State opponent and stadium records. Booty hit 24-of-39 passes for 406 yards (the fifth most passing yards in USC history) and Washington had 81 yards on 18 carries.

USC outgained Oregon State, a season-best 492 total yards to 351, and had more first downs (23 to 16), but Troy converted just 3-of-10 third downs and held the ball just 26:49. Its 4 turnovers were the most since having 4 in the triple overtime loss at California in 2003.

S Taylor Mays had a game-best 11 tackles and LB Dallas Sartz had 3 of USC's 6 sacks among his 8 tackles (it was the first time in 28 games that USC has lost when Sartz started).

Moore was 21-of-32 passing for 262 yards, Stroughter caught 8 passes for 127 yards and TB Clinton Polk—subbing for injured TB Yvenson Bernard, who was 13th nationally in rushing—gained 100 yards on 22 tries. The Beavers were penalized 11 times.

It was the 59th consecutive game that USC scored at least 20 points.

GAME 8 – November 4, Palo Alto, California
USC 42, Stanford 0
Att: 49,371

USC	7	21	7	7	—	42
Stanford	0	0	0	0	—	0

No. 9 USC rebounded in a big way from its first loss of 2006 as QB John David Booty threw 3 touchdowns in the second quarter and CB Terrell Thomas returned a blocked field goal for a score to help the Trojans shut out winless Stanford, 42-0, before 49,371 fans in newly-renovated Stanford Stadium and a national FSN cable audience.

It was USC's first shutout over the Cardinal since 1989 and its biggest margin of victory over Stanford since 1977. It also was Stanford's worst loss since 1987 and ran the Cardinal's losing streak to a school record-tying 11th in a row.

USC started the scoring midway through the first quarter as TB Chauncey Washington ran for a 15-yard TD on fourth down. USC drove 85 yards on its next possession, capped by Booty's 21-yard TD pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett. After LB Keith Rivers forced a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and CB Shareece Wright recovered it, Booty hit WR Steve Smith for a 7-yard score on the next play. USC then drove 98 yards late in the half, with Booty finding TE Fred Davis on a 2-yard TD pass to make it 28-0 at the intermission. USC had 259 total yards and 12 first downs at halftime to Stanford's 100 and 5.

Late in the third quarter, Stanford got its deepest penetration into USC territory (to the 16-yard line), but DT Sedrick Ellis blocked the Cardinal's field goal attempt and Thomas raced with the ball 71 yards for a TD (the last time did that was in 2001 against Stanford when Chris Cash blocked a field goal and Kris Richard ran 65 yards for a TD). USC's final score came late in the contest as backup QB Mark Sanchez ran 4 yards for a touchdown on fourth down.

USC had 355 yards of total offense and limited Stanford to just 208 (only 30 rushing). Stanford held the ball 35:52 but had 3 turnovers (the Trojans had come up with just 1 turnover in the previous 3 games).

Booty was 12-of-21 passing for 203 yards, Jarrett had 5 catches for 118 yards and Washington ran for 74 yards on 12 carries. LB Oscar Lua had a team-high 7 tackles. Thomas and S Kevin Ellison each had an interception, with Thomas adding a sack.

For Stanford, QB T.C. Ostrander was 16-of-30 for 178 yards.

It was USC's eighth straight win following a loss and it extended the Trojans' NCAA record for consecutive 20-point games to 60.

GAME 9 – November 11, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 35, Oregon 10
Att: 92,000

Oregon	0	0	3	7	—	10
USC	0	14	14	7	—	35

TB Chauncey Washington ran for 3 touchdowns and the USC defense controlled Oregon's high-powered offense as the No. 7 Trojans beat the No. 21 Ducks, 35-10, before a sold-out Homecoming crowd of 92,000 and a national FSN cable audience.

It was USC's 31st consecutive home victory and its 21st straight Pac-10 home win, both extending league records, as well as its 18th November win in a row. It also was Troy's 61st consecutive game scoring at least 20 points, advancing its NCAA record. Oregon, making its first visit to the Coliseum since 2000, scored its fewest points since early in the 2004 season and its fewest against USC since 1992.

After a scoreless first quarter, USC drove 80 yards early in the second quarter as TB C.J. Gable ran for a 2-yard TD. Then, after S Taylor Mays intercepted QB Dennis Dixon on the Ducks' next play and returned the ball to the Oregon 7, Washington scored on a 5-yard run.

Oregon got on the board midway through the third quarter on a 22-yard field goal by PK Paul Martinez. But later in that quarter, USC took advantage of a fumble recovery by LB Dallas Sartz as Washington ran in for a 3-yard score. On USC's next possession, Washington jetted a career-long 43 yards for a touchdown to make it 28-3. Oregon responded with an 80-yard drive early in the fourth quarter, capped by backup QB Brady Leaf's 7-yard TD pass to TB Jonathan Stewart, who caught the ball after it was deflected by a Trojan. But USC answered right away, with QB John David Booty hitting WR Dwayne Jarrett for a 12-yard score.

Washington rushed for a career-best 119 yards on 15 attempts (7.9 yards per carry), Booty was 16-of-25 for 176 yards, Jarrett caught 7 passes for 91 yards and WR Steve Smith had 7 receptions for 88 yards. USC averaged 6.2 yards per play, getting 343 total yards on 55 plays.

USC limited Oregon, which was ranked highly in most offensive statistical categories and was averaging 456.2 total yards (including 205.8 rushing) and 36.3 points, to just 358 total yards (only 102 on the ground). The Ducks, who were penalized 12 times and converted only 8-of-19 third downs, were just 2-of-5 in the red zone, getting stopped on their opening drive on fourth-and-1 on the Trojan 13, then missing a second quarter field goal and then getting stopped again on fourth down at the USC 4 late in the game. But Oregon had 88 plays (to USC's 55) and held the ball 33:37. Dixon was 15-of-23 for 130 yards, Leaf was 13-of-22 for 104 yards, Stewart gained just 42 yards on 14 carries, TE Dante Rosario had 7 catches for 69 yards, and WRs Jaison Williams (71 yards) and Jordan Kent (44 yards) each had 6 grabs.

For USC, DE Lawrence Jackson, CB Cary Harris and LB Keith Rivers each had 10 tackles, with Jackson getting 3 sacks (his first of 2006), while Sartz added 9 tackles.

GAME 10 – November 18, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 23, California 9
Att: 91,672

California	2	7	0	0	—	9
USC	3	3	3	14	—	23

With a Rose Bowl berth on the line for both teams, QB John David Booty threw a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 4 USC to an unprecedented fifth consecutive Pac-10 title with a 23-9 victory over No. 17 California before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 91,672 and a national ABC-TV audience.

The win, which deprived the Golden Bears of their first Rose Bowl trip since the 1958 season, cemented USC's 31st Rose Bowl berth and kept the Trojans alive in the race for a spot in the BCS Championship Game. It also extended USC's league records for consecutive home wins (32) and Pac-10 home wins (23), and kept head coach Pete Carroll undefeated in November (19-0).

USC broke open a 9-9 tie as Booty threaded the needle on a 25-yard TD strike to WR Dwayne Jarrett early in the fourth quarter and, on its next series, found wide-open WR Steve Smith for a 37-yard scoring toss on fourth-and-2.

After its opening drive stalled at the Bear 2-yard line, USC got on the board first on a 19-yard field goal by PK Mario Danelo late in the first quarter. But Cal recorded a safety when DT Brandon Mebane tackled TB Chauncey Washington in the end zone one play after S Taylor Mays picked off a Bear pass at the 3-yard line. Danelo nailed a 32-yard field goal late in the second quarter, but Cal responded as QB Nate Longshore found WR Lavelle Hawkins with a 6-yard TD pass to give the Bears a 9-6 halftime edge.

USC tied the game late in the third quarter when FB/PK/S David Buehler, in his first career field goal attempt, drilled a 49-yarder (Troy's longest since Adam Abrams hit a 49-yarder at Oregon in 1998).

USC throttled Cal's high-powered offense, which entered the game averaging 34.7 points and 431.3 yards of total offense per game and featured the league's top rusher (TB Marshawn Lynch at 109.0), passer (Longshore at 239.3) and all-purpose runner (WR DeSean Jackson at 130.1). The Bears were held to a season-low 275 total yards (99 on the ground) and 14 first downs while turning the ball over 3 times (it was Cal's fewest points since getting 7 against Oregon in 2001). Lynch ran for only 88 yards on 20 carries, Longshore was just 17-of-38 for 176 yards with 2 interceptions (and he lost a fumble) and Jackson was held to 53 all-purpose yards. The Trojan defense was particularly dominant in the second half, pitching a shutout while limiting Cal to 96 total yards (just 32 rushing), 5 first downs, 10:05 of possession time and 2-of-7 third down conversions.

S Kevin Ellison led USC with 7 tackles. On offense, Booty was 18-of-31 for 238 yards, Smith caught a game-high 6 passes for 88 yards and Jarrett added 5 catches for 66 yards and TB C.J. Gable ran for a game-best and career-high 91 yards on 19 carries while starting (he also caught a 35-yard pass and had a 33-yard kickoff return to account for 159 all-purpose yards).

USC had 358 yards of total offense, 19 first downs and held the ball 33:51, but converted just 4-of-13 third downs and was penalized 10 times for 71 yards.

GAME 11 – November 25, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 44, Notre Dame 24
Att: 91,800

Notre Dame	3	7	7	7	—	24
USC	14	7	7	16	—	44

WR Dwayne Jarrett caught 3 touchdown passes from QB John David Booty to help No. 3 USC dominate No. 6 Notre Dame, 44-24, before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 91,800 and a national ABC-TV audience.

The win, which kept the Trojans alive in the hunt for a BCS Championship Game berth, was USC's fifth in a row over the Irish (equaling Troy's longest in the series) and snapped Notre Dame's 8-game winning streak in 2006. It also extended USC's Pac-10 record for home wins to 33, its NCAA record streak of 20-plus point games to 63 and its school record of 10-win seasons to 5, plus it kept head coach Pete Carroll undefeated in November (20-0).

USC jumped out to a 21-3 lead early in the second quarter by scoring on its first 3 possessions. Booty hit Jarrett on 9- and 5-yard scoring tosses before Irish PK Carl Gioia hit a 27-yard field goal late in the first quarter. But USC responded as Booty scored on a 1-yard sneak.

The Trojans then sputtered on their next 3 series in the second quarter, having a punt blocked (which led to a 7-yard scoring pass from QB Brady Quinn to TE Marcus Freeman) and throwing a pair of interceptions.

But Troy scored on 4 of its first 5 drives of the second half, including a 2-yard TD run by TB Chauncey Washington early in the third quarter. Quinn then hit WR Rhema McKnight late in the quarter, but USC followed with a 34-yard field goal by PK Mario Danelo and then a 43-yard Booty aerial to Jarrett, who bounced off one defender and outraced 4 others for a TD.

After Quinn found WR Jeff Samardzija for a 2-yard TD late in the game, LB Brian Cushing fielded the ensuing onside kick and ran it back 42 yards untouched for USC's final points.

Both teams had 404 yards of total offense, but Notre Dame was just 7-of-18 on third downs (only 2-of-6 on fourth downs) and Quinn was sacked 3 times. Jarrett caught 7 passes for 132 yards and his 3 scoring receptions equaled an Irish opponent record. Booty was 17-of-29 for 265 yards and TB C.J. Gable ran for a game-high 107 yards on 20 carries (both career bests).

Quinn was 22-of-45 for 274 yards and he also had a team-best 74 rushing yards on 11 tries (including a 60-yard scramble). McKnight had 6 catches for 109 yards and tied the Irish season record for TD receptions, while Samardzija had 6 grabs for 79 yards.

LB Dallas Sartz led the Trojans with 8 tackles, including 2 for losses, S Taylor Mays added 7 stops and LB Oscar Lua had 6. It was the first time since 1988 that both teams were ranked at least sixth by AP going into the game. It was the last home game for USC's 16 seniors. The Coliseum was sold out for the 10th straight game as USC set Pac-10 home season attendance records for highest average and total crowds. ESPN's College GameDay pre-game show made its fifth appearance at the Coliseum.

GAME 12 – December 2, Pasadena, California
UCLA 13, USC 9
Att: 90,622

USC	0	9	0	0	—	9
UCLA	7	0	3	3	—	13

UCLA used a suffocating, aggressive defensive effort to knock No. 2 USC out of a third consecutive BCS Championship Game appearance with a 13-9 upset victory over the Trojans in front of a sold-out Rose Bowl crowd of 90,622 and a national ABC-TV audience.

The win snapped Troy's 7-game winning streak over the Bruins and ended USC's NCAA record of 63 consecutive games scoring at least 20 points. It also was USC's fewest points since scoring just 6 in a loss to Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl and its fewest against UCLA since a 7-7 tie in 1971. The loss sent the Trojans to their 31st Rose Bowl berth.

UCLA held USC scoreless in the second half (the first time that happened against the Trojans since the 2000 California contest). Although USC had 329 total yards, the Bruins limited Troy to just 55 rushing yards and 15 first downs (USC's fewest since the 2004 California game, when it had 41 and 12, respectively). USC managed to convert just 6-of-17 third downs and 1-of-3 fourth downs, and the Trojans were penalized 9 times. USC punted a season-high 7 times.

UCLA scored first, on a 1-yard run by QB Patrick Cowan late in the first quarter than capped a 12-play 91-yard drive (the longest drive by UCLA and surrendered by USC in 2006). On UCLA's next possession, the Bruins were called for holding in their own end zone, getting USC on the board with a safety early in the second quarter (it was the first safety against UCLA since 1998 and USC's first since 2003). The Trojans then took the lead on a 1-yard scoring run by TB C.J. Gable late in the half.

But UCLA PK Justin Medlock hit a 22-yard field goal late in the third quarter and then a 31-yarder midway through the fourth quarter to provide the winning margin. The Trojans got to UCLA's 18-yard line late in the game, but LB Eric McNeal tipped and then intercepted QB John David Booty's pass to seal the victory with 1:10 to go.

Booty was 23-of-39 for 274 yards despite being under constant pressure from UCLA's blitzing defense. Gable ran for 52 yards on 19 carries and TE Fred Davis (68 yards) and WR Steve Smith (66 yards) each had 6 receptions (both were career highs for Davis).

UCLA had only 235 total yards (the first time in the Pete Carroll era that an opponent won with less than 300 total yards) and 14 first downs, and was just 4-of-13 on third down conversions. Cowan completed 12-of-21 passes for 114 yards and added a game-best 55 rushing yards on 10 tries, TB Chris Markey had 51 yards on 20 carries and WR Marcus Everett caught 5 passes for 72 yards.

LBs Dallas Sartz (8 tackles) and Rey Maualuga (7 tackles) led the Trojan defense (each had a sack).

It was UCLA's first victory over a No. 2-ranked team since a win over Washington in 1990.
